Shout 'Killers Go Home'

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovaks massed today on Vaclavske Namesti, Prague's main square, in a violent demonstration against the Soviet-led occupation and the arrest of their reform-minded Communist chief, Alexander Dubcek.

Ignoring requests by the clandestine Prague radio to maintain calm to avoid giving the foreign soldiers an excuse for further violence, a crowd of about 20,000 shook their fist at the Russians and shouted: "Russian murderers go home!"

They called for Dubcek's release.

Shots Heard From Square

Shots were heard from the square. It could not be determined immediately whether the soldiers were aiming at demonstrators or loosing warning shots into the air.

Soviet tank troops, who had been covering all approaches to the square since their arrival Wednesday, imediately closed all bridges across the Vltava River, which divides the city.

The move came as Czechoslovak Communists, reacting to the occupation by 200,000 Russian and Kremlin-line satellite troops, convened in an extraordinary party congress that its liberal leadership had originally scheduled to open Sept. 9.

This was a last-ditch attempt to force the troops to leave through political pressure.

927 Delegates Meet

The clandestine proliberal radio announced 927 delegates met at 11:20 a.m. Though the broadcast did not specify the site, the delegates had been urged to go to the liberal-controlled CKD factory on the outskirts of Prague.

Under arrangements that had been made by Dubcek, 1,500 members would have been on hand for the September meeting. In that session it had been expected he would oust conservative opponents from the ruling party Presidium and the Central Committee.

The seven Central Committee members who have declared loyalty to the Soviet-led occupation troops, tried to shift today's meeting to the party-owned Praha Hotel.

Soviet tanks and armored cars guarded the approaches to the hotel. Several black limousines were parked outside.

The proliberal station broadcast warnings to congress delegates not to go to the hotel, which it said was a trap.

The calling of the congress was another attempt to discredit the pro-Soviet members of the Presidium, who include Slovak party chief Vasil Bilak and Drahomir Kolder, a former head of economic planning.

Editor's Name Dropped

The proliberal radio this morning mentioned Rude Pravo editor Oldrich Svestka as one of the pro-Soviet members, but later broadcasts dropped his name.

He was reported arrested by Soviet troops Wednesday, although he has come out against some of Dubcek's policies in the past.

Dubcek himself was still in Soviet custody, along with other leading members of his liberal regime.

The radio said a general strike started in the South Bohemian district to protest the occupation.

The radio also called on the army to protect President Ludvik Svoboda and not to take orders from anyone except from the legal government.

Czechoslovak secret police, who have kept in the background since Dubcek took over in January, were arresting prominent writers and journalists.

Witnesses reported hundreds of political prisoners were arriving at Pankrac Prison.

Meanwhile an American Embassy motor convoy taking U.S. citizens out of the country cleared a checkpoint outside Prague and was on its way to the West German border crossing point at Rozvadov.

Embassy officials said a Czechoslovak motorcycle policeman was escorting the convoy of about 20 embassy and private cars.

Dozens of British, Dutch and West German cars joined the American convoy.

Fair Begins; 17,000 Join In Youth Day

3 Features Will Highlight Program At Lisbon Today

By PAUL YOUNG

LISBON — Columbiana County fair directors estimated 17,000 attended the "Youth Day" opener Wednesday when children and students were admitted free.

Sweltering temperatures—"in the 90's with high humidity"—were predicted again today. The 123rd annual exposition will run through Sunday.

The first of three afternoons of harness racing was scheduled to begin at 2 today. Pacers and trotters will see action again Friday and Saturday.

Three features are on the program for late afternoon and this evening.

John R. Oliver, 31, Lisbon balloonist, is to make an ascent and parachute drop at 5 (his act is billed for the same hour Friday and Saturday).

Some 90 head of 4-H and Future Farmers of America steers will be auctioned off at 8 in the coliseum.

Eldon Daniel's auto thrill show will be the grandstand attraction, also at 8. The grandstand shows are free.

Principal attractions last night were the Junior Fair parade and the lightweight and heavyweight horse-pulling contests.

Vicki Cobourn,, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burtt Cobourn of Columbiana RD 2, and David Holmes, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holmes of Winona, were chosen Junior Fair queen and king from a royal court of six girls and six boys.

They were crowned by last year's royalty — Brenda Wilhelm of Salem RD 3 and Keith Serafy of Wellsville RD 1.

Miss Cobourn has been in 4-H club work 11 years and is a member of the Fairfield Cloverleaves Club. She attends the Salem branch of Kent State University and is employed at the

Referendum Set For Tax By Petitions

Realtor Boards Act To Head Off Move By Commissioners

LISBON — The Columbiana County and East Liverpool boards of realtors Wednesday afternoon apparently forestalled the county commissioners' plan to place a 2-mill tax on real estate transfers beginning Sept. 1.

Presidents Bruce R. Herron of Salem and James Lowe of East Liverpool filed with the county auditor referendum petitions bearing 3,450 signatures.

THE OFFICERS were accompanied by Robert McCallister of Columbus, chairman of the Realtors Ohio Committee of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

McAllister said there is still a legal question about the earliest date the question of the tax may be placed before county voters. In any case, it cannot be before the May primary in 1970, he said, and it may be delayed until November 1970.

He said the petitions, when validated, halt the collection of the tax subject to the decision of the voters.

County commissioners adopted the permissive tax resolution July 25 after public hearings July 18 and 22. Both real estate board presidents, members, several builders and moneylenders spoke against the tax.

There were no proponents except the commissioners. They told the delegation they were considering this permissive tax reluctantly, but were in a financial pinch and had to have more money for current expenses. Charles J. Gause, commissioners' chairman, said

Hookstown's Fair Begins With Judging

The 22nd annual Hookstown Grange Fair got off to a good start Wednesday with fine weather and eager crowds. Exhibitors were standing in line with their products by 8:30 a.m., a spokesman reported.

Winning blue ribbons in the general farm crops category were Mrs. John Sipp of Hanover Township, white - skinned potatoes; Charles Huff of Chester, large kernel oats and husking corn; James Brunton of Aliquippa, sweet corn; and John Sipp of Hanover Township, barley and wheat.

Fruits and Vegetables: W. C. Conkle of Green Township, two blue ribbons for apples; Elliott Farms of Little Blue Rd., Chester, tomoatoes, and 11 blue ribbons for apples and two for pears; Lee Anderson of Aliquippa, peaches; Steve Elliott of Chester, plums; Miss Ruth Cain of Hookstown, squash, black-eyed peas, huckleberries, yellow snap beans and purple pod beans; Hilliard Brothes of Chester, cabbage, eggplant, white onions and green beans; Judy Wilson of Aliquippa, to-

HOT HEAD? Everybody knows the cliche, "Hot enough to cook eggs on a sidewalk," but how about weather warm enough to fry on a forehead (high, that it)? The mid-afternoon sun bears down almost like a physical blow; the humidity gives the atmosphere the consistency of diluted applesauce.

Dogs dig deep holes in dense shade and sprawl there for the duration; pedestrians move along downtown sidewalks with the gait of the condemned on the last mile.

But the heat wave that grips East Liverpool is not all bad, provided you're in the right line of business. Heat does strange things to man as he seeks relief. The importance of the dollar shrinks in inverse proportion to the rising temperature.

SALES OF air conditioners soar and purchase of big window fans is not far behind. Humidity that almost always accompanies extreme heat sends the sales curve climbing for dehumidifiers, the little electrical devices that wring pints of water out of the air in basements.

A salesman for a major retailer commented Tuesday afternoon that air conditioner sales in East Liverpool have been "fantastic," both in 1967 and 1968. The first real heat of the season in June and July brings a wave of customers determined not to "sweat out" another summer. And when hot weather beats down again in August, stocks have been depleted seriously.

Twenty years ago an air conditioner was a monstrous device that required special electrical wiring, sophisticated plumbing and a complex installation job. Modern technology has simplified the machine and reduced its bulk tremendously, so that the average home owner can place a model in a window and sit back to relax in a cool breeze.

Sales of fans have soared just as drastically. But the tiny models are out. Today's householder wants the window type powered by a large motor, capable of

9 Hostages Rescued At Ohio Prison

Rebellion Crushed When Inmates Turn Down Ultimatum

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rebellion by Ohio Penitentiary inmates was crushed Wednesday by police and National Guardsmen, who blasted through prison walls to rescue nine penitentiary guards held hostage for nearly 30 hours.

Five of the inmates who had threatened to burn the guards to death were killed in the attack and 10 others were injured. The hostages escaped injury.

'Overplayed Hand'

State Corrections chief Maury C. Koblentz said the inmates "overplayed their hand and lost." The inmates had threatened to kill the hostages if certain demands weren't met or if a rescue by force was attempted.

"They had won two big items but lost everything when they ignored our ultimatum," Koblentz said.

That ultimatum, delivered at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, gave the inmates 15 minutes to surrender and release the guards.

The fifteen minutes passed, the hostages were not freed and two dynamite blasts were set off seconds apart. One shattered the outside wall of cells where the prisoners were, the other ripped the roof off the cell block.

Streams Through Hole

Columbus policemen, state highway patrolmen and National Guardsmen streamed through the hole in the wall and down ropes from the roof. Staccato bursts of automatic rifle fire and the roar of shotguns was heard seconds later.

The nine hostages were freed a few minutes later. The rebel-

Gov. Hughes 'Outstanding'

HHH Backers Confident, Survey Field For 'VP'

CHICAGO (AP) — Backers of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, confident they have the Democratic presidential nomination in hand, surveyed today the possibilities for a running mate.

Outstanding among these was Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, who has been wending his way through the labyrinth of delegate challenges and contests initiated by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., with what is regarded by most Democratic pros as a remarkably cool approach.

The handsome, dark-haired and youthful appearing governor of New Jersey—becoming a star performer on television in these hectic preconvention days in sweltering Chicago—is cast as the most logical choice if McCarthy refuses to play second fiddle to his former close associate in Minnesota's strident politics.

There remained no doubt in the Humphrey camp that McCarthy would help the vice president in the general election more than any second man he could pick. But McCarthy remained a political enigma, who might even head off into a fourth party foray if he disagrees with the outcome of next week's party nominating convention.

There was no doubt that Humphrey would be glad to accept Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., for second place on the ticket if the senator would reconsider his reiterated statement that he would not be a candidate for any office this year.

This and other convention maneuverings seemed to leave Humphrey a wide choice of running mates.

He could, for example, take Sargent Shriver, brother-in-law of the Kennedys and current ambassador to France. Shriver, a super-salesman and an attractive operator, has the liability of Who'd Want A Tarantula?

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — A tarantula measuring 24 inches from foreleg tip to rear leg tip is reported stolen from a soap box in James McGuire's garage.

McGuire, 19, told police Wednesday his huge spider disappeared during lessons to teach it how to hop. A police all-points bulletin warned that the tarantula, named Cuddles, is dangerous.

Crew Continues Work To Improve Crossing

A street department crew is continuing work on improving the Horn Switch railroad crossing at the foot of St. Clair Ave. by removing the abandoned rails and ties and surfacing the area with concrete that will be covered later with blacktop.

Work was completed Wednesday on half of the wide crossing and the crew is working today on the second half. The crossing should be open again for its full width by Friday, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said today.

Removal of the rails and ties was possible because of abandonment of the Horn Switch siding west of that point. The area will be surfaced with blacktop as part of the general improvement of St. Clair between 6th St. and Princeton Ave.

More Hot And Humid Weather Due In Area

The weather remains as hot as the bats of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

After another day Wednesday of readings in the 90s, the forecast again calls for warm and humid through Friday.

45 Civilians Killed, 117 Wounded

Foe's Rockets Rip Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy rockets smashed into the center of Saigon for the first time in two months today and mortars hit more than a dozen other cities and allied installations in a fifth straight day of widespread enemy attacks.

Heavy ground fighting also was reported at half a dozen points.

Military comuniques reported 45 Vietnamese civilians were killed and 117 wounded in the rain of more than 500 rockets and mortars that hit Saigon and cities to the northwest and south. A Japanese news correspondent, Tatsuo Sakai, 33, also was killed in the Saigon attack, becoming the 19th correspondent to die in the war. Only five Americans were reported wounded in the widespread shellings.

GI Fatally Shot

An American soldier was fatally shot in the back while cycling in downtown Saigon. The shooting touched off a running motorcycle gun battle that left a South Vietnamese soldier and one of the three Vietnamese assailants wounded. The wounded assailant was later captured. The two other men escaped.

The intensified pace of the war included shellings and ground attacks against at least six allied bases blocking invasion routes into Saigon and a fifth straight day of heavy fighting for control of a road 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The road is a vital supply route for American forces astride a key Viet Cong infiltration corridor leading from Cambodia.

A senior U.S. officer said the stepped up fighting across the country—with more than 1,400 enemy troops reported killed

Steps Rushed For Schools' Opening Here

Contractors and suppliers are being contacted today by school officials in an effort to assure opening of East Liverpool schools as scheduled by Sept. 4.

Supt. Paul Blair said this morning, after a meeting with Architect Robert Beatty, that every effort is being made to meet the opening date, but it is doubtful if anything definite will be known before the first of the week.

Opening of the schools had been threatened as the result of the strike by Local 677, State, County and Municipal Employes, which lasted one week and stopped work on the new building complex and the delivery of furniture and equipment. The strike was ended yesterday when the custodians agreed to accept a proposal by the board of education and return to work this morning.

The final agreement follows:

1. — New starting salary for custodians $4,400, with $50 increments for 12 years retroactive to the first day back to work.

An American soldier was fatally shot in the back while cycling in downtown Saigon. The shooting touched off a running motorcycle gun battle that left a South Vietnamese soldier and one of the three Vietnamese assailants wounded. The wounded assailant was later captured. The two other men escaped.

The intensified pace of the war included shellings and ground attacks against at least six allied bases blocking invasion routes into Saigon and a fifth straight day of heavy fighting for control of a road 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The road is a vital supply route for American forces astride a key Viet Cong infiltration corridor leading from Cambodia.

A senior U.S. officer said the stepped up fighting across the country—with more than 1,400 enemy troops reported killed

Steps Rushed For Schools' Opening Here

Contractors and suppliers are being contacted today by school officials in an effort to assure opening of East Liverpool schools as scheduled by Sept. 4.

Supt. Paul Blair said this morning, after a meeting with Architect Robert Beatty, that every effort is being made to meet the opening date, but it is doubtful if anything definite will be known before the first of the week.

Opening of the schools had been threatened as the result of the strike by Local 677, State, County and Municipal Employes, which lasted one week and stopped work on the new building complex and the delivery of furniture and equipment. The strike was ended yesterday when the custodians agreed to accept a proposal by the board of education and return to work this morning.

The final agreement follows: 1. — New starting salary for custodians $4,400, with $50 increments for 12 years retroactive to the first day back to work.

Say Vice President Will Recover

HHH Advisers Cite Nixon Exposure For Poll Slump

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's advisers say his sharp drop in the latest presidential popularity poll is due to wide exposure Richard M. Nixon got during the Republican National Convention.

They say they believe Humphrey will recover in the standings as soon as the Democrats get their crack at the national television audience when they hold their own nominating convention next week in Chicago.

The advisers, however, aren't rejecting the latest Gallup poll out of hand. It is understood they are concerned enough to have talked to the polling firm and to concede that if tradition doesn't hold their man could be in trouble.

The poll, made public Wednesday only five days before the Democratic convention, shows Republican Nixon widening his lead from 40-to-38 per cent over Humphrey in mid-July to about 45-to-29 in the period immediately after the GOP convention.

Humphrey people insist the poll result will have no effect on the convention outcome. They contend that the other candidates—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota and Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia—have not shown any greater popularity among the delegates.

After their talks with the Gallup people, Humphrey advisers said Barry Goldwater showed substantial improvement in the polls immediately after the 1964 GOP convention that nominated him.

But it was a temporary rise.

Thus, the argument goes that Goldwater's and Nixon's showings were improved by saturation news coverage of their conventions.

Humphrey advisers expect the vice president will show a similar gain in the polls after the Democratic convention, if he is nominated. And Humphrey predicts he will be nominated on the first ballot.

The poll came out the same day that Sen. Edward M. Kennedy repeated that he is not running for office in 1968.

Some Democratic leaders think only the Kennedy name on the ticket would assure Humphrey of victory against Nixon this fall. But Humphrey is represented as feeling that Kennedy means exactly what he says and is out of the running as a potential prseidentil or vice presidential candidate at the convention.

Humphrey, who is working on his acceptance speech, is presumably also looking over again the names of those who might add strength to a Humphrey ticket.

Much of the recent speculation centers on Sargent Shriver, a Kennedy brother-in-law who is ambassador to Paris, New Jersey Gov. Richard Hughes, Oklahoma Sen. Fred Harris, former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford and San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto.

But Humphrey is said to be insisting that the list is still open and that two of his opponents—McCarthy and McGovern—are possibilities as well as others.

U.S. Battle Deaths Second Lowest Of Year Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — American battle deaths last week numbered 159 killed, the second lowest figure this year, U.S. headquarters nnounced today.

The weekly casualty report reflected the lull in the war which was then in progress. The lull ended with heavy fighting last Sunday and the next casualty report is certain to be higher.

For the week ending Aug. 17, headquarters listed 1,393 enemy killed by allied forces.

American losses were 159 killed, 609 wounded and hospitalized and 575 wounded and treated in the field.

This brought the war's total U.S. death toll to 26,793 as opposed to 379,564 enemy killed.

The death toll was the lowest since mid-July when 157 Americans were killed at the beginning of the period marking the fall in combat activity. That was the lowest week this year and among the lowest in almost two years.

The figures listed 1,193 U.S. servicemen as missing or captured, a drop of 15 during the week due to missing Americans being reclassified from missing to dead.

The U.S. Command also gave an increased figure for the enemy dead in the previous weekly report which ended Aug. 10. The previous figure was 1,642 enemy killed but the command said re-evaluation fixed enemy losses at 2,102 for the week.

The weekly report totaled 88,525 Americans wounded and hospitalized since the war began with another 79,627 wounded and treated in the field.

Cyclists Get Warning On Muffler Violations

Mayor Steve Suchanec of Industry has issued a warning to motorcyclists who are operating their vehicles without baffle in the mufflers.

He said today that those doing so will be stopped and fined for violating the noise ordinance. Pennsylvanai State Police will be assisting in the check-ups.

Police Chief Ray Hendershot said residents have complained about the great amount of noise created after 10 p. m. in the borough by motorcycles improperlye quipped.

Three Cars Involved In Mishap At Newell

Damage was moderate in a three - car accident Wednesday at 3:15 p. m. in front of Wells Junior High School, Newell.

Alyce Ann Mathias, 21, of 1164 Oakwood Ave., East Liverpool, told Hancock County deputies the car in front of her slowed in heavy traffic and she applied the brakes, but not hard enough and ran into a vehicle driven by Ernest Smith, 29, of Grove City, Pa. Smith's car then was forced into a vehicle operated by Faye Simmons, 56, of Lisbon.

Total damage to all three cars was estimated at $750, deputies said.

Czechs

ans and Bulgarians—free captive liberal leaders and go home, leaving the nation to pursue its freer brand of communism.

"There is no way back from freedom and democracy for Czechoslovakia," Svoboda said in an address over the clandestine radio station.

"The situation must be solved rapidly and the troops must leave," the 72-year-old president said, adding that he hoped a solution could be reached today.

But another clandestine pro-liberal broadcast today said members of the Czechoslovak Communist party central committee who have aligned themselves with the occupation troops were meeting at the Soviet Embassy to form a new hard-line government.

As Svoboda first outlined his position during the night, a quarter-hour firefight against the occupation troops broke out in Prague. Hundreds of casualties already had been reported in scattered cases of resistance.

The occupation forces imposed a midnight-5 a.m. curfew and announced they would shoot without questions at anyone who appeared on the streets.

The Parliament adopted its defiant stance at an emergency meeting Wednesday. Occupation troops entered the Parliament building but the assembly continued in session.

A broadcast by Prague Radio, operating from a secret location, said occupation forces seized Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and three other liberal leaders and sped them off to an unknown destination.

In Moscow, Pravda denounced Dubcek as the leader of a "treacherous betrayal" of Comunist ideals. The Soviet Communist party organ said he led a minority faction in the Czechoslovak Communist party that supported counter-revolution. It was the first Soviet public personal attack on Dubcek since the Russians began denouncing Czechoslovak liberalism.

The troops that made a lightning thrust into Czechoslovakia Tuesday night to wipe out such liberal reforms as freedom of the press still had not set up a new government today to return the country to the hard line approved by the Kremlin for Communist nations.

Commanders of the occupation troops met at a hotel in downtown Prague with eight committe members. The eighth, Martin Vaculik, called for a party congress under the liberals headed by Dubcek.

The seven who came out for the occupation included Vasil Bilak, chief of the Slovak Communist party, and Oldrich Svestka, editor-in-chief of Rude Pravo, the Communist party organ. They were trying to get delegates already chosen for a party congress Sept. 9 to come to the Communist party hotel in Prague.

A pro-Dubcek radio broadcasting clandestinely from Prague told the delegates this was a trap and told them to go to a Prague factory instead.

At least 23 persons, including some Soviet bloc soldiers, were reported killed in incidents since the invasion began late Tuesday night.

Broadcasts said seven persons were killed in fighting around the Prague Radio offices, six in Liberec 55 miles northeast of Prague and 10 in the eeast Slovak town of Kosice.

Reports from Kosice said some Soviet soldiers were killed by a Molotov cocktail thrown in their tank, and that Russian troops fired on a crowd, killing a youth, 17, and wounding about 20 persons.

The Czechoslovak news agency CTK, before reporting it had been put out of business at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, said about 180 persons were wounded in Prague.

Angry thousands of Czechoslovaks marched in Prague behind a World War II jeep filled with young people carrying a black flag. On the hood sat a teenager with a Czechoslovak flag covered with blood.

Travelers reaching West Germany from Czechoslovakia described a shocked, weeping and often-defiant population.

Pravda repeated today promises that the Soviet bloc tanks and troops would be withdrawn when the "danger to the security of Socialist countries is removed" and when the "legitimate authorities find the further presence of allied troops unnecessary."

It said, "when the principles of party life are discarded, when party people are defamed, it is fair to say that the Communist party of Czechoslovakia was in danger."

The Soviet Union said earlier it sent troops to meet an urgent request of Communist leaders for assistance in preserving communism.

But in Washington, President Johnson called this claim "patently contrived" and urged withdrawal of the troops.

The Czechoslovak leaders reportedly seized with Dubcek were Joseph Surkovsky, president of the National Assembly, and Joseph Spacek and Frantisek Kriegel, members of the Communist party presidium. The reports said they were taken by Soviet soldiers from the central committee building where they had been restricted all day.

Earlier reports said Premier Eldrich Cernik and Communist party secretary Cestimir Cisar were arrested. An edition of Rude Pravo put out by liberals said "we have no news of Pavel"—Interior Minister Josef Pavel, a liberal who has been under attack in the Soviet press since expelling Soviet advisers from his ministry.

An urgent request for the release of Cisar and a Parliament delegation that did not return from the Soviet Embassy after going there for negotiations were contained in a note to the governments of the five occupying countries, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported.

It said a broadcast reported the note to the governments of the Soviet Union, East Germany, Poland, Hungary and Bulgaria.

The note also demanded "urgent measures that might enable restoration of normal life in the country and halt violent actions against the population of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic."

Meanwhile, however, clandestine radio broadcasts reported more occupation forces entering the country, including units of the Polish air force.

The U.S. Embassy plans a convoy of private American cars to the Rozvadov border crossing point into West Germany. Embassy officials said they had been assured that foreigners could leave the country.

An estimated 1,500 Americans are in Czechoslovakia, about 400 for a world geological congress.

The geologists flew in to Prague and the embasy was faced with the problems of finding transport for them. Gasoline supplies have been requisitioned by the occupying army and little transportation was available locally.

Maryland's State House at Annapolis served as the first peacetime Capitol of the United States.

Sales

With the average family's income up appreciably, the household air conditioner is regarded as a necessity, not a luxury, the salesman commented.

Dehumidifiers also are in heavy demand because of their ability to take gallons of water out of the air in an apparently dry basement. Families with paneled game rooms in their basements especially seek the dehumidifiers to protect their investment against mildew and dampness.

But the time-honored ways of beating the heat still are in vogue, technology or no technology.

Harold Peterson, superintendent of the city water department, said consumption is up extensively because of the August heat wave. Back yard swimming pools help account for some of the additional water use, he said.

WATERING OF lawns and gardens increases in a dry spell when the sun is blazing. Youngsters sprinkle each other with the garden hose. Families bathe more frequently in the oppresive humidity.

City Chemist Francis Wise said water use is up 5 to 10 per cent from a normal month. He agreed with curbstone observers who claim the weather has been much hotter this summer than last. Water consumption in July was up 5 million gallons from the same month in 1967.

Hot weather brings an increase in sales of ice cream cones and soft drinks. Businessmen said there's such a trend at present. Youngsters have a better chance of wheedling a dime from father for a cone when the mercury is in the 90's. Oftentimes, they carry home a cone for Mom and Pop, too. Vanilla, strawberry and chocolate still are the all-time best sellers. It's time for fresh peach ice cream, a seasonal favorite.

A HEAT WAVE brings a resurgence in sales of supplies for outdoor cooking. Hotdog and hamburg stocks move quickly. The more affluent buy steaks. Charcoal fuel for grills and the makin's for iced tea and lemonade are in demand.

Residents of the sweltering downtown area take to the hilltop byways in their autos just about sundown, savoring the cooler temperatures. Drive - in movies are crowded. Swimming pools do a landoffice business.

And for all those steaming on the stoop of a house that seems like an oven, remember: The crisp breezes of autumn are not far away!

Vietnam

since last Sunday—could be the start of the long-awaited third Viet Cong offensive. But he qualified this by adding that "It's too early to make an assessment."

Diversionary Move Hinted

The officer conceded that it is "always possible" the latest attacks, mainly those on allied bases, may have been a diversionary move to distract allied forces while enemy troops maneuvered into position for a subsequent ground attack on Saigon.

"They've done this in the past," he noted.

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams' headquarters termed the renewed shelling of Saigon "indiscriminate harassing rocket attacks."

"No military installations were hit," a communique from Abrams' headquarters said.

Abrams, riding in a military jeep, toured some of the areas in Saigon that were hit by the 20-round barrage of 100-pound Russian-made rockets.

U.S. Ship Fired Upon

Viet Cong gunners also fired rockets on a U.S. Navy ammunition ship and three merchant ships, including the British tanker Calter Newcastle, in the Long Tau channel to Saigon. Headquarters said two of the ships received minor damage.

U.S. headquarters said the rockets that hit Saigon were fired from positions southeast of the capital.

"Counter-artillery was fired within three minutes on suspected enemy positions with unknown results," headquarters said.

Allied forces repulsed all of the ground attacks, headquarters said, with the help of divebombers, artillery and helicopter gunships.

During attacks on two American fire bases around Tay Ninh City, 45 miles northwest of Saigon, American artillerymen turned their big howitzers point-blank at charging North Vietnamese.

Military spokesmen said that 82 enemy were killed in the ground assaults on the two bases of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division. American casualties were six killed and 30 wounded.

Headquarters said that 246 enemy troops had been killed in fighting Wednesday and Thursday in Tay Ninh Province, near Cambodian border base camps of the enemy. It was in Tay Ninh Province last Sunday that the Viet Cong touched off their latest round of attacks, shattering a two-month lull in the war. Key enemy infiltration routes lead from Cambodia into Tay Ninh eastward toward Saigon.

Tax

some services will have to be dropped unless another source of revenue is found.

COMMISSIONER R. Max Gard called the legislature's permissive taxes "buck passing taxes." He said the lawmakers gave elected officials raises in salaries and have imposed additional services on county government without providing funds to pay for them.

Other permissive taxes available to the commissioners were a purchase or sales tax, utilities tax and hotel and motel taxes. They could have added a tax on motor vehicle licenses, but revenue from this would have gone to the road and bridge fund and could not be used for current expenses.

At the hearings, Lowe called the real property transfer tax "unfair and discriminatory." He said his board had an obligation to county property owners who are unorganized to protect themselves against "detrimental taxation."

The commissioners at first talked about a 3-mill tax to be paid by the seller on transfer of the deed. This would have amounted to 30 cents per $100, or any fraction thereof, of the value of the property.

Based on current market values and volume of sales, the 3-mill tax would have brought in approximately $63,000, or about $21,000 per mill.

IN ADOPTING their resolution, commissioners reduced the tax to 2 mills. The realtors immediately prepared referendum petitions and began getting signatures. They had until tomorrow to file them with the auditor.

Lowe said circulators reported strong opposition to this type of taxation. "There is no question that the over 3,400 signatures of the people constitute a mandate to the commissioners to withdraw this inhibiting tax."

The realtors had to obtain 2,897 valid signatures — 10 per cent of the county vote for governor at the last election. They said they made every effort to secure only signatures of qualified voters but got 20 per cent more than required to be on the safe side.

"We feel the boards have done an outstanding job in fulfilling their obligation to property owners," Lowe said.

"Now it is up to the voters, whose approval should have been sought from the beginning," he added.

ans and Bulgarians—free captive liberal leaders and go home, leaving the nation to pursue its freer brand of communism.

"There is no way back from freedom and democracy for Czechoslovakia," Svoboda said in an address over the clandestine radio station.

"The situation must be solved rapidly and the troops must leave," the 72-year-old president said, adding that he hoped a solution could be reached today.

But another clandestine pro-liberal broadcast today said members of the Czechoslovak Communist party central committee who have aligned themselves with the occupation troops were meeting at the Soviet Embassy to form a new hard-line government.

As Svoboda first outlined his position during the night, a quarter-hour firefight against the occupation troops broke out in Prague. Hundreds of casualties already had been reported in scattered cases of resistance.

The occupation forces imposed a midnight-5 a.m. curfew and announced they would shoot without questions at anyone who appeared on the streets.

The Parliament adopted its defiant stance at an emergency meeting Wednesday. Occupation troops entered the Parliament building but the assembly continued in session.

A broadcast by Prague Radio, operating from a secret location, said occupation forces seized Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and three other liberal leaders and sped them off to an unknown destination.

In Moscow, Pravda denounced Dubcek as the leader of a "treacherous betrayal" of Comunist ideals. The Soviet Communist party organ said he led a minority faction in the Czechoslovak Communist party that supported counter-revolution. It was the first Soviet public personal attack on Dubcek since the Russians began denouncing Czechoslovak liberalism.

The troops that made a lightning thrust into Czechoslovakia Tuesday night to wipe out such liberal reforms as freedom of the press still had not set up a new government today to return the country to the hard line approved by the Kremlin for Communist nations.

Commanders of the occupation troops met at a hotel in downtown Prague with eight committee members. The eighth, Martin Vaculik, called for a party congress under the liberals headed by Dubcek.

The seven who came out for the occupation included Vasil Bilak, chief of the Slovak Communist party, and Oldrich Svestka, editor-in-chief of Rude Pravo, the Communist party organ. They were trying to get delegates already chosen for a party congress Sept. 9 to come to the Communist party hotel in Prague.

A pro-Dubcek radio broadcasting clandestinely from Prague told the delegates this was a trap and told them to go to a Prague factory instead.

At least 23 persons, including some Soviet bloc soldiers, were reported killed in incidents since the invasion began late Tuesday night.

Broadcasts said seven persons were killed in fighting around the Prague Radio offices, six in Liberec 55 miles northeast of Prague and 10 in the eeast Slovak town of Kosice.

Reports from Kosice said some Soviet soldiers were killed by a Molotov cocktail thrown in their tank, and that Russian troops fired on a crowd, killing a youth, 17, and wounding about 20 persons.

The Czechoslovak news agency CTK, before reporting it had been put out of business at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, said about 180 persons were wounded in Prague.

Angry thousands of Czechoslovaks marched in Prague behind a World War II jeep filled with young people carrying a black flag. On the hood sat a teenager with a Czechoslovak flag covered with blood.

Pravda repeated today promises that the Soviet bloc tanks and troops would be withdrawn when the "danger to the security of Socialist countries is removed" and when the "legitimate authorities find the further presence of allied troops unnecessary."

It said, "when the principles of party life are discarded, when party people are defamed, it is fair to say that the Communist party of Czechoslovakia was in danger."

The Soviet Union said earlier it sent troops to meet an urgent request of Communist leaders for assistance in preserving communism.

The Czechoslovak leaders reportedly seized with Dubcek were Joseph Surkovsky, president of the National Assembly, and Joseph Spacek and Frantisek Kriegel, members of the Communist party presidium. The reports said they were taken by Soviet soldiers from the central committee building where they had been restricted all day.

Earlier reports said Premier Eldrich Cernik and Communist party secretary Cestimir Cisar were arrested. An edition of Rude Pravo put out by liberals said "we have no news of Pavel"—Interior Minister Josef Pavel, a liberal who has been under attack in the Soviet press since expelling Soviet advisers from his ministry.

An urgent request for the release of Cisar and a Parliament delegation that did not return from the Soviet Embassy after going there for negotiations were contained in a note to the governments of the five occupying countries, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported.

It said a broadcast reported the note to the governments of the Soviet Union, East Germany, Poland, Hungary and Bulgaria.

The note also demanded "urgent measures that might enable restoration of normal life in the country and halt violent actions against the population of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic."

Meanwhile, however, clandestine radio broadcasts reported more occupation forces entering the country, including units of the Polish air force.

The U.S. Embassy plans a convoy of private American cars to the Rozvadov border crossing point into West Germany. Embassy officials said they had been assured that foreigners could leave the country.

An estimated 1,500 Americans are in Czechoslovakia, about 400 for a world geological congress.

The geologists flew in to Prague and the embasy was faced with the problems of finding transport for them. Gasoline supplies have been requisitioned by the occupying army and little transportation was available locally.

Maryland's State House at Annapolis served as the first peacetime Capitol of the United States.

Sales

With the average family's income up appreciably, the household air conditioner is regarded as a necessity, not a luxury, the salesman commented.

Dehumidifiers also are in heavy demand because of their ability to take gallons of water out of the air in an apparently dry basement. Families with paneled game rooms in their basements especially seek the dehumidifiers to protect their investment against mildew and dampness.

But the time-honored ways of beating the heat still are in vogue, technology or no technology.

Harold Peterson, superintendent of the city water department, said consumption is up extensively because of the August heat wave. Back yard swimming pools help account for some of the additional water use, he said.

WATERING OF lawns and gardens increases in a dry spell when the sun is blazing. Youngsters sprinkle each other with the garden hose. Families bathe more frequently in the oppresive humidity.

City Chemist Francis Wise said water use is up 5 to 10 per cent from a normal month. He agreed with curbstone observers who claim the weather has been much hotter this summer than last. Water consumption in July was up 5 million gallons from the same month in 1967.

Hot weather brings an increase in sales of ice cream cones and soft drinks. Businessmen said there's such a trend at present. Youngsters have a better chance of wheedling a dime from father for a cone when the mercury is in the 90's. Oftentimes, they carry home a cone for Mom and Pop, too. Vanilla, strawberry and chocolate still are the all-time best sellers. It's time for fresh peach ice cream, a seasonal favorite.

A HEAT WAVE brings a resurgence in sales of supplies for outdoor cooking. Hotdog and hamburg stocks move quickly. The more affluent buy steaks. Charcoal fuel for grills and the makin's for iced tea and lemonade are in demand.

Residents of the sweltering downtown area take to the hilltop byways in their autos just about sundown, savoring the cooler temperatures. Drive - in movies are crowded. Swimming pools do a landoffice business.

And for all those steaming on the stoop of a house that seems like an oven, remember: The crisp breezes of autumn are not far away!

Vietnam

since last Sunday—could be the start of the long-awaited third Viet Cong offensive. But he qualified this by adding that "It's too early to make an assessment."

Diversionary Move Hinted

The officer conceded that it is "always possible" the latest attacks, mainly those on allied bases, may have been a diversionary move to distract allied forces while enemy troops maneuvered into position for a subsequent ground attack on Saigon.

"They've done this in the past," he noted.

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams' headquarters termed the renewed shelling of Saigon "indiscriminate harassing rocket attacks."

"No military installations were hit," a communique from Abrams' headquarters said.

Abrams, riding in a military jeep, toured some of the areas in Saigon that were hit by the 20-round barrage of 100-pound Russian-made rockets.

U.S. Ship Fired Upon

Viet Cong gunners also fired rockets on a U.S. Navy ammunition ship and three merchant ships, including the British tanker Calter Newcastle, in the Long Tau channel to Saigon. Headquarters said two of the ships received minor damage.

U.S. headquarters said the rockets that hit Saigon were fired from positions southeast of the capital.

"Counter-artillery was fired within three minutes on suspected enemy positions with unknown results," headquarters said.

Allied forces repulsed all of the ground attacks, headquarters said, with the help of divebombers, artillery and helicopter gunships.

During attacks on two American fire bases around Tay Ninh City, 45 miles northwest of Saigon, American artillerymen turned their big howitzers point-blank at charging North Vietnamese.

Military spokesmen said that 82 enemy were killed in the ground assaults on the two bases of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division. American casualties were six killed and 30 wounded.

Headquarters said that 246 enemy troops had been killed in fighting Wednesday and Thursday in Tay Ninh Province, near Cambodian border base camps of the enemy. It was in Tay Ninh Province last Sunday that the Viet Cong touched off their latest round of attacks, shattering a two-month lull in the war. Key enemy infiltration routes lead from Cambodia into Tay Ninh eastward toward Saigon.

Convention Readiness

Preparations for the Democratic National Convention opening in Chicago next week consists of more than readying banners and dressing up bandwagon campaigns with red, white and blue crepe paper.

Chicago police have been thoroughly briefed on what action to take in event of trouble, 6,000 Illinois National Guard troops will be on alert and 7,500 Army troops—some Vietnam combat veterans—have been given a cram course in riot control at Ft. Hood, Tex., and are ready if needed.

All the precautions are being taken with good reason. Rumors of riots, demonstrations and bloodshed have been flowing freely for weeks.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES are investigating the report of a plot to assassinate Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene McCarthy during the convention, according to a story in the Chicago Tribune yesterday.

Inside the Democratic party conflict over Vietnam and domestic policies rages on keeping candidates, delegates and the public on edge.

The stage is set for a bitter fight among Democrats over the seating of delegates and the party platform.

Charges and countercharges by candidates, disagreement over planks in the platform and general verbal battling is expected at a convention, but not rioting and killing.

The irony of the convention and the threat of trouble is that refusal of dissidents to use the national forum to air their grievances and seek an alternative will further unify those calling for repressive action and drain away the strength of more liberal-minded candidates.

The federal government, on the defensive about Vietnam and many of its other policies, is in no mood to be told that the country is in such bad shape that a political convention cannot be held in one of America's prominent cities.

So thousands of riot-trained troops are ready to step into an emergency situation.

THE CITY OF CHICAGO is determined to prove its police force is capable of handling conditions.

The American people are ready to back authorities to the hilt to put an end to the growing use of violent methods by extremists.

Autumn Fun

It's time again for that bit of August fun, the annual fair.

The 123rd Columbiana County Fair at Lisbon and the 22nd annual Hookstown Fair opened Wednesday, and the Fairview Fair at Ohioville will get under way Tuesday.

The most talented typewriter cannot produce adjectives to properly capture the feeling and atmosphere of a fair, the spirit of competition in displays and farm animals, the friendly banter along the midway, the excitement of children over the sights and sounds and amusement, the wonder at the excellence of the joint effort of man and nature in agriculture.

Troop Level Controversy

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., longtime crusader for a reduction in U.S. forces in Europe, has returned from a tour in East and West Europe more convinced than ever that a troop cut is in order.

On May 16, 1966, Sen. Mansfield said, "Our commitments in Europe are far in excess of our neeeds." Unfortunately, not enough other senators agreed with his position to do anything about it.

A MONTH LATER, the senator was asked what he thought about the administration's firm position opposing a troop withdrawal. He responded:

"They can always think of some excuse; some people are so wedded to an idea for so long it becomes a matter of faith. Times change. We can't go along on the same old basis, which was vital 18 years ago but which certainly calls out for a change today because of changed circumstances."

At the end of his two-week trip to look over the situation, Sen. Mansfield told an interviewer in Frankfurt, "The day of the NATO pact has passed in its original sense as a defensive set-up."

He did not call for abandonment of the alliance but recommended a shift of primary responsibility from the United States to member nations and suggested America consider a "graduated withdrawal of one division and its dependents each year."

Mr. Mansfield said he understood the thinking that fostered alliances at the height of the cold war but reiterated his 1966 statement that such thinking is obsolete today.

He confirmed the feeling held by an increasing number of Americans that Western Europe's reconstructed economy and heightened East-West trade has brought about a radical change in the security needs of the continent.

MR. MANSFIELD is planning to turn in a report to President Johnson but the senator doesn't expect any action.

However, his trip and his report may make an impression on other members of Congress vitally concerned about the balance-of-payments deficit and the adverse effect 300,000 servicemen and thousands of dependents stationed in Europe have on it.

It is hoped the Senate majority leader will be able to prevail upon his colleagues to take quick action on the matter of reducing — significantly — the number of U.S. troops in Western Europe.

Convention Outbreak

By Art Buchwald

\GO — There have been so many se precatuions taken for the Democratic National Convention near the stockyards in Chicago that the big fear here is not that people will be unable to get into the convention hall, but that they will not be able to get out. And so all the talk in Chicago concerns escape.

Art Buchwald

Four delegates were in the exercise yard at the stockyards pretending they were playing volleyball. Armed guards watched them from the towers and police dogs patrolled the electric and barbed-wire fence around the hall.

"It's no use," said Hymie from Idaho. "We'll never be able to break out of here."

"Shut up," said San Frenando Joe. "There isn't a convention hall in the country that can hold me."

"YOU'VE NEVER been in one of Warden Daley's lockups," said Peoria Pete. "No one has ever escaped from one of his halls, at least not before the nominations."

"I say we tunnel out of here," said Colorado Charlie. "Listen, there's an air shaft under the speaker's podium, and we could dig at night during the credentials fight. No one would hear us."

"Yeah," said Hymie, "but where do we put the dirt?"

"Where the press is sitting. No one would notice it there."

"It's no good. One of the TV cameras might catch us, and they'd have the National Guard on us before you could say John Bailey."

"I'm only an alternate delegate," cried Peoria Pete. "I want to do my time and walk out through the gate instead of going over the wall."

"Knock it off, Pete," said San Fernando Joe angrily. "You're into this too deep to back out now. Another word out of you and I'll shove this Gene McCarthy banner down your throat."

"KEEP PLAYING volleyball. Daley's guards are getting suspicious.

"But," Hymie said, after serving, "what's our plan?"

Colorado Charlie pretended he was tying his shoe. "President Johnson's birthday is on the 27th, and everyone will be celebrating it in the hall. The guards will probably have a party of their own, and there will only be a skeleton crew in the towers. We'll go to the hall and sit in our delegates' seats and pretend we're having a good time. Then, when everyone stands up to sing 'Happy Birthday Dear Lyndon,' we make a break for it — out the back door."

"Yeah, right into the arms of the Secret Service."

Colorado Charlie said, "Shut up and listen. On our way out we grab the Ohio delegation and hold them as hostages. Hubert Humphrey can't win without Ohio. He'll have to tell Warden Daley to let us go."

"IT MIGHT WORK," said San Fernando Joe. "Anything is better than staying here and listening to those seconding speeches."

Colorado Joe started tying his other shoe. "It has to work. My wife is visiting me this afternoon, and she's going to bring me some 'McGovern for President' balloons. In one of the balloons there's going to be a hack saw. As soon as we get outside, Pete will cut the electric cable and Hymie will drive a CBS-TV truck next to the wall. That's how we go over."

"But what do we do for a getaway car?"

"We're next to the stockyards, dummy. While they're blocking all the highways, we'll be on a freight train to Austin, Tex., underneath a ton of pork sausages."

'It Threatened Me!'

VICTOR RIESEL

Wallace Gets Labor Support

CHICAGO — It may unnerve the two men, but there is one vital matter on which George Corley Wallace, American Independent Party presidential candidate, and Herbert Hill, labor director of the NAACP, agree —and firmly and unequivocally.

Victor Riesel

Both are certain that "Governor" Wallace has strong and widespread rank-and-file labor support and considerably active backing among second echelon union officials.

My own recent sorties across the U.S. confirm this —especially after long conversations with Messrs. Wallace and Hill.

This is not a Southern phenomenon. It cannot be smart alecked off by cracks about "the Confederacy" which are the latest "in" gag in the Northeastern establishment including academia.

Every political pro knows that such labor support can mean millions of votes. Every pro knows that these votes will also be cast for Mr. Wallace in the swiftly industrializing Southwest, as well as in the states jammed with teeming central cities.

And every political pro knows that if the American Independent Party, basically segregationist, publicly populist, and oratorically anti-establishment, can keep up its pace, candidate Wallace will hurt Dick Nixon in the South and help him in the North.

Or, to reverse the coin, the AIP will draw heavily from the Democratic candidate in the North, and cut deeply into the Republican vote below Mason-Dixon.

Strangely enough, George Wallace takes this labor support—organized labor, at that—for granted. When we talked the other day and got past his quiet simplistic statement that "We'll win the presidency," he quickly became voluble, recounting his labor strength and official union sponsors and activists. They've campaigned for him all the way from Alabama to California—some of them on official union-paid, leaves of absence.

Early in our talk I referred to a report from Texas AFL-CIO State Secretary Roy Evans who had noted dolefully that Mr. Wallace had the support of 600,000 Texans, including 50,000 union members and their families.

"In Texas, he's about one-fourth off," the hustings-hopping AIP leader retorted. "We have very strong labor support for our presidential race. We have labor leaders campaigning for us. I don't want to get them into trouble with their national leaders, but they're campaigning, all right.

"We're getting letters from their unions. They collect money in the plants and meetings, and they send the checks in with official endorsements. One of our labor friends has campaigned for me in California. He's president of the Alabama state building and construction tades council.

"In Alabama, where Lurleen carried every box in labor districts in the primaries and general election, I have a long record of working with the unions. Read the praise I received on both sides when I helped settle the Alabama Power strike. I was the first governor to set a prevailing wage for state building contracts. But the labor support is right across the board. If you check with the communication workers, steelworkers, paper workers, electricians, rubber workers, and other local leaders you'll find they support me in Alabama."

I did check. "Governor" Wallace is right. The support is there. The documentation is there. The endorsement letters on union stationery are there. So are the lists of union contributions.

Then I tracked down the perpetually itinerant Herb Hill, director of the NAACP's Labor Program.

In his characteristic, machine gun-tongued delivery, Mr. Hill, almost word for word, sounded like the ex-hackie, ex-boxer, ex-waiter, ex-kitchen helper, ex-anticivil rights "fighting" circuit court judge, George Wallace.

"There is very significant support for Wallace in the South," said Hill. "In the course of my current tour, I find serious support for him within trade union ranks. And not just among the rank and file but among the secondary leadership as well.

"In one big city, eight local union officials, in addition to a former member of the district staff, have taken leaves of absence and are working full time in the Wallace campaign. Wallace posters and other campaign materials are being widely distributed in Southern steel plants, paper mills, oil and chemical refineries, tobacco processing plants and rubber factories.

"One final comment, it is obvious that the AFL-CIO national leadership has significantly failed to reach its white rank and file on the civil rights issue.

"What I've told you is not only true of the South. Take it for granted there is broad support in many Northern industrial communities."

Further analysis in this column's next report reveals that Wallace sentiment has infiltrated unions to an extent which leaves their national leaders helpless—unions such as the steelworkers, auto workers, oil and chemical workers, and rubber workers, the gut of the old CIO—as well as the building and construction trades, the AFL's establishment.

This will make the '68 campaign one of the most fantastic since Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr battled in 1800.

On The Line

President Johnson has put squarely up to the Democratic National Convention the question of whether the party intends to repudiate his Vietnam policy or to support the position of the American government that the next step must be a de-escalation of the war by the North Vietnamese before there can be any progress towards a cease-fire.

In a speech in Detroit at the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the President told the country that, while the American people are in the midst of a national political campaign — when it is natural that there is discussion and speculation — certain things are clear, such as these:

"THOSE HALF MILLION American men are not out in Southeast Asia as Republicans or Democrats. . . . They are out there as American sons fighting to protect the vital interests of America, as those interests have been determined by more than one President and by more than one Congress.

"Until Jan. 20, 1969 . . . I bear the responsibility of the presidency, and of the executive policy of this nation towards Vietnam — a policy that has been fashioned over many years on a bipartisan basis, by several presidents and by several American congresses."

Mr. Johnson declared that "the interests of the nation and the interests of peace are not advanced by ambiguity" about this policy, and that the United States would not take any steps that might weaken its military position. He added:

"This administration does not intend to move further until it has good reason to believe that the other side intends seriously to join us in de-escalating the war and moving seriously toward peace. We are willing to take chances for peace but we cannot make foolhardy gestures for which our fighting men will pay the price by giving their lives."

This puts the responsibility on the Democratic party to say plainly in its platform that it does not wish the American government to surrender but to insist upon clear evidence from the North Vietnamese that they intend to make a reciprocal response to steps which the United States already has taken.

The President said that he didn't take himself "out of personal partisan presidential politics on March 31st" in order to allow American policy to be "colored in the slightest degree by domestic political considerations," and that he has faith the next president will also insist upon an honorable peace.

The Democratic National Convention, however, is confronted with a fight inside its ranks. The ambitions of candidates who think that antiwar sentiment is widespread have led to the proposal of a course of action by the American government which has been called a "camouflaged surrender."

Richard Nixon, the Republican nominee, is not likely to take the side of the dissidents, and unquestionably will stand back of the American position. Vice President Humphrey, who has the tacit support of the Johnson administration in his campaign for the presidential nomination, is certainly not going to agree to anything which is a rejection of the policy as outlined by the President.

The platform as drafted this week here in Washington will doubtless be more favorable to the administration viewpoint than to that of the critics. But the minority report and the platform debate at the convention in Chicago next week will emphasize the cleavage. This will mean a disunity which most national conventions try to avoid.

THE VIETNAM ISSUE has never been fully understood by many of the persons who have criticized the administration policy. Mr. Johnson has endeavored to inform the American people that the conflict in Vietnam is not just a civil war but an attempt by imperialist governments to deprive peoples of their right of self-determination.

For he believes that the entire security of Southeast Asia is at stake and that the United States could be forced into a bigger war if it withdraws from Vietnam.

This is why the platform fight on Vietnam will undoubeedly be regarded in Hanoi as well as in Moscow and other Communist capitals of the world as reflecting a trend inside America. The final vote on the platform plank will have to demonstrate the strength of the administration's position if the North Vietnamese are to be persuaded that they must take some reciprocal steps in de-escalating the war before they can expect America to make any further moves towards an armistice. Convention Readiness

Preparations for the Democratic National Convention opening in Chicago next week consists of more than readying banners and dressing up bandwagon campaigns with red, white and blue crepe paper.

Chicago police have been thoroughly briefed on what action to take in event of trouble, 6,000 Illinois National Guard troops will be on alert and 7,500 Army troops—some Vietnam combat veterans—have been given a cram course in riot control at Ft. Hood, Tex., and are ready if needed.

All the precautions are being taken with good reason. Rumors of riots, demonstrations and bloodshed have been flowing freely for weeks.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES are investigating the report of a plot to assassinate Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene McCarthy during the convention, according to a story in the Chicago Tribune yesterday.

Inside the Democratic party conflict over Vietnam and domestic policies rages on keeping candidates, delegates and the public on edge.

The stage is set for a bitter fight among Democrats over the seating of delegates and the party platform.

Charges and countercharges by candidates, disagreement over planks in the platform and general verbal battling is expected at a convention, but not rioting and killing.

The irony of the convention and the threat of trouble is that refusal of dissidents to use the national forum to air their grievances and seek an alternative will further unify those calling for repressive action and drain away the strength of more liberal-minded candidates.

The federal government, on the defensive about Vietnam and many of its other policies, is in no mood to be told that the country is in such bad shape that a political convention cannot be held in one of America's prominent cities.

So thousands of riot-trained troops are ready to step into an emergency situation.

THE CITY OF CHICAGO is determined to prove its police force is capable of handling conditions.

The American people are ready to back authorities to the hilt to put an end to the growing use of violent methods by extremists.

Autumn Fun

It's time again for that bit of August fun, the annual fair.

The 123rd Columbiana County Fair at Lisbon and the 22nd annual Hookstown Fair opened Wednesday, and the Fairview Fair at Ohioville will get under way Tuesday.

The most talented typewriter cannot produce adjectives to properly capture the feeling and atmosphere of a fair, the spirit of competition in displays and farm animals, the friendly banter along the midway, the excitement of children over the sights and sounds and amusement, the wonder at the excellence of the joint effort of man and nature in agriculture.

Troop Level Controversy

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., longtime crusader for a reduction in U.S. forces in Europe, has returned from a tour in East and West Europe more convinced than ever that a troop cut is in order.

On May 16, 1966, Sen. Mansfield said, "Our commitments in Europe are far in excess of our neeeds." Unfortunately, not enough other senators agreed with his position to do anything about it.

A MONTH LATER, the senator was asked what he thought about the administration's firm position opposing a troop withdrawal. He responded:

"They can always think of some excuse; some people are so wedded to an idea for so long it becomes a matter of faith. Times change. We can't go along on the same old basis, which was vital 18 years ago but which certainly calls out for a change today because of changed circumstances."

At the end of his two-week trip to look over the situation, Sen. Mansfield told an interviewer in Frankfurt, "The day of the NATO pact has passed in its original sense as a defensive setup."

He did not call for abandonment of the alliance but recommended a shift of primary responsibility from the United States to member nations and suggested America consider a "graduated withdrawal of one division and its dependents each year."

Mr. Mansfield said he understood the thinking that fostered alliances at the height of the cold war but reiterated his 1966 statement that such thinking is obsolete today.

He confirmed the feeling held by an increasing number of Americans that Western Europe's reconstructed economy and heightened East-West trade has brought about a radical change in the security needs of the continent.

MR. MANSFIELD is planning to turn in a report to President Johnson but the senator doesn't expect any action.

However, his trip and his report may make an impression on other members of Congress vitally concerned about the balance-of-payments deficit and the adverse effect 300,000 servicemen and thousands of dependents stationed in Europe have on it.

It is hoped the Senate majority leader will be able to prevail upon his colleagues to take quick action on the matter of reducing — significantly — the number of U.S. troops in Western Europe.

Convention Outbreak

By Art Buchwald

\GO — There have been so many se precatuions taken for the Democratic National Convention near the stockyards in Chicago that the big fear here is not that people will be unable to get into the convention hall, but that they will not be able to get out. And so all the talk in Chicago concerns escape.

Art Buchwald

Four delegates were in the exercise yard at the stockyards pretending they were playing volleyball. Armed guards watched them from the towers and police dogs patrolled the electric and barbed-wire fence around the hall.

"It's no use," said Hymie from Idaho. "We'll never be able to break out of here."

"Shut up," said San Frenando Joe. "There isn't a convention hall in the country that can hold me."

"YOU'VE NEVER been in one of Warden Daley's lockups," said Peoria Pete. "No one has ever escaped from one of his halls, at least not before the nominations."

"I say we tunnel out of here," said Colorado Charlie. "Listen, there's an air shaft under the speaker's podium, and we could dig at night during the credentials fight. No one would hear us."

"Yeah," said Hymie, "but where do we put the dirt?"

"Where the press is sitting. No one would notice it there."

"It's no good. One of the TV cameras might catch us, and they'd have the National Guard on us before you could say John Bailey."

"I'm only an alternate delegate," cried Peoria Pete. "I want to do my time and walk out through the gate instead of going over the wall."

"Knock it off, Pete," said San Fernando Joe angrily. "You're into this too deep to back out now. Another word out of you and I'll shove this Gene McCarthy banner down your throat."

"KEEP PLAYING volleyball. Daley's guards are getting suspicious.

"But," Hymie said, after serving, "what's our plan?"

Colorado Charlie pretended he was tying his shoe. "President Johnson's birthday is on the 27th, and everyone will be celebrating it in the hall. The guards will probably have a party of their own, and there will only be a skeleton crew in the towers. We'll go to the hall and sit in our delegates' seats and pretend we're having a good time. Then, when everyone stands up to sing 'Happy Birthday Dear Lyndon,' we make a break for it — out the back door."

"Yeah, right into the arms of the Secret Service."

Colorado Charlie said, "Shut up and listen. On our way out we grab the Ohio delegation and hold them as hostages. Hubert Humphrey can't win without Ohio. He'll have to tell Warden Daley to let us go."

"IT MIGHT WORK," said San Fernando Joe. "Anything is better than staying here and listening to those seconding speeches."

Colorado Joe started tying his other shoe. "It has to work. My wife is visiting me this afternoon, and she's going to bring me some 'McGovern for President' balloons. In one of the balloons there's going to be a hack saw. As soon as we get outside, Pete will cut the electric cable and Hymie will drive a CBS-TV truck next to the wall. That's how we go over."

"But what do we do for a getaway car?"

"We're next to the stockyards, dummy. While they're blocking all the highways, we'll be on a freight train to Austin, Tex., underneath a ton of pork sausages."

VICTOR RIESEL

Wallace Gets Labor Support

CHICAGO — It may unnerve the two men, but there is one vital matter on which George Corley Wallace, American Independent Party presidential candidate, and Herbert Hill, labor director of the NAACP, agree —and firmly and unequivocally.

Victor Riesel

Both are certain that "Governor" Wallace has strong and widespread rank-and-file labor support and considerably active backing among second echelon union officials.

My own recent sorties across the U.S. confirm this —especially after long conversations with Messrs. Wallace and Hill.

This is not a Southern phenomenon. It cannot be smart alecked off by cracks about "the Confederacy" which are the latest "in" gag in the Northeastern establishment including academia.

Every political pro knows that such labor support can mean millions of votes. Every pro knows that these votes will also be cast for Mr. Wallace in the swiftly industrializing Southwest, as well as in the states jammed with teeming central cities.

And every political pro knows that if the American Independent Party, basically segregationist, publicly populist, and oratorically anti-establishment, can keep up its pace, candidate Wallace will hurt Dick Nixon in the South and help him in the North.

Or, to reverse the coin, the AIP will draw heavily from the Democratic candidate in the North, and cut deeply into the Republican vote below Mason-Dixon.

Strangely enough, George Wallace takes this labor support—organized labor, at that—for granted. When we talked the other day and got past his quiet simplistic statement that "We'll win the presidency," he quickly became voluble, recounting his labor strength and official union sponsors and activists. They've campaigned for him all the way from Alabama to California—some of them on official union-paid, leaves of absence.

Early in our talk I referred to a report from Texas AFL-CIO State Secretary Roy Evans who had noted dolefully that Mr. Wallace had the support of 600,000 Texans, including 50,000 union members and their families.

"In Texas, he's about one-fourth off," the hustings-hopping AIP leader retorted. "We have very strong labor support for our presidential race. We have labor leaders campaigning for us. I don't want to get them into trouble with their national leaders, but they're campaigning, all right.

"We're getting letters from their unions. They collect money in the plants and meetings, and they send the checks in with official endorsements. One of our labor friends has campaigned for me in California. He's president of the Alabama state building and construction tades council.

"In Alabama, where Lurleen carried every box in labor districts in the primaries and general election, I have a long record of working with the unions. Read the praise I received on both sides when I helped settle the Alabama Power strike. I was the first governor to set a prevailing wage for state building contracts. But the labor support is right across the board. If you check with the communication workers, steelworkers, paper workers, electricians, rubber workers, and other local leaders you'll find they support me in Alabama."

I did check. "Governor" Wallace is right. The support is there. The documentation is there. The endorsement letters on union stationery are there. So are the lists of union contributions.

Then I tracked down the perpetually itinerant Herb Hill, director of the NAACP's Labor Program.

In his characteristic, machine gun-tongued delivery, Mr. Hill, almost word for word, sounded like the ex-hackie, ex-boxer, ex-waiter, ex-kitchen helper, ex-anticivil rights "fighting" circuit court judge, George Wallace.

"There is very significant support for Wallace in the South," said Hill. "In the course of my current tour, I find serious support for him within trade union ranks. And not just among the rank and file but among the secondary leadership as well.

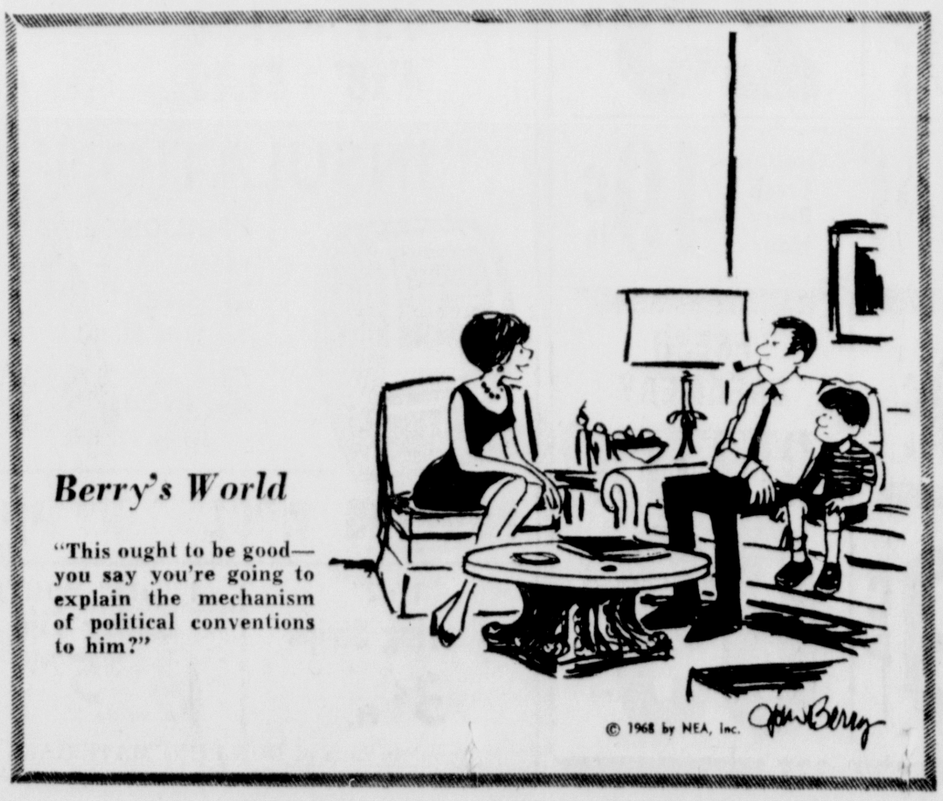

"In one big city, eight local union officials, in addition to a former member of the district staff, have taken leaves of absence and are working full time in the Wallace campaign. Wallace posters and other campaign materials are being widely distributed in Southern steel plants, paper mills, oil and chemical refineries, tobacco processing plants and rubber factories.

"One final comment, it is obvious that the AFL-CIO national leadership has significantly failed to reach its white rank and file on the civil rights issue.

"What I've told you is not only true of the South. Take it for granted there is broad support in many Northern industrial communities."

Further analysis in this column's next report reveals that Wallace sentiment has infiltrated unions to an extent which leaves their national leaders helpless—unions such as the steelworkers, auto workers, oil and chemical workers, and rubber workers, the gut of the old CIO—as well as the building and construction trades, the AFL's establishment.

This will make the '68 campaign one of the most fantastic since Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr battled in 1800.

Judge Removes Gore From Case

Barron Trial Continues Minus One Of Defendants

CHARLESTON — Trial of former Gov. W. W. Barron and four other persons continued in U.S District Court here today minus one of the defendants the government alleges entered into complex conspiracy involving state government contracts

Federal Judge J. Robert Martin, in a surprise development Wednesday afternoon, removed former State Finance Commissioner Truman E. Gore as a defendant in the proceedings.

Martin ruled that Gore could not be tried as one of the alleged conspirators due to the illness of his attorney, Lloyd Young of Clarksburg.

Martin told the jury as the trial moved through the eighth day that Young "is a sick, sick man."

"ONLY through sheer courage has he (Young) sat here this week, hoping that his physical condition would improve. His physical condition has become a matter of grave concern to this court," Martin added.

Young has been excused from the courtroom for a half day earlier this week because of his condition. He was reported to be suffering from shingles — an acute inflammatory skin disease of nervous origin.

Dismissal of Gore as a defendant followed a motion for severance of Gore's case and a plea for a mistrial on his behalf. Martin announced his decision after a meeting with counsel for the government and the defense in his chambers.

A spokeman for the government said Gore "remains under indictment" and could be retried at a later date. He added that his decision did not affect prosecution of the other defendants.

GORE, Barron, former State Road Commissioner Burl A. Sawyers, former Deputy Road Commissioner Vincent J. Johnkoski, Elkins attorney Bonn Brown and Clarksburg auto dealer Alfred W. Schroath went on trial Aug. 12 on charges of conspiring to use interstate facilities in an alleged bribery scheme involving the awarding of state government contracts.

The mistrial motion involving Gore came during testimony from Judson A. Samuels, a Hollywood, Fla., attorney, who the government claims set up corporations for Schroath to receive money from firms getting West Virginia government contracts.

Samuels testified that he was hired in 1961 to form the American Brokerage Co., of Boca Raton, Fla., one ot the three alleged "receiving" firms.

SAMUELS said he later established two other companies — Atlantic Management and Interstate Services, also of Boca Raton — and they, along with American Brokerage, were eventually merged with the First Southeastern Capital Corp. of Boca Raton.

The high point of Samuels' testimony came when he identified letters between Brown and Samuels and minutes of a meeting showing Barron, Sawyers Gore and Johnkoski as "owners and assignees" of the three receiving corporations and shareholders of First Southeastern.

Gov. Rhodes Cuts Ribbon To Open Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Excitement '68—the Ohio State Fair — opened at 6 a. m. this morning with its biggest booster, Gov. James A. Rhodes, on hand for the traditional ribbon cutting.

Long before the opening, promises of the biggest and best abounded.

Fair officials predict 1.8 million will see the 115th fair. Rhodes and new fair manager Jerry L. Kaltenbach said the fair will include the world's largest livestock exhibition, junior fair, state horse show, state fair art show and the world's greatest number of state fair exhibitors.

Ed Ames, Billy Maxted and the Golddiggers lead off the free grandstand entertainment program — also billed as the world's biggest—today and Friday.

They are followed later in the fair's 12 - day stint by Johnny Carson, Roger Miller, The Smothers Brothers, Bob Hope, James Brown, John Davidson, and others.

Balloon, horse and auto races, helicopter and auto stunts and circuses will augment the entertainment lineup.

All 88 counties are represented in the record 6,805 exhibitors at the fair with premiums totaling more than $250,000 for the 18,360 animals to be shown.

Adults will pay $1.50 admission, children under 12, 25 cents. All under 12 are admitted free on weekdays before noon and all amusement rides are reduced up to half price until noon on the eight weekdays of the fair.

With 45,000 yards of walking expected of the average fairgoer, Kaltenbach advises comfortable footgear.

Martin told the jury as the trial moved through the eighth day that Young "is a sick, sick man."

"ONLY through sheer courage has he (Young) sat here this week, hoping that his physical condition would improve. His physical condition has become a matter of grave concern to this court," Martin added.

Young has been excused from the courtroom for a half day earlier this week because of his condition. He was reported to be suffering from shingles — an acute inflammatory skin disease of nervous origin.

Dismissal of Gore as a defendant followed a motion for severance of Gore's case and a plea for a mistrial on his behalf. Martin announced his decision after a meeting with counsel for the government and the defense in his chambers.

A spokeman for the government said Gore "remains under indictment" and could be retried at a later date. He added that his decision did not affect prosecution of the other defendants.

GORE, Barron, former State Road Commissioner Burl A. Sawyers, former Deputy Road Commissioner Vincent J. Johnkoski, Elkins attorney Bonn Brown and Clarksburg auto dealer Alfred W. Schroath went on trial Aug. 12 on charges of conspiring to use interstate facilities in an alleged bribery scheme involving the awarding of state government contracts.

The mistrial motion involving Gore came during testimony from Judson A. Samuels, a Hollywood, Fla., attorney, who the government claims set up corporations for Schroath to receive money from firms getting West Virginia government contracts.

Samuels testified that he was hired in 1961 to form the American Brokerage Co., of Boca Raton, Fla., one ot the three alleged "receiving" firms.

SAMUELS said he later established two other companies — Atlantic Management and Interstate Services, also of Boca Raton — and they, along with American Brokerage, were eventually merged with the First Southeastern Capital Corp. of Boca Raton.

The high point of Samuels' testimony came when he identified letters between Brown and Samuels and minutes of a meeting showing Barron, Sawyers Gore and Johnkoski as "owners and assignees" of the three receiving corporations and shareholders of First Southeastern.

Gov. Rhodes Cuts Ribbon To Open Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Excitement '68—the Ohio State Fair — opened at 6 a. m. this morning with its biggest booster, Gov. James A. Rhodes, on hand for the traditional ribbon cutting.

Long before the opening, promises of the biggest and best abounded.

Fair officials predict 1.8 million will see the 115th fair. Rhodes and new fair manager Jerry L. Kaltenbach said the fair will include the world's largest livestock exhibition, junior fair, state horse show, state fair art show and the world's greatest number of state fair exhibitors.

Ed Ames, Billy Maxted and the Golddiggers lead off the free grandstand entertainment program — also billed as the world's biggest—today and Friday.

They are followed later in the fair's 12 - day stint by Johnny Carson, Roger Miller, The Smothers Brothers, Bob Hope, James Brown, John Davidson, and others.

Balloon, horse and auto races, helicopter and auto stunts and circuses will augment the entertainment lineup.

All 88 counties are represented in the record 6,805 exhibitors at the fair with premiums totaling more than $250,000 for the 18,360 animals to be shown.

Adults will pay $1.50 admission, children under 12, 25 cents. All under 12 are admitted free on weekdays before noon and all amusement rides are reduced up to half price until noon on the eight weekdays of the fair.

With 45,000 yards of walking expected of the average fairgoer, Kaltenbach advises comfortable footgear.

Essex To Speak At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN — Dr. Martin W. Essex, superintendent of public instruction in Ohio—will be the main speaker at Youngstown State University's summer commencement, Aug. 31.

The ceremonies will mark the first summer commencement for YSU since joining the Ohio system of higher education last fall.

Approximately 350 students are expected to graduate during the 46th summer commencement to be held at Stambaugh Auditorium at 10:30 a.m.

Dr. Essex will discuss "Your Frontier and the American Dream."

Deming Co. in Salem.

David, a 4-H'er nine years, is a member of the Just Rite Club. He attends the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University.

Others in the Royal Court were Sue Serafy, Wellsville RD 1; Diane L. Baker, Lisbon RD 5; Lynn Hawkins, New Waterford RD 1; Sherry Mollenkopf, East Palestine; Marsha McPherson, Hanoverton RD 1; Jack James, 1338 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville; Charles Glass Jr., Wellsville RD 1; John Sebrell and Larry Kuyper, both of Lisbon RD 4, and Gary Booth, New Waterford RD 1.

Two beauties rode in open cars behind the royal court — Sally Lindsay, 19, Columbiana County dairy princess, and Miss Sandra Ciotti of Salem, Miss Columbiana. Miss Lindsay of New Waterford RD, was crowned last night by Galen Greenisen, treasurer of the Columbiana County Dairy Council.

The county 4-H band led the parade which gave the boys and girls an opportunity to show off their ponies, horses and beef and dairy cattle.

Several steers became unruly and handlers hit the dust of the track. At the end of the line came Mike Cloran of East Liverpool RD 2 with a big white-and - black rabbit on a leash. It was "nervous," he said, and wouldn't budge when placed on the ground. It made the route in his arms.

JOE DRISCOLL, superintendent of Lisbon schools, and Pete Marra, county school system high school supervisor, judged the 4-H floats.

The Busy Gals Club of Rogers took first with "Merry Go Round." Other money winners in order of finish were Fairfield Junior Homemakers 2, "Small World;" Fairfield Junior Homemakers 3, "Life and Breath," and Beaver Belles, "Keep America Beautiful."

Gordon McDonald, the county's new 4-H agent, and Mrs. Ann Riedel, county home economics agent, announced the parade from the judge's stand.

A 3,000-pound team driven by Pete Wiser of Dundee won top money in the lightweight pulling contest. Second, third, fourth and fifth in the eight-team field went to Henry Ginerich, Dundee; Bob Foster, Minerva; Harold Blake, Mercer, Pa., and Dale Rudibaugh, Wellsville.

Winning teams among the heavies were driven by Clair Greenamyer, North Jackson, first; Wade Rall, Beaver RD 1; Dale Rudibaugh, and Rall and Ed Popp.

GARY REEDER of Rogers RD 1 won first in the 4-H tractor rodeo yesterday afternoon and will represent the county in the state fair contest. Bob Hays of East Rochester finished second and Jim Huston of Wellsville RD 1 third.

Brown Swiss — GC and JC— Joy Vincent, Salem RD 2; RC— Ronnie Little, East Rochester.

Fair directors this year added a daily hog calling contest. Time crowded out yesterday's match, so it was held this afternoon and another will be held tonight. The winners, plus the Friday and Saturday winners, will "holler" Sunday for the county hog-calling championship.

Directors said Barber Bros., which has the rides on the midway, will offer special family day rates Friday.

The grandstand attraction Friday night will be Pee Wee King's "Country Western Hoedown."

Class B (4,501 to 6,500 pounds): Ted Schmied, Salem; John Minor, no address shown; Ron Rhodes, Salem; Rick Sanger, Homeworth; Harold Burcaw, Salem.

Jodi Kinos of Aliquippa, cucumbers; Mrs. Sipp, yellow onions and hot peppers; Lanny Stewart of Greene Township, gourds; Delores Whitehill and Bonnie Whitehill of Georgetown, sweet peppers; Darrell Beal of Greene Township, squash; Jeff Lyons and Sharon Lyons of Greene township, squash, and Charles Glenn of Chester, cantelope. Mr. and Mrs. Sipp won four blue ribbons for eggs.

Winning blue ribbons for quilts were Mrs. Martha Laughlin of Georgetown RD 1, appliqued quilts; Mrs. Virginia McLaughlin of Georgetown RD 1, embroidered quilt; Mrs. Grace Caler of Hanover Township, an aged quilt and an unpieced quilted design; Golden Age Club of Chester, pieced top quilt; Mrs. Bonnie Harris of Georgetown RD 1, baby quilt, and Mrs. James McDougal of Weirton, two crocheted bedspreads.

A tractor-pulling contest was held Wednesday night.

A program of Hawaiian music wil be featured at 7 tonight preceding the pony - pulling contest.

Winners in the tractor pulling contest at the Fair Wednesday night were: 4,000 lbs. and under, Harry Reefman of Aliquippa, 1st; Bill Landers of Georgetown RD 1, 2nd, and George Schmidt of Hookstown, 3rd.

4,000 to 5,500, Carl Pugh of Chester, 1st; William Cheuvront of Chester, 2nd, and Charles Moore Jr. of Chester, 3rd.

5,500 to 7,000 lbs. — Reefeman, 1st; Kenny Moore of Georgetown, 2nd, and Clarence Pugh of Chester, 3rd.

7,000 to 8,500 lbs. — Gerald Smith, 1st; John Boyd of Aliquippa, 2nd, and Kenneth Soisson of Georgetown RD 1, 3rd.

8,500 to 10,000 lbs. — David Hobbs of Georgetown RD 1, 1st; Marlco Briguh Jr. of Burgettstown RD 1, 2nd, and Tom Novak of Burgettstown, 3rd.

There were 83 tractors entered. About 12,000 people attended the events at the fairgrounds Wednesday, according to fair officials.

widespread resentment against the operations of the antipoverty program which he headed after a salutory term as chief of the peace corps.

There was talk about Mayor Joseph L. Alioto of San Francisco, son of an immigrant Italian fisherman, who has been given several publicity breaks by the Vice President. But as Alioto told a visiting newsman, "who ever heard of me?"

McCarthy's beleaguered forces continued to claim that their candidate was a winner where the vice president's November fate was doubtful.

Stephen A. Mitchell, McCarthy's convention manager, foresaw the possibility that Johnson—whose birthday Tuesday is likely to be observed by the convention in his presence —might renege on his March statement that he would not accept renomination. Galbraith disagreed with this estimate.

But Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Texas, a McCarthy supporter, said the Russian troop movement into Czechoslovakia raised the possibility of a draft movement for the president.

The platform writing committee, struggling for a compromise on the Vietnam issue, transferred its hearings from Washington to Chicago for a day's public hearings before retiring behind closed doors to begin its drafting efforts.

Before they left Washington, committee members heard Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia, who characterizes himself as a candidate for the party presidential nomination, oppose any "humiliating peace" or one-sided de-escalation of military efforts in Vietnam.

Maddox said he would not bolt the party if he does not get it. But he indicated in a news conference in Washington that he might not support the candidate.

Third party candidate George Wallace, campaigning in Oklahoma City, said voters have lost confidence in both major parties. He blamed the Democrats and Republicans for "selling out eastern Europe" and said the Czech crisis is another example of the "mess we've gotten in during the last 20 years."

Warden Marion Koloski said five inmates were shot. Another was injured critically when the wall fell on him. One inmate was found with his throat slashed, and authorities believe the critical wound was inflicted by other inmates.

The dead men were taken to the Franklin County morgue, where the coroner was to rule on the cause of death.

Koloski was named warden just six weeks ago.

He said he had agreed to several of the prisoners' demands, including amnesty if they released the hostages and return of 54 prisoners accused in a June 24 riot back into the general inmate population to await grand jury action. Prisoners caused about $1 million damage in the June riot.

"By forcing us to take them by force, they lost both agreements," Koblentz said. Koloski said the prisoners had become "fanatical" in their demands, and "We had to go in and bring them out."

Prison officials could not determine how the inmates obtained the half gallon of gasoline and 40 ounces of lighter fluid they said they would use to burn their hostages.

Two of the guards held hostage said they heard inmates running toward them yelling they had gasoline to "burn the bastards." The rooftop blast floored the advancing prisoners.

The first explosion may have saved the life of another guard being held at knifepoint by an inmate. The blast sent the prisoner reeling back into a wall and the guard escaped.

The decision to storm the prison came, Koblentz said, after Gov. James A. Rhodes authorized whatever force was necessary to free the hostages.

The prisoners had aired a long list of complaints that included alleged mistreatment by guards. They asked for a federal investigation of the prison and the dismissal of 12 guards they called sadistic. They also sought unsuccessfully immunity from prosecution for those prisoners that participated in the June riot.

Koloski said many of the rebels would be returned to the same cell blocks they controlled during the uprising.

"All cells with undamaged locks will be put back in use tonight and Thursday," the warden said Wednesday.

Deming Co. in Salem.

David, a 4-H'er nine years, is a member of the Just Rite Club. He attends the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University.

Others in the Royal Court were Sue Serafy, Wellsville RD 1; Diane L. Baker, Lisbon RD 5; Lynn Hawkins, New Waterford RD 1; Sherry Mollenkopf, East Palestine; Marsha McPherson, Hanoverton RD 1; Jack James, 1338 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville; Charles Glass Jr., Wellsville RD 1; John Sebrell and Larry Kuyper, both of Lisbon RD 4, and Gary Booth, New Waterford RD 1.

Two beauties rode in open cars behind the royal court — Sally Lindsay, 19, Columbiana County dairy princess, and Miss Sandra Ciotti of Salem, Miss Columbiana. Miss Lindsay of New Waterford RD, was crowned last night by Galen Greenisen, treasurer of the Columbiana County Dairy Council.

The county 4-H band led the parade which gave the boys and girls an opportunity to show off their ponies, horses and beef and dairy cattle.

Several steers became unruly and handlers hit the dust of the track. At the end of the line came Mike Cloran of East Liverpool RD 2 with a big white-and - black rabbit on a leash. It was "nervous," he said, and wouldn't budge when placed on the ground. It made the route in his arms.

JOE DRISCOLL, superintendent of Lisbon schools, and Pete Marra, county school system high school supervisor, judged the 4-H floats.

The Busy Gals Club of Rogers took first with "Merry Go Round." Other money winners in order of finish were Fairfield Junior Homemakers 2, "Small World;" Fairfield Junior Homemakers 3, "Life and Breath," and Beaver Belles, "Keep America Beautiful."

Gordon McDonald, the county's new 4-H agent, and Mrs. Ann Riedel, county home economics agent, announced the parade from the judge's stand.

A 3,000-pound team driven by Pete Wiser of Dundee won top money in the lightweight pulling contest. Second, third, fourth and fifth in the eight-team field went to Henry Ginerich, Dundee; Bob Foster, Minerva; Harold Blake, Mercer, Pa., and Dale Rudibaugh, Wellsville.

Winning teams among the heavies were driven by Clair Greenamyer, North Jackson, first; Wade Rall, Beaver RD 1; Dale Rudibaugh, and Rall and Ed Popp.

GARY REEDER of Rogers RD 1 won first in the 4-H tractor rodeo yesterday afternoon and will represent the county in the state fair contest. Bob Hays of East Rochester finished second and Jim Huston of Wellsville RD 1 third.

Fair directors this year added a daily hog calling contest. Time crowded out yesterday's match, so it was held this afternoon and another will be held tonight. The winners, plus the Friday and Saturday winners, will "holler" Sunday for the county hog-calling championship.

Directors said Barber Bros., which has the rides on the midway, will offer special family day rates Friday.

The grandstand attraction Friday night will be Pee Wee King's "Country Western Hoedown."

Class B (4,501 to 6,500 pounds): Ted Schmied, Salem; John Minor, no address shown; Ron Rhodes, Salem; Rick Sanor, Homeworth; Harold Burcaw, Salem.

Jodi Kinos of Aliquippa, cucumbers; Mrs. Sipp, yellow onions and hot peppers; Lanny Stewart of Greene Township, gourds; Delores Whitehill and Bonnie Whitehill of Georgetown, sweet peppers; Darrell Beal of Greene Township, squash; Jeff Lyons and Sharon Lyons of Greene township, squash, and Charles Glenn of Chester, cantelope. Mr. and Mrs. Sipp won four blue ribbons for eggs.

Winning blue ribbons for quilts were Mrs. Martha Laughlin of Georgetown RD 1, appliqued quilts; Mrs. Virginia McLaughlin of Georgetown RD 1, embroidered quilt; Mrs. Grace Caler of Hanover Township, an aged quilt and an unpieced quilted design; Golden Age Club of Chester, pieced top quilt; Mrs. Bonnie Harris of Georgetown RD 1, baby quilt, and Mrs. James McDougal of Weirton, two crocheted bedspreads.

A tractor-pulling contest was held Wednesday night.

A program of Hawaiian music wil be featured at 7 tonight preceding the pony - pulling contest.

Winners in the tractor pulling contest at the Fair Wednesday night were: 4,000 lbs. and under, Harry Reefman of Aliquippa, 1st; Bill Landers of Georgetown RD 1, 2nd, and George Schmidt of Hookstown, 3rd.

4,000 to 5,500, Carl Pugh of Chester, 1st; William Cheuvront of Chester, 2nd, and Charles Moore Jr. of Chester, 3rd.

5,500 to 7,000 lbs. — Reefeman, 1st; Kenny Moore of Georgetown, 2nd, and Clarence Pugh of Chester, 3rd.

7,000 to 8,500 lbs. — Gerald Smith, 1st; John Boyd of Aliquippa, 2nd, and Kenneth Soisson of Georgetown RD 1, 3rd.

8,500 to 10,000 lbs. — David Hobbs of Georgetown RD 1, 1st; Marlco Briguh Jr. of Burgettstown RD 1, 2nd, and Tom Novak of Burgettstown, 3rd.

There were 83 tractors entered. About 12,000 people attended the events at the fairgrounds Wednesday, according to fair officials.

Pauline E. Hoyt Becomes Bride Of James LaScola

MRS. JAMES LASCOLA
Wed In Church Rites.

The traditions were observed when Miss Pauline E. Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoyt of Alba St., Chester, became the bride of James LaScola Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James LaScola of Carolina Ave., Chester, during a ceremony Aug. 10 at noon at the Sacred Heart Church of Chester.

Fr. Robert Hickey officiated for the double - ring ceremony. The Rev. Donald Bell, minister of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church, offered the blessing. William Bourne presented a half hour recital of organ music.

THE BRIDE was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother - in-law, Robert C. Diffenderfer of Little Silver, N. J. She wore a floor - length gown of silk organza over taffeta accented with Alencon lace applique. The Empire bodice featured a scoop neckline and lantern sleeves. The sheath skirt was designed with an overskirt of organza which ended in a chapel train.

Her elbow - length veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by a cluster of organza roses and Alencon lace. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations, daisies and English ivy tied with satin streamers.

Miss Norma Hoyt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Koping, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. James Kimble. They appeared in A-line skimmers of mint green organza fashioned with scoop necklines and cap sleeves.

Their headpieces were short pouf veils caught to organza roses and bustle bows. They carried cascade bouquets of tangerine color carnations and daisies tied with mint green streamers.

Robert F. Shaffer Jr. served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Koping and James Kimble.

A reception for 250 was held in the evening at the IBOP hall on Route 7. Mrs. James Obenour registered guests. The Tom Colella Orchestra played for dancing.

The newlyweds are graduates of Chester High School, the bride in 1963 and her husband in 1962. They are also 1967 graduates of West Liberty State College, where the bridegroom was affiliated with Chi Nu fraternity and his wife was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. The bride teaches at Chester Intermediate School and the bridegroom at Weir High School.

Mrs. LaScola was feted with a pre - nuptial shower by the bridegroom's mother and her bridal attendants.

Rites Planned For Youths In Cycle Mishap

Services will be held Saturday for two young Beaver men who were found dead Wednesday morning alongside the wreckage of a motorcycle on Dutch Ridge Rd. in Brighton Township.

The victims were Kyle Mason Trent, 19, of 419 East End Ave., Beaver, and Gregory Hartsuff, 18, of Gypsy Glen Rd., Beaver.

Pennsylvania State Police at the Chippewa Barracks said the motorcycle, operated by Trent, apparently went off the road on a curve about 2 a. m. yesterday. However, the first of the bodies was not discovered until 10:30 a. m. It was found by a young girl who was on her way to a store on foot.

Police said the motorcycle was traveling west about a mile and a half west of Beaver when it ran off the right side of the roadway, up an embankment, through a hedge and into a tree. Both apparently died instantly of head injuries and multiple internal injuries.

Dr. Ralph L. Riviere, Beaver County coroner, pronounced both dead at the scene.

Services for Mr. Trent will be held Saturday at 11 a. m. at the J. T. Anderson Jr. Funeral Home in Beaver. Burial will be in Beaver Cemetery.

Mr. Hartsuff's services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m. at the J. R. Todd Funeral Home, also in Beaver. Burial will be in Sylvania Hills Memorial Park, near Rochester.

Industry Bride Resides In East After Honeymoon

A gown of lace and silk organza was worn by Miss Joanne Siranovich when she became the bride of David Francis Herron Aug. 3 at 2 p. m. at St. Christine Roman Catholic Church at Industry.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Siranovich of 1225 Ohioview Dr., Industry, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Herron of Elkton, Md.

The double - ring ceremony was performed by Fr. Luke Postek of St. Francis Monastery at Loretto, cousin of the bride's father. Mrs. Edward White of Beaver was the organist. Mrs. William Duck of Industry was the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an A-line empire - style gown of re - embroidered Alencon lace and silk organza. The lace bodice featured a scalloped scoop neckline and scalloped elbow-length sleeves. A tassel of clear crystals tipped with pearls accented the empire waistline.

The skirt featured a cage of silk organza over rayon peau. Lace appliques adorned the skirt and its scalloped hemline. A removable chapel - length train of silk organza attached at the waistline featured appliques of alencon lace. Her bouffant veil of English silk illusion was held in place by a cluster of French re-embroidered lace petals. She carried a classic cascade of white princess orchids, stephanotis and ivy with pink demure sweetheart roses.

FOR SOMETHING old and borrowed, she carried a bridal handkerchief of her mother; she wore a blue garter, and wore in her shoe a sixpence brought from England by the bridegroom.

The maid - of - honor was Louise Ann Phillis of Newark, Del., a college roommate who wore an ice-blue A-line skimmer of chiffon over linen. She carried a cascade of white daisies and blue pompons with pink sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids were Betty Seitz of Irwin and Judy Davis of Pittsburg, college roommates, Barbara Herron of Elkton, sister of the bridegroom, and Susan Mihalic of Spokane, Wash., cousin of the bride. All were attired in gowns similar to that of the maid - of - honor.

The flower girl was Miss Teresa Roginski of Silver Springs, Md., cousin of the bride. Her gown and headpiece to match the other attendants were made by the bride's mother.

Patrick Herron of Ft. Gulick, Canal Zone, was his brother's best man. Ushers were David Mayer of Baltimore, Harry Dillner of Newark, Del., and Robert Parrack of Elkton, all friends of the bridegroom, and Stan Siranovich of Pittsburgh, cousin of the bride.

THE BRIDE'S parents held a reception for 400 at the American Jugoslav Club at Midland. A memory candle in the middle of an arrangement of white and blue daisy pompons and pink sweetheart roses decorated the bride's table in addition to a huckleberry encircled cake.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents at the Willows Motel at Industry for the wedding party. The bride and groom exchanged gifts; the bride presented her attendants cultured pearl pendants, while the bridegroom presented tie tacs to the ushers.

The bride, a graduate of Western Beaver High School who received a bachelor of science degree in education with a math major from the Indiana (Pa.) University, is employed by the Newark, Del. Special School District.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Elkton Senior High School, and received his bachelor of arts degree in math from the University of Delaware. He is employed by Manor Aviation.

Following a honeymoon to Bermuda, the newlyweds are residing at 607 Lehigh Rd., Apt. B-11, Park Place, Newark, Del.

Continuance Granted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's Liquor Control Commission Wednesday granted the Kroger Co. an indefenite continuance of a hearing on the liquor department's refusal to grant new permits to some of the chain's stores.

The continuance was granted pending the outcome of an appeal by Kroger in Franklin County Court of Appeals to a court ruling that such games violate state lottery laws and liquor regulations.

Those attending are to bring a coverdish and table service, with the lodges providing the remainder of the menu.

Horseshoes, volleyball, fishing and swimming will feature the entertainment.

2 Held In Robbery Of Boardman Bank

YOUNGSTOWN (AP) — Two men are being held on open charges by authorities after an estimated $12,000 robbery at a Boardman bank Wednesday.

About $5,000 of the money was recovered at a South Side Youngstown house where the men were picked up. Still being sought is a third man police believe drove the getaway car.

The two armed men forced the bank manager of the Newport branch of the People's bank into the vault, along with six employes and two customers.

County Request Eyed By South Side Boards

Representatives of the six school boards in South Side Beaver Jointure will meet Thursday night at South Side High School to prepare a statement of requests to be presented before the Beaver County Board of Education at a meeting with that group Monday night.

The requests will deal with a proposed re-organization of school districts in the county.

WASHINGTON (AP) — More convicts were on death row in American prisons last year than at any time since 1953, but only two men were executed, the Bureau of Prisons reports.

In its annual report on capital punishment, the bureau said Wednesday 435 persons were under sentence of death during 1967. This was the highest number on record and double the 1960 figure.

Two murderers went to the gas chamber last year—one in California and the other in Colorado. Only one person was executed in 1966.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says Congress probably will have to take another recess in October and return after the Nov. 5 elections to complete its 1968 business.

"I would not be surprised if we are in session most of the rest of this year," the Montana senator said Wednesday.

Congress recessed Aug. 2 for the two national political conventions and is to return Sept. 4. Mansfield indicated he did not think a Senate quorum could be maintained if the session runs into October.

Midland Man New Head Of Housing Unit

John F. Phillips of Midland was elected chairman of the Beaver County Housing Authority Wednesday night. He succeeds Atty. John Prather of Monaca, resigned.

Francis Farmer Sr. of Rochester was named vice chairman, a position held by Phillips since 1965. Phillips has been a member since 1956.

A resolution was passed commending Prather for his services since 1949. Rocco Bovalino of Freedom, an industrial engineer at Jones and Laughlin, replaces Prather on the board.

Sept. 12 was set as the date for a dedication and corner stone ceremony at the Eleanor Roosevelt Apartments in Aliquippa.

Lisbon Child, 2, Hurt When She Runs Into Auto

LISBON — Roberta Cannon, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cannon of 336 N. Market St., ran out of the house into the side of a passing car about 6:15 p.m. Wednesday.

The parents watched in horror. Their son, Michael, 8, was killed by a car farther north on Market St. (route 45) in 1962 while selling magazines for his class at school.

Mrs. Jane Cannon, the mother, was just a step behind the child as she ran into the car. Mrs. Cannon said the driver veered to the left trying to avoid the accident.

Policeman Phil Prasco witnessed the accident from the cruiser. He said the northbound car was driven by Margaret Klose of 599 Euclid Ave., Salem. "The little girl ran from the house and directly into the side of the car—I thought she was killed," he said.

The officer took Mrs. Cannon and the baby to the local medical clinic and, unable to find a doctor there, called for the firemen's ambulance. Firemen then took Mrs. Cannon and Roberta to the hospital.

2 New Members Are Enrolled By Legion Post 374

Two new members were enrolled when American Legion Post 374 met Monday night.

James Cregar, president of the Veterans City Council, reported on the meeting held Friday at City Hall. He was presented a past commander's pin by James R. Poynter, second vice commander of the 10th District.

It was announced that the post will sponsor bus transportation to the "away" games of the East Liverpool High School football team — at Boardman and Steubenville Central Catholic.

Densel McKinney, county second vice commander, reported that 150 attended the county picnic held at Valley Park. Children's games, softball, volleyball and horseshoes were featured.

Long extended an invitation to any Vietnam veteran who has been honorably discharged or who is home on leave to attend a meeting of the post and observe its functions. The post meets every Monday night at 8.

Francis Long of Washington,, D. C., a brother of Long, was a guest. Lunch was served 45 by the kitchen committee. The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m.

Trial Slated Tuesday For Wellsville Driver

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a trial Tuesday at 9 a. m. for Harold G. Whitla of 425 Commerce St., Wellsville, who pleaded not guilty to an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone last Saturday on Route 7 near Wellsville.

Meanwhile, Gilbert Piergallini of 721 Edwards Ave. was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of crashing a stop sign at 12:37 a.m. today on the Campground Rd. He was cited by Constable Thomas Edgell of Liverpool Township.

Charles F. Geer of 739 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, is due for a hearing Friday on a charge he crashed a stop sign at 12:55 a.m. today on Hess Rd. He also was cited by Edgell.

Group Joins In Ashtabula Road Meeting

A local and area delegation will be among those attending the meeting of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association in Ashtabula today.

It will include Levi Kimball and Sherman Price, representing Division 11 of the Highway Department; State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel; County Commissioner James Boyd; Atty. Francis Lang, chairman of the Highway Committee of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce and past president of the highway association; E. R. Chandler, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the highway association; Arthur Doak, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and Chairman of its Civic Affairs Committee, and H. Jud English, executive manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, and Phil Miraglata, both members of the Chamber's Highway Committee.

The progress of construction of the various parts of the highway will be discussed, A. C. Patterson of Ashtabula, president, said. The dinner meeting will be in the Hotel Ashtabula.

Deputy directors of the two divisions involved in the construction of the highway, as well as legislators, county commissioners and engineers of the four county area will attend.

Official Charged In Drunk Driving As Car Kills Boy

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Police say Cliff Beckett, Warren County Clerk of Courts, was charged with driving while intoxicated last night after his car struck and killed a 10-year-old boy.

The Lebanon Post of the State Highway Patrol said the boy, Andrew Garland of near Springboro, was riding a bicycle and that his body was dragged for more than a mile, until a motorist in a following car forced Beckett off the road.

The Garland boy was the son of T. C. Garland, who was on a trip in Canada and still had not been notified this morning.

Lodges Will Hold Outing Sunday

The "Fall Family and Friends Picnic" will be held Sunday by Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 11 and Associates Lodge 51 at James Lake on Route 45, near Wellsville.

Activities will get under way at noon.

Those attending are to bring a coverdish and table service, with the lodges providing the remainder of the menu.

Horseshoes, volleyball, fishing and swimming will feature the entertainment.

2 Held In Robbery Of Boardman Bank

YOUNGSTOWN (AP) — Two men are being held on open charges by authorities after an estimated $12,000 robbery at a Boardman bank Wednesday.

About $5,000 of the money was recovered at a South Side Youngstown house where the men were picked up. Still being sought is a third man police believe drove the getaway car.

The two armed men forced the bank manager of the Newport branch of the People's bank into the vault, along with six employes and two customers.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Tip On Refrigerator Use

DEAR HELOISE: My refrigerator defrosts automatically, but my crispers get too much moisture in them so that my lettuce, cucumbers, fruit, etc., were spoiling.

Heloise

I bought a small package of sponges and use three in each crisper. They absorb most of the moisture, and my lettuce, etc., will now keep fresh (without spoilage) for two weeks or more.

The sponges can be removed and washed when necessary.

MRS. M. HARRIS.

Fantabulous!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Before going on a long car trip I put a crib mattress and quilts on the back seat of the car for my two small children.

I build up the back car floor with suitcases so they're about even with the seat and spread out the mattress and quilts.

ELAINE.

DEAR HELOISE: I read with great interest your tip on soaking all the removable parts of your oven in the sink or bathtub. My sink was too small and the thought of cleaning the tub afterwards made me shudder, so. . .

I brought my husband's wheelbarrow around to the back door, filled it with hot suds and soaked the racks, broiler pan, griddle, etc. This took two soakings, as I couldn't get everything in at once.

After several hours, I went out with a soap-filled pad and scrubbed everything down, used the garden hose to rinse and left everything to dry on newspapers outside.

In short order, my oven was back together, there was no mopping of floors to contend with. . .and my husband had the cleanest wheelbarrow in town!

MRS. T.

DEAR HELOISE: When making drop cookies, if the batter is fairly stiff, use a table knife instead of a teaspoon for dropping the cookies onto the sheet.

MRS. A. SPENCER.

DEAR HELOISE: Many of us have short zippers lying around but not long ones. (After all, they cost quite a bit.)

Twice now I've had occasion to put in a long zipper and had none. I used two short ones with the openings of each facing the other. When both zippers are opened, the full length of the two zippers is open.

I've used these on cot mattress covers, covers for twin-size foam mattresses, etc., as these can be folded and inserted in a small opening.

ELEANOR G. KRESS.

DEAR HELOISE: My young son loves looking at the animal pictures on his cereal boxes.

As I have been searching for wall plaques for his room, I cut out the back of the box as a background and covered it with colored paper, then taped the animal picture to it and hung it on his wall.

He loves looking at each and every one of them and they do add to the room.

MRS. S. E. A.

Invasion 'Clouds' U.S.-Soviet Ties

LBJ To Press Arms Curb Despite Act By Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration intends to press for arms control and other East-West accords despite the millstone the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia has hung on U.S.-Soviet relations.

The prospect of far-reaching talks between the United States and Russia on nuclear missile and antimissile curbs are still alive, authoritative U.S. sources said Wednesday.

President Johnson has not canceled the newly inaugurated New York-Moscow air service, clamped down on trade with Russia or suspended U.S.-Soviet cultural exchanges although such options remained open.

A U.S. military response was ruled out from the beginning.

The immediate U.S. strategy has been to try for some relief of Czechoslovakian liberals by joining in the outcry of world public opinion against the Russian move.

Johnson publicly denounced the Soviet action Wednesday. Ambassador George W. Ball protested at the U.N. Security Council and the government's Voice of America radio tripled its Russian-language broadcasts.

"It is never too late for reason to prevail," Johnson said in appealing for urgent United Nations action.

The President called the Soviet Union claim that Czech leaders had asked for military aid in preserving communism in their country "patently contrived."

"The Czechoslovakian government did not request its allies to interfere in its internal affairs," Johnson said. "No external aggression threatened Czechoslovakia."

On Capitol Hill, both Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford agreed there is little the United States can do except to take the matter to the United Nations.

The State Department, meanwhile, advised all Americans to defer travel to Czechoslovakia and said those already there should keep in touch with the U.S Embassy.

The United States also quietly began arrangements to help refugees should they start streaming out of Czechoslovakia, as they did from Hungary after the Soviets smashed an uprising there 12 years ago.

Administration authorities admittedly expect a wave of anti-Soviet sentiment in the United States to put a chill on Johnson's long effort to build bridges toward Communist East Europe.

There were anti-Soviet demonstrations in New York and Washington Wednesday.

Officials now wonder whether the Senate will ratify the nuclear nonproliferation treaty when it reconvenes next month. Johnson hailed the pact when it was signed July 1 as a landmark accord of the atomic age.

As for the proposed U.S.-Soviet missile talks, which Johnson announced July 1 would begin in the near future, authorities said neither Washington nor Moscow has served notice it wants to back out of the talks.

Four Missing In Blast At Powder Plant

CLEVELAND (AP) — A man who was working at the Austin Powder Co.'s plant in Glenwillow to get some extra money and another who was planning to quit his job there next week were among the four missing following an explosion at the plant Wednesday.

David M. Gleason, president of the company, said the four are "almost certainly dead" and identified them as:

Clyde Cauhill, 32; Edgel Williams, 23, and Elba Frye, 27, all of Cleveland, and Warren Fuller, 22, of Hudson.

The four had been at work about an hour loading 25-pound kegs of powder onto a trailer for shipment to U.S. government arsenals when the explosion sent debris more than 100 yards in all directions.

Destroyed by the blast of 3,000 pounds of black powder was the 30 - foot square wooden pack house they worked in.

Gleason said it probably will be some time before the cause of the explosion is determined.

Company officials still are investigating the cause of a fire at the plant which fatally burned two employes July 30.

Cauhill, who had worked at the plant off and on for five years, signed on again only three days ago.

"Every so often he'd get scared, being up there with all that stuff," said Hershell Johnson, his brother-in-law, and I guess he just wanted some extra money."

Williams' sister, Alice, said he had worked at the plant for two years, but got scared after the burning deaths of two-co-workers three weeks ago and was planning to quit next week.

First state agricultural experiment station was set up at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1875.

Probation Cancelled; 5 Burglaries Admitted

LISBON — Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court Monday terminated probation granted to a Lisbon youth and ordered an investigation and report for a New Waterford youth who pleaded guilty to five burglaries and asked for probation.

Robert G. Taylor, 19, of 330 N. Market St. was ordered returned to the Ohio State Reformatory to serve the remainder of a 1-to-7-year sentence handed down one year ago for stealing hubcaps from a car in Salem and another in Leetonia. He was granted probation last October after serving two months on the sentence.

Donald Boso, 18, of Lisbon RD 2, who has been on probation since June 15 for a Dec. 25 burglary at the Buckeye Beverage Store here, also appeared for a probation violation hearing. Judge Buzzard remanded him to the County Jail as a probation violator pending a mental health report.

Local police referred both youths to the county probation department after they were arrested and fined here for beating David Joseph of E. High St. July 10 at his home.

William H. Matevich, 18, admitted the following burglaries: April 23, Village Inn, New Waterford; April 24 and May 3, Valley Inn, Negley, and May 3 and 4, William A. Dickey & Son's store, Negley.

Judge Buzzard continued the youth's bond at $3,000 and he was returned to the County Jail. The grand jury indicted Matevich during a recalled session in June.

Music Group Maps Plans

Events for the coming school year were discussed when the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers met Tuesday night at 7:45 in the band room at Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. Peg Eddy presided.

It was announced that the new uniforms are due to arrive in time for the band's appearance at the first football game.

The committee in charge of the sale of car mats reported that mats still are available.

Plans were completed for the annual magazine sale which will be conducted in September by the Junior High and high school band students.

A social hour followed the business session.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17.

The brass studs on dog collars go back to the time when pet animals wore spiked collars as a protection against wolves.

The vital difference between apes and monkeys is that the former are without tails while all monkeys have tails.

Southern Local's Board Acts To Ease Crowding

SALINEVILLE — The Southern Local Board of Education approved plans to hold some high school classes at the Highlandtown Elementary Building and accepted the resignation of Charles Allison, veteran board member, at its meeting Wednesday night at No. 16 School.

Due to overcrowded conditions at the high school, Jack F. Baker, high school principal, told the board it would be necessary to transfer some of the high school classes to the Highlandtown Elementary Building. Definite plans as to which classes will be shifted have not been completed.

Allison, a board member for seven years, submitted his letter of resignation since he is moving into the Wellsville district this week. Allison served as board president for three years.

Teachers hired by the board were Evelyn Culp Morrow of Wellsville, No. 16 building, elementary, and Myron Bazil and Terry Tilley, both for the high school staff.

Resignations were accepted from Mrs. Edna Spring of Wellsville, who is moving to New Philadelphia; David Wilson, recently hired, who will be working among the "ghettos" of Louisille, Ky., and from Mrs. Aletha Hanley, for health reasons.

John Ewing was appointed delegate to the Ohio School Board meeting.

The board passed a resolution commending Tony Brandonisio, bus mechanic, "for the good work he is doing." The buses passed inspection by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

Supt. Thomas Leek was given permission to obtain prices on freezer space for several of the buildings. Permission was given for the use of the No. 16 building by a newly-organized Brownie troop that will be sponsored by the parent - teacher organization of the school. Hiring of part - time cafeteria personnel at the No. 16 building was approved, if needed.

Philip Maher presided.

The next meeting will be Sept. 11 at the Wayne Elementary Building. Anyone interested in the vacancy created by Allison's resignation should submit an application to the clerk, Mrs. Joan Dixon, before the meeting.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Tip On Refrigerator Use

Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: My refrigerator defrosts automatically, but my crispers get too much moisture in them so that my lettuce, cucumbers, fruit, etc., were spoiling.

I bought a small package of sponges and use three in each crisper. They absorb most of the moisture, and my lettuce, etc., will now keep fresh (without spoilage) for two weeks or more.

The sponges can be removed and washed when necessary.

MRS. M. HARRIS.

Fantabulous!

DEAR HELOISE: Before going on a long car trip I put a crib mattress and quilts on the back seat of the car for my two small children.

I build up the back car floor with suitcases so they're about even with the seat and spread out the mattress and quilts.

ELAINE.

DEAR HELOISE: I read with great interest your tip on soaking all the removable parts of your oven in the sink or bathtub. My sink was too small and the thought of cleaning the tub afterwards made me shudder, so. . .

I brought my husband's wheelbarrow around to the back door, filled it with hot suds and soaked the racks, broiler pan, griddle, etc. This took two soakings, as I couldn't get everything in at once.

After several hours, I went out with a soap-filled pad and scrubbed everything down, used the garden hose to rinse and left everything to dry on newspapers outside.

In short order, my oven was back together, there was no mopping of floors to contend with. . .and my husband had the cleanest wheelbarrow in town!

MRS. T.

DEAR HELOISE: When making drop cookies, if the batter is fairly stiff, use a table knife instead of a teaspoon for dropping the cookies onto the sheet.

MRS. A. SPENCER.

DEAR HELOISE: Many of us have short zippers lying around but not long ones. (After all, they cost quite a bit.)

Twice now I've had occasion to put in a long zipper and had none. I used two short ones with the openings of each facing the other. When both zippers are opened, the full length of the two zippers is open.

I've used these on cot mattress covers, covers for twin-size foam mattresses, etc., as these can be folded and inserted in a small opening.

ELEANOR G. KRESS.

DEAR HELOISE: My young son loves looking at the animal pictures on his cereal boxes.

As I have been searching for wall plaques for his room, I cut out the back of the box as a background and covered it with colored paper, then taped the animal picture to it and hung it on his wall.

He loves looking at each and every one of them and they do add to the room.

MRS. S. E. A.

Invasion 'Clouds' U.S.-Soviet Ties

LBJ To Press Arms Curb Despite Act By Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration intends to press for arms control and other East-West accords despite the millstone the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia has hung on U.S.-Soviet relations.

The prospect of far-reaching talks between the United States and Russia on nuclear missile and antimissile curbs are still alive, authoritative U.S. sources said Wednesday.

President Johnson has not canceled the newly inaugurated New York-Moscow air service, clamped down on trade with Russia or suspended U.S.-Soviet cultural exchanges although such options remained open.

The immediate U.S. strategy has been to try for some relief of Czechoslovakian liberals by joining in the outcry of world public opinion against the Russian move.

Johnson publicly denounced the Soviet action Wednesday. Ambassador George W. Ball protested at the U.N. Security Council and the government's Voice of America radio tripled its Russian-language broadcasts.

"It is never too late for reason to prevail," Johnson said in appealing for urgent United Nations action.

The President called the Soviet Union claim that Czech leaders had asked for military aid in preserving communism in their country "patently contrived."

"The Czechoslovakian government did not request its allies to interfere in its internal affairs," Johnson said. "No external aggression threatened Czechoslovakia."

On Capitol Hill, both Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford agreed there is little the United States can do except to take the matter to the United Nations.

The State Department, meanwhile, advised all Americans to defer travel to Czechoslovakia and said those already there should keep in touch with the U.S Embassy.

The United States also quietly began arrangements to help refugees should they start streaming out of Czechoslovakia, as they did from Hungary after the Soviets smashed an uprising there 12 years ago.

Administration authorities admittedly expect a wave of anti-Soviet sentiment in the United States to put a chill on Johnson's long effort to build bridges toward Communist East Europe.

There were anti-Soviet demonstrations in New York and Washington Wednesday.

Officials now wonder whether the Senate will ratify the nuclear nonproliferation treaty when it reconvenes next month. Johnson hailed the pact when it was signed July 1 as a landmark accord of the atomic age.

As for the proposed U.S.-Soviet missile talks, which Johnson announced July 1 would begin in the near future, authorities said neither Washington nor Moscow has served notice it wants to back out of the talks.

Four Missing In Blast At Powder Plant

CLEVELAND (AP) — A man who was working at the Austin Powder Co.'s plant in Glenwillow to get some extra money and another who was planning to quit his job there next week were among the four missing following an explosion at the plant Wednesday.

David M. Gleason, president of the company, said the four are "almost certainly dead" and identified them as:

Clyde Cauhill, 32; Edgel Williams, 23, and Elba Frye, 27, all of Cleveland, and Warren Fuller, 22, of Hudson.

The four had been at work about an hour loading 25-pound kegs of powder onto a trailer for shipment to U.S. government arsenals when the explosion sent debris more than 100 yards in all directions.

Destroyed by the blast of 3,000 pounds of black powder was the 30 - foot square wooden pack house they worked in.

Gleason said it probably will be some time before the cause of the explosion is determined.

Company officials still are investigating the cause of a fire at the plant which fatally burned two employes July 30.

Cauhill, who had worked at the plant off and on for five years, signed on again only three days ago.

"Every so often he'd get scared, being up there with all that stuff," said Hershell Johnson, his brother-in-law, and I guess he just wanted some extra money."

Williams' sister, Alice, said he had worked at the plant for two years, but got scared after the burning deaths of two-co-workers three weeks ago and was planning to quit next week.

Probation Cancelled; 5 Burglaries Admitted

LISBON — Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court Monday terminated probation granted to a Lisbon youth and ordered an investigation and report for a New Waterford youth who pleaded guilty to five burglaries and asked for probation.

Robert G. Taylor, 19, of 330 N. Market St. was ordered returned to the Ohio State Reformatory to serve the remainder of a 1-to-7-year sentence handed down one year ago for stealing hubcaps from a car in Salem and another in Leetonia. He was granted probation last October after serving two months on the sentence.

Donald Boso, 18, of Lisbon RD 2, who has been on probation since June 15 for a Dec. 25 burglary at the Buckeye Beverage Store here, also appeared for a probation violation hearing. Judge Buzzard remanded him to the County Jail as a probation violator pending a mental health report.

Local police referred both youths to the county probation department after they were arrested and fined here for beating David Joseph of E. High St. July 10 at his home.

William H. Matevich, 18, admitted the following burglaries: April 23, Village Inn, New Waterford; April 24 and May 3, Valley Inn, Negley, and May 3 and 4, William A. Dickey & Son's store, Negley.

Judge Buzzard continued the youth's bond at $3,000 and he was returned to the County Jail. The grand jury indicted Matevich during a recalled session in June.

Music Group Maps Plans

Events for the coming school year were discussed when the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers met Tuesday night at 7:45 in the band room at Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. Peg Eddy presided.

It was announced that the new uniforms are due to arrive in time for the band's appearance at the first football game.

The committee in charge of the sale of car mats reported that mats still are available.

Plans were completed for the annual magazine sale which will be conducted in September by the Junior High and high school band students.

A social hour followed the business session.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17.

Doctors Say Ike Had New Heart Spasms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Doctors report a resurgence of the irregular heart beats which pose a major threat to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's survival.

The new heart spasms were reported in a bulletin issued late Wednesday night by doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital where he is fighting to recover from his seventh heart attack.

Although doctors said the 77-year-old general was resting comfortably and that his life signs were stable, the report indicated a setback after nearly 24 hours in which the dangerous spasms had steadily declined.

The bulletin for the first time used the word "irritability" instead of irregularity, but the doctors did not spell out why.

The latest report said:

"Gen. Eisenhower has again shown some increase of heart irritability since this afternoon's bulletin. He is presently resting comfortably and his vital life signs are stable."

Earlier in the day doctors reported that a new drug had appeared to be effective in controlling the spasms.

The drug is a synthetic substance called lidocaine, chemically related to the pain killer novocaine, but more powerful.

Although it has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for general cardiac use, it is under extensive clinical investigation.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I clean fingermarks or other dirt marks off new, raw wood that is to receive a clear, natural finish?

A.—Scrub it down with fine steel wool and denatured alcohol. This is not only an excellent solvent for most dirt marks, but also acts as a very mild bleach on raw wood. Caution: Denatured alcohol is flammable!

Q.—What can I do about woodwork, enameled walls, and furniture that have become dull-looking and covered with fingermarks?

A.—To a gallon of hot water add a half - cup of vinegar and two tablespoons of linseed oil, wipe the surfaces with this solution, then polish with a dry cloth.

Q.—How can I ease tired and aching feet?

A.—By giving them a good soaking in a basin of hot water to which you've added two cups of salt.

Q.—How can I remove bubble gum from children's faces and hands?

Q.—How can I clean and brighten brass?

A.—Try washing it in water in which potatoes have been boiled. The brass will emerge bright and new-looking. Then, to keep it bright longer, rub a little salt and vinegar over it.

Relations Unit Meets

Midland Group Pushes Workshop Preparations

Plans to distribute literature advertising an Oct. 12 workshop were outlined and a potential list of workshop moderators was suggested when the Midland Human Relations Commission met Wednesday night at the Borough Building. Charles R. Schmitt, chairman, presided.

Mrs. James Green, who is active in the Midland area Girl Scout Association, and Mrs. Hatti Jones, manager of the Midland Area Community Action Committee, were named co-chairmen of the literature distribution committee.

Assisting with the door-to-door distribution of workshop handbills will be the Midland Area Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and the CAC neighborhood workers. The neighborhood workers are salaried by the CAC, it was noted.

The distribution of handbills will begin as soon as they are received from the printer. These will contain perforated return cards which should be filled out and returned to the commission by those intending to attend the event.

To save postage, these return cards may be deposited at various places in Midland including the Beaver Trust Co., The First National Bank, Dollar Savings and Loan Association, Ernie's Pharmacy, Keystone Shoe Store, McLeod's Service Station, and the G. C. Murphy Co.

Names of 15 community residents were suggested as possible moderators for individual cation, public service and accommodations, housing and real estate, and youth. Two workshops will be held on each subject.

Ten moderators will be required. Each workshop will select a group leader from those who attend. The actual conversation of each workshop will be tape recorded to be transcribed and later compiled as a permanent record.

A youth committee comprised of James Perkins, Tom Curry, Mrs. Vivian Burke, and Mrs. Jean Brozic will solicit the help of area young people who will serve as aides at the event to be held at Lincoln High School Auditorium.

The commission will sponsor a poster contest among school children prior to the workshop. A prize will be awarded.

The program schedule includes registration, a coffee hour, a key-note address, a luncheon, ten afternoon workshops and a closing assembly.

Schmitt's co - chairmen, Emeric P. Davis and James H. Morrison, gave detailed reports on progress of plans for the workshop.

The commission will meet Sept. 9 at noon at the plant management dining room of the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel corporation.

In other business, Schmitt announced that ticket sales are under way for the third anniversary luncheon of the commission Sept. 13 at 6:30 p.m. at

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I clean fingermarks or other dirt marks off new, raw wood that is to receive a clear, natural finish?

A.—Scrub it down with fine steel wool and denatured alcohol. This is not only an excellent solvent for most dirt marks, but also acts as a very mild bleach on raw wood. Caution: Denatured alcohol is flammable!

Q.—What can I do about woodwork, enameled walls, and furniture that have become dull-looking and covered with fingermarks?

A.—To a gallon of hot water add a half - cup of vinegar and two tablespoons of linseed oil, wipe the surfaces with this solution, then polish with a dry cloth.

Q.—How can I ease tired and aching feet?

A.—By giving them a good soaking in a basin of hot water to which you've added two cups of salt.

Q.—How can I remove bubble gum from children's faces and hands?

Q.—How can I clean and brighten brass?

A.—Try washing it in water in which potatoes have been boiled. The brass will emerge bright and new-looking. Then, to keep it bright longer, rub a little salt and vinegar over it.

Doctors Say Ike Had New Heart Spasms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Doctors report a resurgence of the irregular heart beats which pose a major threat to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's survival.

The new heart spasms were reported in a bulletin issued late Wednesday night by doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital where he is fighting to recover from his seventh heart attack.

Although doctors said the 77-year-old general was resting comfortably and that his life signs were stable, the report indicated a setback after nearly 24 hours in which the dangerous spasms had steadily declined.

The bulletin for the first time used the word "irritability" instead of irregularity, but the doctors did not spell out why.

The latest report said:

"Gen. Eisenhower has again shown some increase of heart irritability since this afternoon's bulletin. He is presently resting comfortably and his vital life signs are stable."

Earlier in the day doctors reported that a new drug had appeared to be effective in controlling the spasms.

The drug is a synthetic substance called lidocaine, chemically related to the pain killer novocaine, but more powerful.

Although it has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for general cardiac use, it is under extensive clinical investigation.

Midland Group Pushes Workshop Preparations

Plans to distribute literature advertising an Oct. 12 workshop were outlined and a potential list of workshop moderators was suggested when the Midland Human Relations Commission met Wednesday night at the Borough Building. Charles R. Schmitt, chairman, presided.

Mrs. James Green, who is active in the Midland area Girl Scout Association, and Mrs. Hatti Jones, manager of the Midland Area Community Action Committee, were named co-chairmen of the literature distribution committee.

Assisting with the door-to-door distribution of workshop handbills will be the Midland Area Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and the CAC neighborhood workers. The neighborhood workers are salaried by the CAC, it was noted.

The distribution of handbills will begin as soon as they are received from the printer. These will contain perforated return cards which should be filled out and returned to the commission by those intending to attend the event.

To save postage, these return cards may be deposited at various places in Midland including the Beaver Trust Co., The First National Bank, Dollar Savings and Loan Association, Ernie's Pharmacy, Keystone Shoe Store, McLeod's Service Station, and the G. C. Murphy Co.

Names of 15 community residents were suggested as possible moderators for individual cation, public service and accommodations, housing and real estate, and youth. Two workshops will be held on each subject.

Ten moderators will be required. Each workshop will select a group leader from those who attend. The actual conversation of each workshop will be tape recorded to be transcribed and later compiled as a permanent record.

U.S. Caught Flatfooted

Experts Even Thought Czech Invasion Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. government was caught flatfooted by the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia even though American intelligence experts considered such action possible.

The signs of the drastic move by the Soviet Union were there. They apparently weren't read closely enough to make invasion seem likely.

Soviet and other Warsaw Pact armies had been on the move within striking distance of the Czech border, but U.S. authorities regarded this as part of the war of nerves waged since the Prague government started political reforms.

Another sign which, in hindsight, was ominous was the renewal of Soviet and Polish press attacks on the Prague regime.

And senior U.S. officers said the invasion was understandable in light of Moscow's fear that a closer relationship between Czechoslovakia and the West, particularly West Germany, would weaken the protective shield the Soviet Union has built through its satellite allies.

Yet, in spite of these signs, there is no evidence U.S. experts received advance word of the movement by Soviet and satellite troops across the Czech frontier.

In fact, President Johnson learned of the action, not through American intelligence sources, but by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, about three hours after the invasion started.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk's first knowledge came when an Associated Press bulletin was read to the Democratic party Platform Committee while he was testifying on Vietnam policies.

And it was about four hours after the invasion that U.S. radio monitors picked up a Czech broadcast telling of the action.

According to reliable reports, the Soviet and satellite forces near the border were thought too small to indicate any intention to attack. This possibly diminished the concern, and thus the alertness, of U.S. Intelligence analysts.

The failure to pickup early news of the troop movements could be explained by the Soviets having maintained radio silence, by their acting under the cover of darkness and by their apparent extensive use of aircraft to bring in troops and armor.

More Debate Set At U.N.

Czechs Backed By U.S., Others In Latest Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Czechoslovakia, overrun by the Soviet Union and four hardline followers, fought back on the diplomatic front today with support from the United States and other Western powers.

The Security Council, heeding American pleas of urgency, scheduled a second round of debate after arguing the Soviet military take-over in Czechoslovakia for nearly five hours Wednesday night with no break for dinner.

U.S. Chief Delegate George W. Ball said he strongly appealed for "immediate action of the council. . . we have the responsibility to act and act quickly."

So far, however, the six nations—the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Denmark and Paraguay—which persuaded the council to place the case on its agenda over strenuous Soviet objections, have not come up with a formal resolution.

Discussions were understood to be going on to draw one up which would get the broadest possible support while still expressing Western determination to have the council tell the Warsaw Pact forces to get out of Czechoslovakia immediately.

Any resolution faces an almost certain Soviet veto and this was foreshadowed by Soviet delegate Jacob Malik's bitter opposition to any U.N. discussion of the issue at all.

Malik was impassive and, for most of the session Wednesday, wore dark glasses.

His performance lacked fire and Britain's Lord Caradon commented that the Russian diplomat had the council's "compassion" because it realized his "disgust at having to defend such a disgraceful act. No wonder he carried so little conviction."

"Your compassion is in vain, Lord Caradon," Malik retorted. "I am proud that here in this council I defend a just cause."

Malik insisted that the Soviet Union and its allies had moved into Czechoslovakia at the invitation "of the government of that state. It is the government of that state which requested aid from its allies."

At no time did he identify the persons who sent the alleged invitation and Ball retorted "the Soviet armed forces were not invited into Czechoslovakia by anybody — they are uninvited guests."

In the session's most dramatic moment, Czechoslovak delegate Jan Muzik read the council three documents received by radio from Prague in which his country's top leaders and all government organs said they knew nothing in advance of the Soviet move, appealed for the foreign troops to get out and urged the people to keep calm.

He spoke in slow, measured tones and refrained so far as possible from open contention with Malik.

"I want to convince Ambassador Malik," he said, "that my government's only aim is to protect the rights of the workers of Czechoslovakia and the security of the socialist camp."

Ball, visibly moved, said "these statements of the authoritative leaders and organs of Czechoslovakia speak more eloquently than can any of us of the situation there and the need for this council to take action."

He said the statements made clear "the gross act of perfidy" represented by the invasion and demanded that it be "rightly and universally condemned."

Ball asserted that the Kremlin chiefs were frightened by moves towards liberalization in Czechoslovakia and that was the reason for the attack.

"The harassed and nervous leaders of the Soviet Union realize the brand of communism they insist on maintaining is a kind of fungus which will die when exposed to the sunlight of freedom," he said.

Various Actions Are Considered By School Group

Various actions were taken when the Hancock County nonteaching school personnel held their first fall meeting at Weir High School Tueday.

Insurance plans from two companies were presented; after a report by President George Stewart, the group voted to support the WVEA program; a banquet in November was discussed; a resolution and approved endorsing the school levy renewal which will face voters Sept. 10, and committee meetings were held.

Job placements and the salary schedule for the coming school year will be discussed at a general meeting next week.

A reminder was given on the statewide meeting for non-teaching personnel at Charleston on Oct. 12.

TB Clinic Gives Monthly Report

LISBON — The Columbiana County Tuberculosis Clinic registered one new case of TB in July and admitted three patients to TB hospitals.

Eight county patients are in hospitals — five in veterans' hospitals and three in the Ohio TB Hospital at Columbus.

Four of the patients are from East Liverpool, one from Salem and three from the General Health District.

Eleven patients were started on drug therapy last month, bringing to 148 the number on medication at home. Sixty of these are in the General Health District, 41 in East Liverpool, 27 in Salem, 11 in Wellsville and 9 in East Palestine.

Dr. M. K. Singer, medical director, said the clinic gave 141 chest X-rays, 43 Heaf tuberculin tests and 421 Mantoux tuberculin tests. Nurses made 139 visits to patients and Dr Singer held five consultations.

Defy Court Order Rap Red Aggression

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's two candidates for the U. S. Senate Wednesday condemned Russian aggression in Czechoslovakia. Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, a Republican, called it "an act of irresponsible agression." Democrat John J. Gilligan labeled it "a tragic turning back of the clock" to the "brutal era of Hungary."

Registration Set At Edison And Irondale

Elementary registration for all who have not previously registered for the 1968-69 term will be held at the Edison building Monday from 9 to 11 a. m. and 1 to 3 p.m.

Students who will be attending Irondale and Hammondsville elementaries may register at the Irondale building Tuesday from 9 to 11 a. m.. and 1 to 3 p.m.

Kindergarten and first - grade pupils must be five and six years of age on or before Sept. 30 to be eligible for enrollment. Birth certificates and immunization records must be presented at the time of enrollment for those who haven't pre-registered.

Anyone not registered before the opening day of school is requested to wait until Wednesday, Sept. 4, school officials said. Classes will begin Sept. 3.

Head Of Firm Dies

New Buildings Await Students

ALLIANCE, Ohio — When Mt. Union College's 1,250 students start classes late in September, they will have the use of $640,000 worth of improvements and new construction.

The new Men's Residence Hall, a $550,000 project, will be home for 124 men.

Mathematics majors and some art students will make use of East Hall, being changed from a residence hall to a classroom building at a cost of $9,000.

Students interested in astronomy will find the name—Clarke Observatory—the same but a new building at a cost of $16,000.

And all students — as well as area residents — will be visually aware of $65,000 in improvements, including a rubberized all - weather track at Hartshorn Stadium, home for both the college and Alliance High School football teams.

The Agony Of Dieting

Hal Pauses To Chew Fat

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Guess what three-letter word is causing the most trouble in our fair land?

Hah, I thought you'd say sex. Well, you're wrong, friend.

Sex is for the birds and the bees. Fat is for people.

A government report the other day made the complacent claim that very few Americans suffer from dire hunger. Pure gobbledygook. What about the 30-to-40 million blubber-laden U.S. citizens who are dieting?

That's about a fifth of the nation. They feel constantly on the verge of starving. Doesn't their hunger count? It is very real to them.

Personally, I've been on a diet for 48 days and managed to shrink from a wholesome 220 pounds down to 196. My final goal is 180, and it looks farther awaythan Valhalla or Shangrila.

THE ONLY word for the ordeal is agony. I'd probably have expired weeks ago except for the dog biscuits I was able to sneak and gnaw down when my wife wasn't looking. It has gotten so bad that when I go into the kitchen at the dog's mealtime, he puts his paw on his plate to protect his dinner.

I went on the diet after my doctor examined me and said, "well, you're in shipshape condition."

"Thank you, doc."

"But the ship you're shaped like is a battleship," he said. "Take it off, take it off, take it off."

Easier said than done.

America is the only country in the world where it is easier to lose your mind than it is to lose weight. It is the only country where middle age automatically seems to turn a man from a girl watcher into a weight watcher.

Everything conspires against the person on a diet. He may have lived like a hermit before, but as soon as he goes on a diet he is inundated with invitations to cocktail parties, backyard barbecues, picnics and gourmet dinners with nine courses.

All at once everyone he ever knew wants to take him to lunch or buy him five drinks. If he accepts, and sticks to his regimen of sauerkraut and club soda water, he assumes the role of the skeleton at the feast. If he ducks the invitations, he is dubbed an ungracious heel.

If he talks about his dieting victories to his friends, they decide he has turned into a braggart and dull bore. If he keeps his trap shut about his diet—and it is, of course, the overwhelming thing on his mind—they decide he's turned into a secret and sullen boor.

IT MIGHT be thought that dieters at least could find solace and comfort in conversing with each other about their problems. If the other guy has lost 15 ounces more than you have, you don't want to listen to him; if you've lost 14 ounces more than he has, he doesn't want to listen to you.

In any case, each of you feels sure the other is lying.

Worst of all are the hallucinations. Everything reminds you of a forbidden food. If looking at pretty girls is one of your innocent pleasures in life, it is rather unnerving when you see one to have her, right before your startled eyes, suddenly turn into a chicken dumpling, a mound of mashed potatoes, or a three-decker club sandwich.

Is it all really worth the reward? The reward comes after you finally win the battle against fat, accept the doctor's congratulations, and meet an old pal on the trip home.

"Man, have you been sick?" he asks. "You look like a shadow of your old self. Take a tip from me and put on some weight."

It would be nice to punch him in the nose—if you didn't feel so feeble.

That's the biggest blow to a dieting fatty—even if he loses he rarely wins.

U.S. Caught Flatfooted

Experts Even Thought Czech Invasion Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S government was caught flatfooted by the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia even though American intelligence experts considered such action possible.

The signs of the drastic move by the Soviet Union were there. They apparently weren't read closely enough to make invasion seem likely.

Soviet and other Warsaw Pact armies had been on the move within striking distance of the Czech border, but U.S. authorities regarded this as part of the war of nerves waged since the Prague government started political reforms.

Another sign which, in hindsight, was ominous was the renewal of Soviet and Polish press attacks on the Prague regime.

And senior U.S. officers said the invasion was understandable in light of Moscow's fear that a closer relationship between Czechoslovakia and the West, particularly West Germany, would weaken the protective shield the Soviet Union has built through its satellite allies.

Yet, in spite of these signs, there is no evidence U.S. experts received advance word of the movement by Soviet and satellite troops across the Czech frontier.

In fact, President Johnson learned of the action, not through American intelligence sources, but by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, about three hours after the invasion started.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk's first knowledge came when an Associated Press bulletin was read to the Democratic party Platform Committee while he was testifying on Vietnam policies.

And it was about four hours after the invasion that U.S. radio monitors picked up a Czech broadcast telling of the action.

According to reliable reports, the Soviet and satellite forces near the border were thought too small to indicate any intention to attack. This possibly diminished the concern, and thus the alertness, of U.S. Intelligence analysts.

The failure to pickup early news of the troop movements could be explained by the Soviets having maintained radio silence, by their acting under the cover of darkness and by their apparent extensive use of aircraft to bring in troops and armor.

Various Actions Are Considered By School Group

Various actions were taken when the Hancock County nonteaching school personnel held their first fall meeting at Weir High School Tueday.

Insurance plans from two companies were presented; after a report by President George Stewart, the group voted to support the WVEA program; a banquet in November was discussed; a resolution and approved endorsing the school levy renewal which will face voters Sept. 10, and committee meetings were held.

Job placements and the salary schedule for the coming school year will be discussed at a general meeting next week.

A reminder was given on the statewide meeting for non-teaching personnel at Charleston on Oct. 12.

TB Clinic Gives Monthly Report

LISBON — The Columbiana County Tuberculosis Clinic registered one new case of TB in July and admitted three patients to TB hospitals.

Eight county patients are in hospitals — five in veterans' hospitals and three in the Ohio TB Hospital at Columbus.

Four of the patients are from East Liverpool, one from Salem and three from the General Health District.

Eleven patients were started on drug therapy last month, bringing to 148 the number on medication at home. Sixty of these are in the General Health District, 41 in East Liverpool, 27 in Salem, 11 in Wellsville and 9 in East Palestine.

Dr. M. K. Singer, medical director, said the clinic gave 141 chest X-rays, 43 Heaf tuberculin tests and 421 Mantoux tuberculin tests. Nurses made 139 visits to patients and Dr Singer held five consultations.

Defy Court Order Rap Red Aggression

Czechs Backed By U.S., Others In Latest Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Czechoslovakia, overrun by the Soviet Union and four hardline followers, fought back on the diplomatic front today with support from the United States and other Western powers.

The Security Council, heeding American pleas of urgency, scheduled a second round of debate after arguing the Soviet military take-over in Czechoslovakia for nearly five hours Wednesday night with no break for dinner.

U.S. Chief Delegate George W. Ball said he strongly appealed for "immediate action of the council. . . we have the responsibility to act and act quickly."

So far, however, the six nations—the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Denmark and Paraguay—which persuaded the council to place the case on its agenda over strenuous Soviet objections, have not come up with a formal resolution.

Discussions were understood to be going on to draw one up which would get the broadest possible support while still expressing Western determination to have the council tell the Warsaw Pact forces to get out of Czechoslovakia immediately.

Any resolution faces an almost certain Soviet veto and this was foreshadowed by Soviet delegate Jacob Malik's bitter opposition to any U.N. discussion of the issue at all.

Malik was impassive and, for most of the session Wednesday, wore dark glasses.

His performance lacked fire and Britain's Lord Caradon commented that the Russian diplomat had the council's "compassion" because it realized his "disgust at having to defend such a disgraceful act. No wonder he carried so little conviction."

"Your compassion is in vain, Lord Caradon," Malik retorted. "I am proud that here in this council I defend a just cause."

Malik insisted that the Soviet Union and its allies had moved into Czechoslovakia at the invitation "of the government of that state. It is the government of that state which requested aid from its allies."

At no time did he identify the persons who sent the alleged invitation and Ball retorted "the Soviet armed forces were not invited into Czechoslovakia by anybody — they are uninvited guests."

In the session's most dramatic moment, Czechoslovak delegate Jan Muzik read the council three documents received by radio from Prague in which his country's top leaders and all government organs said they knew nothing in advance of the Soviet move, appealed for the foreign troops to get out and urged the people to keep calm.

He spoke in slow, measured tones and refrained so far as possible from open contention with Malik.

"I want to convince Ambassador Malik," he said, "that my government's only aim is to protect the rights of the workers of Czechoslovakia and the security of the socialist camp."

Ball, visibly moved, said "these statements of the authoritative leaders and organs of Czechoslovakia speak more eloquently than can any of us of the situation there and the need for this council to take action."

He said the statements made clear "the gross act of perfidy" represented by the invasion and demanded that it be "rightly and universally condemned."

Ball asserted that the Kremlin chiefs were frightened by moves towards liberalization in Czechoslovakia and that was the reason for the attack.

"The harassed and nervous leaders of the Soviet Union realize the brand of communism they insist on maintaining is a kind of fungus which will die when exposed to the sunlight of freedom," he said.

Hays Sets Exam For Academies

Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced today that he will hold a preliminary examination Oct. 5 for all young men from the 18th Congressional District interested in the service academies — Air Force Academy, Military Academy, Naval Academy and the Merchant Marine Academy.

Those interested should write Rep. Hays at Room 2264, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C., no later than Sept. 3.

The letter should include the applicant's name, complete address, date of birth and academy preference. Hays then will notify each applicant as to the time and place of the examination.

In Bid To Upset Humphrey

McCarthy Strategy Seen Parallel To Rockefeller's

CHICAGO (AP) — The city is different, the party is different, but the strategy is much the same as Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy strives to upset Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and capture the Democratic presidential nomination.

It is almost as though the McCarthy forces were working from campaign manuals drawn up for the Republican presidential bid of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

There are differences, but there are more parallels, in the Chicago campaign for McCarthy and in the Miami Beach convention strategy by Rockefeller three weeks ago.

The Rockefeller effort, of course, failed. Richard M. Nixon, who went to the GOP convention the leader, emerged as the Republican presidential nominee.

The McCarthy camp openly acknowledges the similarity between its campaign and that waged by Rockefeller.

The heart of the strategy amounts to a challenge of the convention system itself, an argument that the party professionals who wield power in a convention hall are not really responsive to what the people want.

The remedy chosen by both candidates: a public campaign designed to convince the delegates that if they really want victory in November, they should turn away from the front-runners.

"Os Aug. 7, 1968, a good man was sandbagged in Miami. Nelson Rockefeller lost the Republican nomination to Dick Nixon and Co.

"On Aug. 26th in Chicago, Hubert Humphrey intends to make Miami's power politics look like the Amateur Hour. He fully intends, at the Democratic convention, to obliterate Gene McCarthy."

McCarthy himself has said that he can overtake Humphrey only if the delegates become convinced he is the only candidate who can win in November.

His camp acknowledges that delegates generally would be more comfortable with Humphrey than with the man who cracked the facade of Democratic unity with his primary election challenges to President Johnson.

So the McCarthy emphasis in the convention buildup has been on an argument that if the politicians want Humphrey, the voters would rally to a McCarthy ticket.

Just as Rockefeller argued that Nixon could not win in November, McCarthy spokesmen say that Humphrey is not electable.

As the Republican governor stressed public opinion poolls to counter Nixon delegate strength, the McCarthy organization contends the polls prove their man's strength.

McCarthy's convention manager, Stephen A. Mitchell, contends that is what is happening to Humphrey's delegate lead. It echoes the Rockefeller claims at Miami Beach.

The chief difference between the two strategies is unfolding in preconvention hearings on issues and delegate seating. The McCarthy organization is supporting an array of delegate challenges unprecedented in party history.

In that, Humphrey's organization perceives the outline of what its men charge will be a propaganda effort to challenge the fairness of the way nominating delegates were chosen.

In addition, McCarthy and his men intend to wage a major platform battle before the convention and the television cameras, seeking to enhance their nominating strength during a contest over Vietnam war policy.

Many In Bogota Stay Up All Night To Greet Pope

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Many of Bogota's two million residents stayed up all night to greet Pope Paul VI coming here to honor Latin America and plead for its impoverished millions.

The pontiff's visit to attend the 39th Eucharistic Congress was marred by his concern over the Soviet bloc invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The Pope said as he took off from Rome that he left with "sharp bitterness and great anxiety" over events in the East European nation. He added that he would give up his Latin American journey if it would serve "to avoid the disastrous consequences which, alas, one can with reason foresee" in Czechoslovakia.

In going to Bogota Pope Paul hoped to evoke what he called an intense movement of charity through the Eucharist "that invites the well-off, the developed peoples and economic and political authorities to resolve the too grave situations of fixed privileges on one side and intense misery on the other."

In the last hours before his departure, the Pope was kept informed of developments in Czechoslovakia, which, he told a general audience Wednesday, "is a country we love and appreciate."

Seeming to tie together his hopes for both Czechoslovakia and Latin America, the Pope added that he hoped "conflicts of violence and blood" could be avoided and that "peace can be assured."

The Vatican daily L'Osservatore Romano said the Pope will pray for Czechoslovakia at the Eucharistic Congress.

Besides closing the congress, the Pope will open the second conference of Latin American bishops, meet with President Carlos Illeras Restrepo, talk with Colombian campesinos (peasants), and ordain a number of young Latin Americans to the priesthood.

The Pope's three-day schedule here was carefully arranged by Vatican prelates, Colombian church leaders and the country's governing officials to space out a variety of activity with many rest periods in the hope of avoiding overexertion, in the city's rarified atmosphere at 8,700 feet above sea level.

New Yorker Elected Head Of Teachers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The new president-elect of the American Federation of Teachers says a nationwide teachers strike may be necessary to focus attention on the seriousness of the school situation.

David Selden, 54, of New York, defeated Edward C. Bolstad, 34, of Minnesota and Mrs. Zelina Richard of Detroit to win the presidency Wednesday night.

"Teachers need a great deal more power than they have," Selden said Wednesday. "They do not have enough power to bring about a really significant improvement in the quality of education."

Selden said he intended to go in "hot pursuit" of a possible merger with the one - million-strong National Educaton Association so that teachers would have one, militant, autonomous teachers' organization.

After a stormy-one hour session Wednesday delegates to the convention voted in favor of a motion condemning Soviet intervention in Czechoslovakia.

Tempers flared and there were boos and shouts from the floor when retiring president Charles Cogen, who introduced the resolution, ruled it could not be broadened to include Vietnam.

All USW Local Officers Ousted; Strike Goes On

ERIE, Pa. (AP) All officers of United Steelworkers Union Local 1573 have been suspended, and its administration has been placed in the hands of a national representative of the USW after the local unanimously agreed to continue to strike.

George Clem, national representative of the USW, said the vote was a "wildcat vote" and urged the some 600 workers to return to their jobs at Erie Forge and Steel Co. Wednesday.

The workers walked off their jobs Aug. 12 in a dispute over grievance procedures.

Erie County Judge Lindley McClelland Friday ordered the men back to work, and Tuesday he banned mass picketing at the plant after the company complained that traffic was being snarled.

The company Wednesday ran a full page advertisement in the Erie Morning Times and Erie Evening News claiming the strike was illegal.

A new contract was signed by the union and company July 1. The company had threatened to leave town if the union didn't sign it. It said it needed a three-year-contract to get a $3 million loan.

Ex-Bar Head Given 1-20 Years In Prison

CLEVELAND (AP) — Elmer C. Myers, former president of the Cuyahoga County Bar Association, has been sentenced to one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary on his plea of guilty to embezzlement and forgery.

Myers, 56, was indicted by the county grand jury in 1966 on 11 counts stemming from his alleged mishandling of probate court estates under his trusteeship.

He pleaded guilty to four counts of the indictment last May. Common Pleas Judge Harry Jaffee sentenced Myers Wednesday.

The indictment charged that Myers defrauded clients of nearly $20,000 between 1963 and 1966.

ACLU Plans To Help Doomed Slayer, 16

CLEVELAND (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union says it will help Fred M. Esherick Jr., 16, sentenced to die in the electric chair for the bayonet slaying of his father.

Bernard A. Berkman, general counsel for the ACLU, said Wednesday "there was a conflict of interest between the boy's defense lawyer and a prosecuting witness."

The youth's court - appointed attorney is John S. Nelson, who is appealing the first - degree murder conviction by a Lake County Common Pleas Court jury last Dec. 6. Judge John F. Clair sentenced Esherick to the electric chair for the May, 1967, slaying.

In Bid To Upset Humphrey

McCarthy Strategy Seen Parallel To Rockefeller's

CHICAGO (AP) — The city is different, the party is different, but the strategy is much the same as Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy strives to upset Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and capture the Democratic presidential nomination.

It is almost as though the McCarthy forces were working from campaign manuals drawn up for the Republican presidential bid of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

There are differences, but there are more parallels, in the Chicago campaign for McCarthy and in the Miami Beach convention strategy by Rockefeller three weeks ago.

The Rockefeller effort, of course, failed. Richard M. Nixon, who went to the GOP convention the leader, emerged as the Republican presidential nominee.

The McCarthy camp openly acknowledges the similarity between its campaign and that waged by Rockefeller.

The heart of the strategy amounts to a challenge of the convention system itself, an argument that the party professionals who wield power in a convention hall are not really responsive to what the people want.

The remedy chosen by both candidates: a public campaign designed to convince the delegates that if they really want victory in November, they should turn away from the front-runners.

"Os Aug. 7, 1968, a good man was sandbagged in Miami. Nelson Rockefeller lost the Republican nomination to Dick Nixon and Co.

"On Aug. 26th in Chicago, Hubert Humphrey intends to make Miami's power politics look like the Amateur Hour. He fully intends, at the Democratic convention, to obliterate Gene McCarthy."

McCarthy himself has said that he can overtake Humphrey only if the delegates become convinced he is the only candidate who can win in November.

His camp acknowledges that delegates generally would be more comfortable with Humphrey than with the man who cracked the facade of Democratic unity with his primary election challenges to President Johnson.

So the McCarthy emphasis in the convention buildup has been on an argument that if the politicians want Humphrey, the voters would rally to a McCarthy ticket.

Just as Rockefeller argued that Nixon could not win in November, McCarthy spokesmen say that Humphrey is not electable.

As the Republican governor stressed public opinion poolls to counter Nixon delegate strength, the McCarthy organization contends the polls prove their man's strength.

McCarthy's convention manager, Stephen A. Mitchell, contends that is what is happening to Humphrey's delegate lead. It echoes the Rockefeller claims at Miami Beach.

The chief difference between the two strategies is unfolding in preconvention hearings on issues and delegate seating. The McCarthy organization is supporting an array of delegate challenges unprecedented in party history.

In that, Humphrey's organization perceives the outline of what its men charge will be a propaganda effort to challenge the fairness of the way nominating delegates were chosen.

In addition, McCarthy and his men intend to wage a major platform battle before the convention and the television cameras, seeking to enhance their nominating strength during a contest over Vietnam war policy.

Many In Bogota Stay Up All Night To Greet Pope

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Many of Bogota's two million residents stayed up all night to greet Pope Paul VI coming here to honor Latin America and plead for its impoverished millions.

The pontiff's visit to attend the 39th Eucharistic Congress was marred by his concern over the Soviet bloc invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The Pope said as he took off from Rome that he left with "sharp bitterness and great anxiety" over events in the East European nation. He added that he would give up his Latin American journey if it would serve "to avoid the disastrous consequences which, alas, one can with reason foresee" in Czechoslovakia.

In going to Bogota Pope Paul hoped to evoke what he called an intense movement of charity through the Eucharist "that invites the well-off, the developed peoples and economic and political authorities to resolve the too grave situations of fixed privileges on one side and intense misery on the other."

In the last hours before his departure, the Pope was kept informed of developments in Czechoslovakia, which, he told a general audience Wednesday, "is a country we love and appreciate."

Seeming to tie together his hopes for both Czechoslovakia and Latin America, the Pope added that he hoped "conflicts of violence and blood" could be avoided and that "peace can be assured."

The Vatican daily L'Osservatore Romano said the Pope will pray for Czechoslovakia at the Eucharistic Congress.

Besides closing the congress, the Pope will open the second conference of Latin American bishops, meet with President Carlos Illeras Restrepo, talk with Colombian campesinos (peasants), and ordain a number of young Latin Americans to the priesthood.

The Pope's three-day schedule here was carefully arranged by Vatican prelates, Colombian church leaders and the country's governing officials to space out a variety of activity with many rest periods in the hope of avoiding overexertion, in the city's rarified atmosphere at 8,700 feet above sea level.

The gigantic saguaro cactus of Arizona can grow as tall as a four-story building and attain a weight of 10 tons.

New Yorker Elected Head Of Teachers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The new president-elect of the American Federation of Teachers says a nationwide teachers strike may be necessary to focus attention on the seriousness of the school situation.

David Selden, 54, of New York, defeated Edward C. Bolstad, 34, of Minnesota and Mrs. Zelina Richard of Detroit to win the presidency Wednesday night.

"Teachers need a great deal more power than they have," Selden said Wednesday. "They do not have enough power to bring about a really significant improvement in the quality of education."

Selden suid he intended to go in "hot pursuit" of a possible merger with the one - million-strong National Educaton Association so that teachers would have one, militant, autonomous teachers' organization.

After a stormy-one hour session Wednesday delegates to the convention voted in favor of a motion condemning Soviet intervention in Czechoslovakia.

Tempers flared and there were boos and shouts from the floor when retiring president Charles Cogen, who introduced the resolution, ruled it could not be broadened to include Vietnam.

All USW Local Officers Ousted; Strike Goes On

ERIE, Pa. (AP) All officers of United Steelworkers Union Local 1573 have been suspended, and its administration has been placed in the hands of a national representative of the USW after the local unanimously agreed to continue to strike.

George Clem, national representative of the USW, said the vote was a "wildcat vote" and urged the some 600 workers to return to their jobs at Erie Forge and Steel Co. Wednesday.

The workers walked off their jobs Aug. 12 in a dispute over grievance procedures.

Erie County Judge Lindley McClelland Friday ordered the men back to work, and Tuesday he banned mass picketing at the plant after the company complained that traffic was being snarled.

The company Wednesday ran a full page advertisement in the Erie Morning Times and Erie Evening News claiming the strike was illegal.

A new contract was signed by the union and company July 1. The company had threatened to leave town if the union didn't sign it. It said it needed a three-year-contract to get a $3 million loan.

Water Skiing Opens

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The 26th National Water Ski Championships open today on Canton's Meyers Lake and more than 175 entrants are expected.

Ex-Bar Head Given 1-20 Years In Prison

CLEVELAND (AP) — Elmer C. Myers, former president of the Cuyahoga County Bar Association, has been sentenced to one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary on his plea of guilty to embezzlement and forgery.

Myers, 56, was indicted by the county grand jury in 1966 on 11 counts stemming from his alleged mishandling of probate court estates under his trusteeship.

He pleaded guilty to four counts of the indictment last May. Common Pleas Judge Harry Jaffee sentenced Myers Wednesday.

The indictment charged that Myers defrauded clients of nearly $20,000 between 1963 and 1966.

ANN LANDERS

Couple's Problem Aired

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I wish to comment on the letter from "Starvation Diet" — the man whose sex life was terrible. He blamed her and she blamed him.

For 10 years my husband and I had the same problem. It was neither frigidity on my part nor clumsiness on his part. It was simply that his attitude toward sex was primitive and mechanical and I felt I was being used to satisfy his animal passions. It took two years of counseling to set us straight.

Sex is the highest form of communicating love between woman and man. It should be an act of giving, for both parties. A woman must feel that she is an object of love and not just a convenient escape valve for releasing sexual impulses.

I urge Mr. Starvation Diet to take some quiet walks and examine his deepest motives. I'm willing to bet that if he changes his attitude and approaches his wife with unselfish love and takes the time to be gentle and considerate he will find himself graciously received — not rejected.

A good sexual relationship can make a marriage heaven. A poor one can make it hell. — ONE WHO HAS KNOWN BOTH.

Dear One: Amen.

Uninformed

Dear Ann: I recently went to a doctor who ordered me to take some laboratory tests. I was told I'd be notified of the results. One week passed and I heard nothing, so I called and asked about the tests. I was informed that they were "in the mail."

Five days elapsed and nothing arrived so I called again. I was told, "The post office must have lost them."

I'm now mad at the doctor because I think he lied to me. I want to change doctors and I've asked for my medical records. I was told, "It is not ethical for a doctor to give a patient medical records."

I discussed this with a friend who is well-versed in medical ethics. He said, "The doctor is right."

Do you think it's fair that I should have to take all those lab tests over just because the doctor doesn't want to give me my medical records? And why is it unethical for a doctor to give them to me? Please explain. — MAD AT CROAKERS.

Dear Mad: It is indeed unethical for a doctor to give a patient his medical records. The reason is obvious. For example, if the physician should recommend the "surgical excision of multiple lipomata" it might frighten the patient to death. Another physician would know that this procedure is no big deal.

Your doctor should, however, furnish you with a report of your lab tests. You have a right to know how the tests turned out. If they were lost in the mail the doctor has an obligation to replace them.

Confidentially

To Below Zero Ray or Shine: Seven months is a long time to use a cold as an excuse for no good night kiss. I suggest you look for a young woman who is in better health.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Infection Lurks In Bubble Baths

Although a bubble bath is not a necessity, its use in children's baths has become popular, perhaps on the theory that, if you can make of bathing a game, you won't have so hard a time luring your child into the tub. Now it has been shown that at least some of these preparations may cause irritation and infection of the urethra or bladder.

Dr. Brandstadt

THE SYMPTOMS most often complained of are frequency of urination and pain on passing the urine. Boys developed ulcers or narrowing of the outlet of the urethra. The trouble cleared up within a few days after stopping the bubble baths. This failed to convince a few mothers that the innocent-bubble bath was at fault until they found that the trouble returned when they resumed its use.

IF YOU ARE a mother, your first reaction to this startling bit of news may be: "Darn! Someone is always taking the joy out of life." But please try to look at it this way—I'm only trying to keep some of the grief out of life for your child.

Q—My grandson, 9, has nephritis. Is it contagious? How did he get it? Is there a cure for it?

A—Nephritis is an inflammation of the kidneys. It is usually a complication of an acute infection elsewhere in the body, most likely a streptococcic infection in the respiratory system. It is not directly contagious but the underlying respiratory disease is. About 97 per cent of all children who get acute nephritis make a complete recovery. During the acute stage they must be kept in bed and given a low-protein, salt-poor diet. But, after they start to improve, these measures are no longer required.

Q—My daughter, 11, has had nephrosis for 4½ years. Where can we get more information about this disease?

Q—Last August, my son, 7, was operated on for an inguinal hernia. One of the stitches has not healed. It flares up like a pimple which breaks and oozes. Our doctor says it will heal in time. What do you think?

A—This sounds as though a deep pocket of infection has formed at the site of the stitch. Such wounds must heal from within outward. This often requires laying the wound open and applying an antibiotic.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon identified Wednesday 27 men killed in recent action in Vietnam. The list included WO Alvis R. Faverty Jr., Alliance, Ohio.

OSU Professor Taken By Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prof. John A. Remseyer, 60, director of the School of Education at Ohio State University, died Tuesday in University Hospital. He had been admitted July 28.

A teacher and educational administrator for more than 30 years, Dr. Ramseyer was born in Hudson, Ill.

He graduated from Bluffton, College in 1928. He taught in Sulphur Springs, Genoa and Dover, Ohio, and at Bluffton before joining the OSU faculty in 1938.

In 1955 he had been instrumental in the formation of the National University Council for Educational Administration and served as a trustee of that group. He became director of the School of Education in 1965.

Ohioans Eliminated

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Gomer, Ohio, was eliminated from the National Baseball Congress Tournament Wednesday with a 12-0 loss to Jackson, Miss. Jackson scored nine runs in the top of the fifth inning and the game was called after the inning because of the tourney's 10-run lead rule.

Wins Pledges Of Support

Nixon Relaxes In Florida After Cross-Country Tour

Nixon flew to Miami Wednesday night after winning pledges of support from two leaders of the party's liberal segment—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and New York Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Rockefeller, who lost the GOP nomination to Nixon three weeks ago at Miami Beach, and Lindsay said in separate statements they would stump for the former vice president.

The four-day swing also brought pledges of full support from Govs. James A. Rhodes of Ohio, George Romney of Michigan and Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania. California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who also challenged Nixon for the nomination, said last week he would appear on national television for the ticket of Nixon and the vice presidential nominee, Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew.

Nixon in starting his campaign, said their support would be needed to win the vote of the nation's more populous states.

Arriving in Miami aboard a commercial flight from New York, Nixon was escorted by a security detachment to a waiting car and driven 10 miles to Key Biscayne and the hotel the Nixon family uses frequently for vacations. Key Biscayne is an island connected to Miami by a causeway.

An aide said Nixon planned to remain there until Saturday.

"Mr. Nixon is here only to rest," said the aide. He ruled out any public appearances or statements by Nixon barring major developments in Czechoslovakia or a change in the illness of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Before leaving New York, Nixon met separately with Rockefeller and Lindsay.

"I am supporting this ticket," Lindsay said after the meeting. Standing beside Nixon on the steps of the mayor's mansion, Lindsay said he would make perhaps four campaign trips to other cities.

Both men, in a joint statement, made it clear they were not sacrificing their personal views for the sake of the ticket.

Sen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, the first Negro to become a U.S. senator since

Gov. Agnew has been criticized by some for his stand on restoring law and order during the racial violence. In declaring his support, however, Brooke said: "Ted Agnew is not a racist. He's a progressive."

Man Given Pen Term And Fined On Riot Charge

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 24-year-old Cincinnati Negro was sentenced to one year imprisonment and fined $5,000 Wednesday after he was convicted of inciting last April's riot in the Avondale section.

It was the first time anyone has been convicted under the city's new riot ordinance.

Page had been tried before on the charge but a mistrial was declared.

On Aug. 2, Judge George Heitzler declared a mistrial in the case when the jury could not agree on a verdict. He then charged a juror with contempt of court for twice changing his vote after the verdict was delivered. The juror was sentenced to a 30-day workhouse term.

Page was accused of inflaming a Negro crowd by shouting that a policeman had shot and killed a Negro woman. Police said the woman was shot accidentally by another Negro.

2 Crewmen Injured When Trains Collide

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Two crew members were slightly injured Wednesday when two Erie Lackawanna freight trains collided head-on in the Levittsburg yards west of Warren. Six cars derailed.

Richard Schwab, 46, of Meadville, Pa., and William Williams, 38, of Cochranton, Pa., were treated at Trumbull Memorial Hospital. They were the engineer and fireman on a train being made up.

I'm now mad at the doctor because I think he lied to me. I want to change doctors and I've asked for my medical records. I was told, "It is not ethical for a doctor to give a patient medical records."

I discussed this with a friend who is well-versed in medical ethics. He said, "The doctor is right."

Do you think it's fair that I should have to take all those lab tests over just because the doctor doesn't want to give me my medical records? And why is it unethical for a doctor to give them to me? Please explain. — MAD AT CROAKERS.

Dear Mad: It is indeed unethical for a doctor to give a patient his medical records. The reason is obvious. For example, if the physician should recommend the "surgical excision of multiple lipomata" it might frighten the patient to death. Another physician would know that this procedure is no big deal.

Your doctor should, however, furnish you with a report of your lab tests. You have a right to know how the tests turned out. If they were lost in the mail the doctor has an obligation to replace them.

Infection Lurks In Bubble Baths

Although a bubble bath is not a necessity, its use in children's baths has become popular, perhaps on the theory that, if you can make of bathing a game, you won't have so hard a time luring your child into the tub. Now it has been shown that at least some of these preparations may cause irritation and infection of the urethra or bladder.

THE SYMPTOMS most often complained of are frequency of urination and pain on passing the urine. Boys developed ulcers or narrowing of the outlet of the urethra. The trouble cleared up within a few days after stopping the bubble baths. This failed to convince a few mothers that the innocent-bubble bath was at fault until they found that the trouble returned when they resumed its use.

IF YOU ARE a mother, your first reaction to this startling bit of news may be: "Darn! Someone is always taking the joy out of life." But please try to look at it this way—I'm only trying to keep some of the grief out of life for your child.

Q—My grandson, 9, has nephritis. Is it contagious? How did he get it? Is there a cure for it?

A—Nephritis is an inflammation of the kidneys. It is usually a complication of an acute infection elsewhere in the body, most likely a streptococcic infection in the respiratory system. It is not directly contagious but the underlying respiratory disease is. About 97 per cent of all children who get acute nephritis make a complete recovery. During the acute stage they must be kept in bed and given a low-protein, salt-poor diet. But, after they start to improve, these measures are no longer required.

Q—My daughter, 11, has had nephrosis for 4½ years. Where can we get more information about this disease?

Q—Last August, my son, 7, was operated on for an inguinal hernia. One of the stitches has not healed. It flares up like a pimple which breaks and oozes. Our doctor says it will heal in time. What do you think?

A—This sounds as though a deep pocket of infection has formed at the site of the stitch. Such wounds must heal from within outward. This often requires laying the wound open and applying an antibiotic.

OSU Professor Taken By Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prof. John A. Remseyer, 60, director of the School of Education at Ohio State University, died Tuesday in University Hospital. He had been admitted July 28.

A teacher and educational administrator for more than 30 years, Dr. Ramseyer was born in Hudson, Ill.

He graduated from Bluffton, College in 1928. He taught in Sulphur Springs, Genoa and Dover, Ohio, and at Bluffton before joining the OSU faculty in 1938.

In 1955 he had been instrumental in the formation of the National University Council for Educational Administration and served as a trustee of that group. He became director of the School of Education in 1965.

Ohioans Eliminated

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Gomer, Ohio, was eliminated from the National Baseball Congress Tournament Wednesday with a 12-0 loss to Jackson, Miss. Jackson scored nine runs in the top of the fifth inning and the game was called after the inning because of the tourney's 10-run lead rule.

Wins Pledges Of Support

Nixon Relaxes In Florida After Cross-Country Tour

Nixon flew to Miami Wednesday night after winning pledges of support from two leaders of the party's liberal segment—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and New York Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Rockefeller, who lost the GOP nomination to Nixon three weeks ago at Miami Beach, and Lindsay said in separate statements they would stump for the former vice president.

The four-day swing also brought pledges of full support from Govs. James A. Rhodes of Ohio, George Romney of Michigan and Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania. California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who also challenged Nixon for the nomination, said last week he would appear on national television for the ticket of Nixon and the vice presidential nominee, Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew.

Nixon in starting his campaign, said their support would be needed to win the vote of the nation's more populous states.

Arriving in Miami aboard a commercial flight from New York, Nixon was escorted by a security detachment to a waiting car and driven 10 miles to Key Biscayne and the hotel the Nixon family uses frequently for vacations. Key Biscayne is an island connected to Miami by a causeway.

An aide said Nixon planned to remain there until Saturday.

"Mr. Nixon is here only to rest," said the aide. He ruled out any public appearances or statements by Nixon barring major developments in Czechoslovakia or a change in the illness of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Before leaving New York, Nixon met separately with Rockefeller and Lindsay.

"I am supporting this ticket," Lindsay said after the meeting. Standing beside Nixon on the steps of the mayor's mansion, Lindsay said he would make perhaps four campaign trips to other cities.

Both men, in a joint statement, made it clear they were not sacrificing their personal views for the sake of the ticket.

Man Given Pen Term And Fined On Riot Charge

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 24-year-old Cincinnati Negro was sentenced to one year imprisonment and fined $5,000 Wednesday after he was convicted of inciting last April's riot in the Avondale section.

It was the first time anyone has been convicted under the city's new riot ordinance.

Page had been tried before on the charge but a mistrial was declared.

On Aug. 2, Judge George Heitzler declared a mistrial in the case when the jury could not agree on a verdict. He then charged a juror with contempt of court for twice changing his vote after the verdict was delivered. The juror was sentenced to a 30-day workhouse term.

Page was accused of inflaming a Negro crowd by shouting that a policeman had shot and killed a Negro woman. Police said the woman was shot accidentally by another Negro.

2 Crewmen Injured When Trains Collide

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Two crew members were slightly injured Wednesday when two Erie Lackawanna freight trains collided head-on in the Levittsburg yards west of Warren. Six cars derailed.

Richard Schwab, 46, of Meadville, Pa., and William Williams, 38, of Cochranton, Pa., were treated at Trumbull Memorial Hospital. They were the engineer and fireman on a train being made up.

Sports Whirled

Making the tour of area football training sites during the hottest week of the summer makes you glad you're only observing the drills and not participating in them.

Excess weight, in the form of sweat, pours off the players in gallons. Uniforms are dark with perspiration and the players are generally glad when a halt is called to practice so that pictures may be taken.

In weather like this, heat prostration is a strong possibility, and most coaches are avoiding workouts in the hottest part of the day, sticking to the morning, late afternoon and evening. Center Township in Beaver County already has reported one player hospitalized due to heat prostration.

EAST LIVERPOOL may have a "standing room only" crowd for its opening football game with Cleveland West Sept. 6 at Patterson Field, at least in the reserved seat section. The old seats have been ripped out and the stands painted, but the now-settled strike of the custodial employes delayed installation of new seats.

THE GOLF COURSE at Firestone Country Club in Akron is one of the toughest in the country, 7,180 yards for a Par 70 layout. But now Firestone is building a new course, which will probably be even more difficult. The North Course, as it will be known upon completion, scheduled for 1969, is not quite as long, 7,095 yards for Par 72, but will be considerably trickier, with a lake coming into play on 10 holes. The ninth, 10th and 18th holes will have water surrounding the fairways, and the eighth and 11th holes, par threes, will have nothing but water between the tee and green.

Hitters Have Day In National Play

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The whiff turned into the wham and the basepaths looked like freeways. In the National League Wednesday it was the day of the hitter in this year of the pitcher.

Instead of swinging and missing as so often has been the case this year, the batters seemed to be hitting every ball thrown their way.

The five winning teams banged out 93 hits and scored 64 runs in six games. Even the losing clubs managed 10 hits.

The Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants started the barrage in the afternoon. The Cubs whipped Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 and the Giants trounced the New York Mets 13-3.

Pittsburgh climaxed the assault at night with a 19-1 walloping of Cincinnati. In between, St. Louis topped Philadelphia 8-3 and Houston ripped Los Angeles 6-1.

Pittsburgh's 19 runs were high for the majors this season. So were the Pirates 23 hits.

Matty Alou and Gene Alley both collected four hits and Manny Mota, Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski three apiece for the Pirates.

Donn Clendenon accounted for five Pittsburgh runs with a three-run homer and a double. Alley drove in three and Alou, Jose Pagan, Mota, Mazeroski and Clemente two each. Clemente hit solo homers his first two at-bats.

Billy Williams drove in two runs with a pair of singles in the Cubs' first-game victory and then sent home seven more in the nightcap with a two-run homer, a single, sacrifice fly and a double.

However, Ernie Banks was the big blaster for the Cubs in the opener. The 37-year-old veteran hit a bases-empty homer, his 24th, in the first inning, and then with the Cubs trailing 4-2, climaxed a three-run seventh with a two-run blast.

In the second game, the Cubs, who had trailed 5-0, went ahead to stay, 7-5, on Williams' two-run single in the sixth.

Willie Mays highlighted a six-run San Francisco fifth inning with a two-run homer, his 16th of the season and 580th of his career, and Juan Marichal coasted to his 23rd victory of the season.

While the Giants were batting in the sixth, their dugout and that of the Mets and the tarpaulin were searched after New York police received two calls that a bomb had been planted. Nothing was found and play continued after a delay of about five minutes.

The crowd of 32,023 was not disturbed during the bomb search.

Phil Gagliano and Tim McCarver both singled in two runs in St. Louis' victory over Philadelphia. The Cardinals took a 4-3 lead in the fifth on run-scoring singles by Gagliano, Bob Tolan and Roger Maris.

Rusty Staub provided the big bat for Houston, whose 10 hits were the lowest total for any winning team. Staub singled home one of two runs in the third and then singled in a pair in the fifth.

MONTE IRVIN, former New York Giant, became the first Negro to be hired in an executive capacity by baseball yesterday. Irvin, (right) will be assistant director of promotions and public relations on the staff of commissioner William Eckert (left). (UPI Telephoto)

Downing Defeats Twins

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The little New York left-hander, plagued by chronic arm trouble since spring training, stymied Minnesota hitters for 8 1-3 innings Wednesday night and earned only his second victory of the season as the Yankees edged the Twins 2-1.

Today Downing will re-enter the Mayo Clinic, where his pitching arm passed doctors' tests two days ago, for the examination of another problem—his myterious inclination toward instant daytime slumber.

Downing has trouble sleeping at night but can doze off at the drop of a hat in mid-day. The Mayo specialists have diagnosed his condition as narcolepsy, a controllable ailment remotely akin to sleeping sickness. They suspect there may be some relation between his sleeping pattern and arm miseries.

"They are going to give me sleeping pills before I go to bed at night and pills to keep me awake during the day," said the 27-year-old fastballer, who won 14 games for the Yankees last year. "They'll keep me for a day to see how I react. I hope they find the answer."

While Downing bolstered Yankee hopes for a first division finish, Detroit's American League leaders moved a step closer to their first pennant since 1945 by nipping Chicago 3-2 on Jim Price's pinch hit homer in the 10th inning.

Second-place Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings and remained seven games off the pace and Cleveland trimmed Boston 8-2 for Horacio Pina's first major league victory in the only other games scheduled.

Downing, who spent one month on the disabled list and another in the minors trying to regain his pitching form, held the Twins hitless until the sixth and took a two-hit shutout into the ninth, when Bob Allison's 15th homer brought Lindy McDaniel out of the bullpen to nail down the victory.

Price, a reserve catcher, broke a 2-2 tie at Detroit with one-out shot off Wilbur Wood in the 10th. Mickey Stanley's eighth-inning homer had knotted it for the Tigers.

"I used to catch Wood at Columbus in 1965," said Price. "We were the best of friend. I've pinch hit and tied up the game four or five time this year, but this was the greatest."

Boog Powell broke up the Orioles-Angels marathon with a run-scoring single in the 15th after Mark Belanger walked, stole second and took third on catcher Ed Kirkpatrick's wild throw. Frank Robinson and Don Buford homered for Baltimore, staking Dave McNally to a 3-0 lead, but the Angel tied it in the fifth on a two-out walk, Rick Reichardt's triple and Bubba Morton's double.

The Indians supported Pina, a 21-year-old right-hander making his first start, with an eight-run uprising in the fifth that knocked out Boston's Jim Lonborg.

Pina gave up eight hits and struck out seven, but needed last-out relief help from Vicente Romo. Chico Salmon, Dave Nelson and Joe Azcue drove in two runs apiece in the fifth with a homer triple and single, respectively.

Improved Saints Talk Of Divisional Title

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A large number of New Orleans Saints players are boldly talking about a divisional championship in the National Football League this winter—sheer audacity, perhaps even lunacy, for a second-year expansion team.

"I'm glad they feel that way," says Tom Fears, head coach of the Saints, who astonished the gridiron goldmining ranks a year ago.

"I have to be more realistic than optimistic though," adds Fears.

The Saints were switched to the NFL's Century Division this year—joining St. Louis, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

"We're in this to win the division. That's our aim. We would like to very much. So we'll be preparing with that thought in mind," Fears says. "But I'm not saying we're going to win our division."

A year together and the acquisition of four key players spell improvement for New Orleans. The quarter: Dave Parks, a split end who ranks with the best in the NFL; tight end Monty Stickles, a savage blocker; and pass defenders Roff Fichtner and Elbert Kimbrough.

The Saints won three games last fall, equalling the mark for any first-year team. At the same time the Saints averaged 77,000-plus per home game, fourth best in NFL history.

Bill Kilmer will quarterback the Saints—holding the key to much of the team's 1968 successes, or failures.

"We're all aware of the second-year lull, one which Atlanta experienced last season," admits Kilmer. "But one of our shortcomings, a strong offensive line, can't help but improve. And our defense is good."

Randy Schultz and Don McCallera developing into proficient ballcarriers. Rookie fullback Tony Baker, a free agent, has promise of future greatness. So even if Jimmy Taylor doesn't come through the Saints expect to be able to gain more yardage on the ground.

Second-year-man Danny Abramowicz, 721 yards on 50 catches with six touchdowns a year ago, has been moved from split end to flanker. With Parks, Stickles and Abramowicz—backed up by 9.4 John Gilliam the Saints are in good shape for receivers.

The offensive interior line is still the weak spot, but appears somewhat better. Tackle Jerry Sturm is performing well and guard Del Williams, a second-year man, is coming fast.

AFL Veteran Powell Tries Out For Vikings

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thirty-one is a pretty young age to start a comeback. But Art Powell, hoping a game knee that cut short a brilliant American Football League career will hold up, was trying just that today with the Minnesota Vikings.

Powell, a wide receiver signed by the National Football League team Wednesday as a free agent, caught enough passes in eight seasons with the New York Jets, Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills to rank second among all-time AFL receivers.

But he was curtailed by a knee injury last season and the Bills finally turned him loose.

The 6-foot-2, 212-pounder snared 478 passes for 8,015 yards during his AFL career and his total of 81 touchdown receptions is a league record. He also ranks fourth among all time AFL scoring leaders with 486 points.

The Vikings also traded a draft choice to Baltimore Wednesday for another wide receiver, Rich O'Hara, the Colts' No. 3 draft pick.

In Florida, things were almost back to normal at the Miami Dolphins' camp, where a slight seige of the flu struck several players earlier in the week.

Coach George Wilson said the entire squad should be at full strength for an exhibition with Boston—one of four preseason games on tap Friday night.

Other activity that evening has San Francisco, NFL, at Denver, AFL; Baltimore, NFL, at Detroit, NFL, and Buffalo, AFL, vs. Houston, AFL, at Tulsa, Okla.

The Dolphins also announced they had traded John Roderick, who appeared in only one game last season after undergoing a back operation, to Oakland for an undisclosed draft choice. Two seasons ago, as a rookie, Roderick caught 11 passes for 154 yards in five games.

In other developments around the training camps, Pittsburgh signed holdout Frank Parker, a defensive tackle. Parker was obtained in a four-man trade with Cleveland but refused to report to the Steelers' camp because, he said, he wasn't offered enough money.

The Boston Patriots placed four players on waivers, including veteran split end Jerry Lamz, who spent three years with Kansas City before being signed by the Pats as a free agent, and rookie linebacker Burl Wood of West Texas State.

Defensive tackle Henry Jordan practiced for the first time since he was injured in the College All-Star Game as the Green Bay Packers worked out for the first time since Monday night's loss to Chicago—second straight exhibition loss for the world champs.

However, it was doubtful that Jordan would be ready in time for the Packers' game at Dallas Saturday night.

Meanwhile, the Bears' defensive tackle, John Johnson, who received the game ball after Chicago's stunner, will be lost for at least two months because of a small bone fracture.

Johnson apparently played part of the game with the Packers with the fracture but it wasn't discovered until two days later.

Murphy Darkhorse In Philadelphia Golf

The bitter, vocal dispute between the golf pros and the Professional Golfers' Association over who should run the rich tour temporarily was shunted into the background as a field of 156 started the four-day, 72-hole competition over the par 36-36—72 Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course.

While Sikes, Nicklaus, Boros, Casper, Trevino and company were the favorites, many eyes were turned on young Bob Murphy, the Brooklyn native who came within a stroke of tying last week's Westchester Classic.

He led the first three rounds only to lose when Boros dropped a 15-foot pressure putt on the final green.

A rookie on the tour, the 24-year-old Murphy indicated a liking for the 6-708-yard Whitemarsh course with a four-under par 68 in the pro-am tournament Wednesday.

The 1965 U.S. Amateur champion and 1966 NCAA king, Murphy had five birdies and only one bogey on a course which places a premium on keeping the ball in play.

Sikes, winner of two tournaments this year and with a bankroll already totalling $98,562, is shooting for his second straight $100,000-plus tour. His last-round charge at Whitemarsh to overtake George Archer a year ago made him a member of hundred-grand club in 1967. He won with rounds of 71-68-69-68—276.

All the 1968 tour champions with the exception of Arnold Palmer are in the starting field, which will be cut to the top 60 and ties after 36 holes.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

The next quiz will not appear until Sept. 5, so Sept. 4 is the deadline for answers to today's quiz.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was again the winner this week, but only by one question. Vodrey had seven right, missing William Howard Taft as the first golfing president, Don Bies (64 in this year's American Golf Classic) as the Firestone Course record holder and George Archer and Bob Lunn as the 268 scores on the tour this season.

Vodrey knew that the 16th hole at Firestone is known as "The Monster" and that Arnold Palmer came to grief there in this year's American Golf Classic. He knew Lunn and George Knudson had previously won back-to-back tournaments this year, knew the Milwaukee Open was the richest tournament prior to Westchester, knew Jerry Barber got a hole-in-one at the American Golf Classic this year, knew Bob Goalby, Lee Trevino, Gary Player and Julius Boros will be in the World Series of Golf this year and knew that FrancisOuimet was the American who defeated noted British players Harry Vardon and Ted Ray to give golf a great boost in this country.

This week's questions:

1. What team won the National League pennant by the biggest margin?
2. What National League team posted the best winning percentage?
3. What golf wood and what golf iron have exactly the same amount of loft?
4. What are the two NFL teams against which the Cleveland Browns do not have a winning record?
5. The Browns won the All-America Conference title all four years the league was in existence. Who did they beat in the playoff game each year?
6. The Browns ave finished in the second division of their NFL conference only one year since they joined the league. What year was it?
7. What was the last year in which the Steelers had a winning record?
8. What was the biggest score run up by one NFL team in regular season in 1967?
9. What college did Brown coach Blanton Collier attend?
10. What Brown coach is a native of Louisville, Ohio?

Scandanavians Boycott

Czech Invasion May Upset Olympic Games

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The invasion of Czechoslovakia by the Soviet Union and four of its allies caused new worries today for an already-upset committee organizing the Mexico Olympic Games.

The games, scheduled for Mexico City Oct. 12-27, have already had their share of international political problems. Now there is a threat some countries will be so upset by the Soviet action that they will refuse to compete against the Russians during the games.

Sweden, Norway and Denmark announced Wednesday in Stockholm they were canceling their participation in various European events scheduled for this month or September in which their athletes were to compete with athletes from the Soviet Union or East Germany.

If they carried this boycott to its ultimate they could refuse to compete against the Soviet Union or Germany during the Games.

The Mexican Organizing Committee had nothing to say about whether the Soviet Union could be barred from the Games because of its invasion of Czechoslovakia. Under the rules of the International Olympic Committee, Mexico has invited every country which is a member of the IOC. The Soviet Union is a member.

In Chicago, Avery Brundage, president of the IOC, commented: "I don't know of any regulation that would bar Russia from the Olympics because of the invasion. I anticipate no developments along that line. At least, I hope there are none."

In Bid To Upset Humphrey

McCarthy Strategy Seen Parallel To Rockefeller's

CHICAGO (AP) — The city is different, the party is different, but the strategy is much the same as Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy strives to upset Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and capture the Democratic presidential nomination.

It is almost as though the McCarthy forces were working from campaign manuals drawn up for the Republican presidential bid of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

There are differences, but there are more parallels, in the Chicago campaign for McCarthy and in the Miami Beach convention strategy by Rockefeller three weeks ago.

The Rockefeller effort, of course, failed. Richard M. Nixon, who went to the GOP convention the leader, emerged as the Republican presidential nominee.

The McCarthy camp openly acknowledges the similarity between its campaign and that waged by Rockefeller.

The heart of the strategy amounts to a challenge of the convention system itself, an argument that the party professionals who wield power in a convention hall are not really responsive to what the people want.

The remedy chosen by both candidates: a public campaign designed to convince the delegates that if they really want victory in November, they should turn away from the front-runners.

"Os Aug. 7, 1968, a good man was sandbagged in Miami. Nelson Rockefeller lost the Republican nomination to Dick Nixon and Co.

"On Aug. 26th in Chicago, Hubert Humphrey intends to make Miami's power politics look like the Amateur Hour. He fully intends, at the Democratic convention, to obliterate Gene McCarthy."

McCarthy himself has said that he can overtake Humphrey only if the delegates become convinced he is the only candidate who can win in November.

His camp acknowledges that delegates generally would be more comfortable with Humphrey than with the man who cracked the facade of Democratic unity with his primary election challenges to President Johnson.

So the McCarthy emphasis in the convention buildup has been on an argument that if the politicians want Humphrey, the voters would rally to a McCarthy ticket.

Just as Rockefeller argued that Nixon could not win in November, McCarthy spokesmen say that Humphrey is not electable.

As the Republican governor stressed public opinion poollls to counter Nixon delegate strength, the McCarthy organization contends the polls prove their man's strength.

McCarthy's convention manager, Stephen A. Mitchell, contends that is what is happening to Humphrey's delegate lead. It echoes the Rockefeller claims at Miami Beach.

The chief difference between the two strategies is unfolding in preconvention hearings on issues and delegate seating. The McCarthy organization is supporting an array of delegate challenges unprecedented in party history.

In that, Humphrey's organization perceives the outline of what its men charge will be a propaganda effort to challenge the fairness of the way nominating delegates were chosen.

In addition, McCarthy and his men intend to wage a major platform battle before the convention and the television cameras, seeking to enhance their nominating strength during a contest over Vietnam war policy.

Many In Bogota Stay Up All Night To Greet Pope

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Many of Bogota's two million residents stayed up all night to greet Pope Paul VI coming here to honor Latin America and plead for its impoverished millions.

The pontiff's visit to attend the 39th Eucharistic Congress was marred by his concern over the Soviet bloc invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The Pope said as he took off from Rome that he left with "sharp bitterness and great anxiety" over events in the East European nation. He added that he would give up his Latin American journey if it would serve "to avoid the disastrous consequences which, alas, one can with reason foresee" in Czechoslovakia.

In going to Bogota Pope Paul hoped to evoke what he called an intense movement of charity through the Eucharist "that invites the well-off, the developed peoples and economic and political authorities to resolve the too grave situations of fixed privileges on one side and intense misery on the other."

In the last hours before his departure, the Pope was kept informed of developments in Czechoslovakia, which, he told a general audience Wednesday, "is a country we love and appreciate."

Seeming to tie together his hopes for both Czechoslovakia and Latin America, the Pope added that he hoped "conflicts of violence and blood" could be avoided and that "peace can be assured."

The Vatican daily L'Osservatore Romano said the Pope will pray for Czechoslovakia at the Eucharistic Congress.

Besides closing the congress, the Pope will open the second conference of Latin American bishops, meet with President Carlos Illeras Restrepo, talk with Colombian campesinos (peasants), and ordain a number of young Latin Americans to the priesthood.

The Pope's three-day schedule here was carefully arranged by Vatican prelates, Colombian church leaders and the country's governing officials to space out a variety of activity with many rest periods in the hope of avoiding overexertion, in the city's rarified atmosphere at 8,700 feet above sea level.

The gigantic saguaro cactus of Arizona can grow as tall as a four-story building and attain a weight of 10 tons.

New Yorker Elected Head Of Teachers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The new president-elect of the American Federation of Teachers says a nationwide teachers strike may be necessary to focus attention on the seriousness of the schopl situation.

David Selden, 54, of New York, defeated Edward C. Bolstad, 34, of Minnesota and Mrs. Zelina Richard of Detroit to win the presidency Wednesday night.

"Teachers need a great deal more power than they have," Selden said Wednesday. "They do not have enough power to bring about a really significant improvement in the quality of education."

Selden suid he intended to go in "hot pursuit" of a possible merger with the one - million-strong National Educaton Association so that teachers would have one, militant, autonomous teachers' organization.

After a stormy-one hour session Wednesday delegates to the convention voted in favor of a motion condemning Soviet intervention in Czechoslovakia.

Tempers flared and there were boos and shouts from the floor when retiring president Charles Cogen, who introduced the resolution, ruled it could not be broadened to include Vietnam.

All USW Local Officers Ousted; Strike Goes On

ERIE, Pa. (AP) All officers of United Steelworkers Union Local 1573 have been suspended, and its administration has been placed in the hands of a national representative of the USW after the local unanimously agreed to continue to strike.

George Clem, national representative of the USW, said the vote was a "wildcat vote" and urged the some 600 workers to return to their jobs at Erie Forge and Steel Co. Wednesday.

The workers walked off their jobs Aug. 12 in a dispute over grievance procedures.

Erie County Judge Lindley McClelland Friday ordered the men back to work, and Tuesday he banned mass picketing at the plant after the company complained that traffic was being snarled.

The company Wednesday ran a full page advertisement in the Erie Morning Times and Erie Evening News claiming the strike was illegal.

A new contract was signed by the union and company July 1. The company had threatened to leave town if the union didn't sign it. It said it needed a three-year-contract to get a $3 million loan.

Water Skiing Opens

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The 26th National Water Ski Championships open today on Canton's Meyers Lake and more than 175 entrants are expected.

Ex-Bar Head Given 1-20 Years In Prison

CLEVELAND (AP) — Elmer C. Myers, former president of the Cuyahoga County Bar Association, has been sentenced to one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary on his plea of guilty to embezzlement and forgery.

Myers, 56, was indicted by the county grand jury in 1966 on 11 counts stemming from his alleged mishandling of probate court estates under his trusteeship.

He pleaded guilty to four counts of the indictment last May. Common Pleas Judge Harry Jaffee sentenced Myers Wednesday.

The indictment charged that Myers defrauded clients of nearly $20,000 between 1963 and 1966.

ACLU Plans To Help Doomed Slayer, 16

CLEVELAND (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union says it will help Fred M. Esherick Jr., 16, sentenced to die in the electric chair for the bayonet slaying of his father.

Bernard A. Berkman, general counsel for the ACLU, said Wednesday "there was a conflict of interest between the boy's defense lawyer and a prosecuting witness."

The youth's court - appointed attorney is John S. Nelson, who is appealing the first - degree murder conviction by a Lake County Common Pleas Court jury last Dec. 6. Judge John F. Clair sentenced Esherick to the electric chair for the May, 1967, slaying.

Coach Dye Sees Improvement Despite Starter Loss

Nine Lettermen Return To Club

Ten starters are gone from the 1967 Midland High football team, but new coach Ivan Dye has hopes of bettering last year's 3-5-2 mark.

"If the boys take the right attitude we could have a better record," the Salineville resident says. "They have the ability." Dye, a former Midland assistant, admits that the Leopards lack experience and will be too thin to platoon. There are nine returning lettermen.

Dye will be assisted by Rey Peduzzi, who has just been named faculty manager (athletic director), and newcomer Dave Needs, Gary Kaukonen replaces Paul Barbuto as junior high coach and will be assisted by Wally Beattie.

The Leopards will be bolstered by a fine crop of sophomores, though none is expected to start right away.

The quarterback spot will be handled by Jackie Campbell, 125, a senior letterman. He will be backed by David Matteo, a 140-pound junior. Greg Braund, a 180-pound junior letterman who shared the quarterback spot with Campbell last season, will be at halfback, along with "Bub" Bynum, 175, a senior letterman. Senior Ken Williams, 155, who was injured last season, junior Fred Smith, 145, and sophomore Gene Irvine, 180, are also halfback candidates. Howard Leak, 180, a senior letterman, is set at fullback, with senior Larry Bradley, 150, and junior John Masley, 160, in reserve.

Roy Walker, one of the fastest sprinters in the state, has lettered twice at end, but Dye has hopes of working him into the backfield. Other ends are seniors Dan Prodonovich, 160 and Frank Johnson, 170 and juniors Tim Cilli, 155, and Greg Phillips.

There are no lettermen at center, with senior Dan Bellay, 160, and juniors Roger Singleton, 175 and Dan Howard, 160, fighting for the job.

Midland will use a split T offense and a 5-4 defense. The Leopards are officially Class B, but still play a Class A schedule, with six Class A foes. Dye picks Beaver, New Brighton and Rochester as though in the A ranks and Trafford, Monaca and traditional rival Western Beaver as tough in Class B.

The schedule:

Sept.	6—W. Beaver
Sept.	13—Center
Sept.	20—Beaver
Sept.	28—at Monaca
Oct.	5—at Trafford, 1:30
Oct.	11—Burgettstown
Oct.	18—at Rochester
Oct.	25—at New Brighton
Nov.	1—Freedom

14 Lettermen Back

United Hopes To Solve Lack Of Depth Problem

United Local posted a 2-8 record in football last season, but coach Ralph Pardee, in his third year, hopes to improve that quite a bit.

He has 14 lettermen returning, 10 of them starters on offense or defense. There are only 34 boys on the squad, including five freshmen, so depth is a problem.

Pardee will be assisted by Les Blanchard and Glen Willis, the latter up from junior high. Joe Herman replaces Willis.

Tony Sonagere, who sat out the first part of last season with a broken arm, is a senior letterman quarterback weighing 160. Mike Balint, 150, was a starting defensive halfback last season and is expected to start in the offensive backfield this year. Gary Frankovich, 155, and Gary Howard, 140, also started in the defensive backfield last season. All are senior lettermen.

John Haller, 170, was expected to be the starting fullback, but suffered a broken arm in an auto accident and will be out for a month. Mike North, 170, a two-year letterman, has been switched from tackle to fullback. He is a linebacker on defense, as is Steve Mix, 170, a junior, and senior Gary Orsburn, 155, who also plays offensive guard. All are lettermen.

Jim Erb, 180, a junior, and Bill Young, 160, a senior, are lettermen ends. Senior Mark Milliken, 180, and junior Dennis Sanor, 170, are lettermen tackles. Jewell Hall, a 184-pound senior, and Phil Hippley, a 190-pound junior, were regulars last year at guard and center respectively. Erb, Milliken, Mix and Orsburn also started.

Pardee expects to go with a split T offense and a 5-3 defense. He picks Minerva as the team to beat in the Tri-County League, with Leetonia, Lisbon, East Palestine and Poland in contention. United is a member of the league, but does not play all the other teams, so its games do not count in the league standings.

The schedule:

Sept.	6—at Leetonia
Sept.	14—Sebring
Sept.	20—at East Canton
Sept.	28—at Springfield Local
Oct.	5—Beaver Local
Oct.	12—Poland
Oct.	19—Crestview
Oct.	25—at Columbiana
Nov.	1—at Southern Local
Nov.	9—Lisbon

Johnny Dunn Wins 4 Of 6 At Waterford

Johnny Dunn, Waterford Park leading percentage rider, rode four winners in six attempts last night, and his other two mounts finished second.

Dunn probably could have ridden five winners had not Korri Ann stumbled at the start of the night's first race. As it was, Dunn managed to pick the filly up and get her to the wire just a half length behind the victorious Second Threshold.

From there on, Dunn proved unbeatable.

In the third, he connected with Fairiam's Pride at $14.00.

He came right back in the fourth to win with the heavily favored Ranger, who was worth $4.60.

After sitting ou the fifth race, Dunn rode back to back winners in the sixth and seventh events. Liar's Dice, his mount in the sixth, charged from last place in the upper stretch to win going away at $7.60. In the sixth, aboard his final mount, Jovial Nymph, the win payoff for the new players who thought Dunn would win another was $32.00.

Two Forfeits In Softball Tournament

LISBON — Two teams advanced in the county Softball League playoffs Wednesday evening at Pine Tree Inn Field, and two others were eliminated, all without a single pitch or time at bat.

Wellsville Appliance took a 7-0 forfeit from Lisbon Merchants and Quaker Security Service, which itself has forfeited a game, took a 7-0 forfeit from Albco Foundry. The forfeit eliminated the Foundrymen and the Merchants since they were beaten in their first games of the round robin tourney.

Toot Trucking and East Liverpool, both unbeaten in the playoffs, meet at 5:45 p.m. today at Pine Tree. Wellsville Security Service at 7:15.

Mets Option Bosch

Covina Beats Houston In Pony Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Greg Rogers batted two homers that accounted for three of the four runs that led Covina, Calif. to a 4-2 victory over Houston, Tex.

The teams met Wednesday in the first game of a doubleheader in the International Pony League World Series.

In the second game Greensboro's Ron Evans supplied a two-run homer, scored five runs and held off St. Clair, Mich., in the eighth inning for a 6-4 victory.

W. Staley's Softball Champions

Wilbur Staley's team won the Chester Softball League by beating Cashdollar's 8-2 last night in a game to decide first place.

Richard Sims was the winner and John Spout the loser. Mayor Harold Ash presented team and individual trophies to Staley's. In the other game last night Steve Staley's beat Shenton's 5-4 in seven innings. Russ Covert was the winner and Gary Taylor the loser.

The league will have a tournament, starting tomorrow night.

Nancy Hill Low In EPCC Golf

Nancy Hill had low net in the first flight of the East Palestine Ladies Golf League Tuesday wih a 35.

Mae Shaffer led the second flight with a 38, Marge Reesch topped the third flight with a 36 and June Mansfield and Kay Westover led the fourth flight with a 45.

Mrs. Hill had the fewest putts in the first flight, 14, Jo-nell Brown had 15 in the second flight and Vida Hulton 15 in the third flight. Mrs. Mansfield was low in the fourth flight with 21.

Ethel Brockman and Mrs. Brown had chip-ins.

The first West Virginia Derby was run at Wheeling Downs in 1958, and was split into two divisions. Sea Hymn won the first division, while Redbird Wish won the second.

U.S. Olympic Diving Team Selected

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Hawaii teen-ager Rachel "Keala" O'Sullivan, Air Force Lt. Micki King and ailing Sue Gossick make up the U.S. Olympic team that will compete in the 3-meter springboard diving event at Mexico City.

Keala, a 17-year-old from Honolulu, slipped quietly into the water 10 times Wednesday and scored 447.90 points for first spot on the team. It was an impressive, come-from-behind performance for the lithe youngster.

Miss King, of Pontiac, Mich., eighth after the preliminaries, also scored heavily in the evening competition to tally 405.06 points for second place.

Sign Linebacker

HOW MANY VEHICLES? Canada has 6,762,000. Mexico has 1,393,000, Puerto Rico 364,688 and Cuba 131,500. British Honduras has only 3,100. In the U.S. there are 94,176,799. How about a lift?

WE HAD TO FIRE A LUBE MAN WE HAD. When an older car came in he'd put it on the lube rack, shake his head sadly and advise the owner to keep the oil and change the car!

BE SURE TO GET YOUR CAR WELL OFF THE traveled roadway if you have a flat. Don't worry about hurting the flat tire! Better a ruined tire than six months in the hospital for you!

LOOKING FOR A CLEAN, GOOD-RUNNING 1965 Chevy, or a 1964 Dodge? We probably have them in our used car area. We specialize in fine quality used cars. Stop by M & A DODGE'S MOTOR CITY, 6th and Walnut Streets and take a look at one of the biggest inventories of used cars in town. Inspect our cars from your car. STOP! When you see what you like. Let one of the good guys give you a M & A Dodge "Money-Saving Deal."

SAFETY IS ABOUT 90 PERCENT COURTESY and patience. Just plain selfishness is the leading cause of accidents. If people were as polite when they drive as when they walk through a crowded room, we'd have fewer crashes.

ANN LANDERS

Couple's Problem Aired

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I wish to comment on the letter from "Starvation Diet" — the man whose sex life was terrible. He blamed her and she blamed him.

For 10 years my husband and I had the same problem. It was neither frigidity on my part nor clumsiness on his part. It was simply that his attitude toward sex was primitive and mechanical and I felt I was being used to satisfy his animal passions. It took two years of counseling to set us straight.

Sex is the highest form of communicating love between woman and man. It should be an act of giving, for both parties. A woman must feel that she is an object of love and not just a convenient escape valve for releasing sexual impulses.

I urge Mr. Starvation Diet to take some quiet walks and examine his deepest motives. I'm willing to bet that if he changes his attitude and approaches his wife with unselfish love and takes the time to be gentle and considerate he will find himself graciously received — not rejected.

A good sexual relationship can make a marriage heaven. A poor one can make it hell. — ONE WHO HAS KNOWN BOTH.

Dear One: Amen.

Uninformed

Dear Ann: I recently went to a doctor who ordered me to take some laboratory tests. I was told I'd be notified of the results. One week passed and I heard nothing, so I called and asked about those tests. I was informed that they were "in the mail."

Five days elapsed and nothing arrived so I called again. I was told, "The post office must have lost them."

I'm now mad at the doctor because I think he lied to me. I want to change doctors and I've asked for my medical records. I was told, "It is not ethical for a doctor to give a patient medical records."

I discussed this with a friend who is well-versed in medical ethics. He said, "The doctor is right."

Do you think it's fair that I should have to take all those lab tests over just because the doctor doesn't want to give me my medical records? And why is it unethical for a doctor to give them to me? Please explain. — MAD AT CROAKERS.

Dear Mad: It is indeed unethical for a doctor to give a patient his medical records. The reason is obvious. For example, if the physician should recommend the "surgical excision of multiple lipomata" it might frighten the patient to death. Another physician would know that this procedure is no big deal.

Your doctor should, however, furnish you with a report of your lab tests. You have a right to know how the tests turned out. If they were lost in the mail the doctor has an obligation to replace them.

Confidentially

To Below Zero Ray or Shine: Seven months is a long time to use a cold as an excuse for no good night kiss. I suggest you look for a young woman who is in better health.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Infection Lurks In Bubble Baths

Although a bubble bath is not a necessity, its use in children's baths has become popular, perhaps on the theory that, if you can make of bathing a game, you won't have so hard a time luring your child into the tub. Now it has been shown that at least some of these preparations may cause irritation and infection of the urethra or bladder.

THE SYMPTOMS most often complained of are frequency of urination and pain on passing the urine. Boys developed ulcers or narrowing of the outlet of the urethra. The trouble cleared up within a few days after stopping the bubble baths. This failed to convince a few mothers that the innocent bubble bath was at fault until they found that the trouble returned when they resumed its use.

IF YOU ARE a mother, your first reaction to this startling bit of news may be: "Darn! Someone is always taking the joy out of life." But please try to look at it this way—I'm only trying to keep some of the grief out of life for your child.

Q—My grandson, 9, has nephritis. Is it contagious? How did he get it? Is there a cure for it?

A—Nephritis is an inflammation of the kidneys. It is usually a complication of an acute infection elsewhere in the body, most likely a streptococcic infection in the respiratory system. It is not directly contagious but the underlying respiratory disease is. About 97 per cent of all children who get acute nephritis make a complete recovery. During the acute stage they must be kept in bed and given a low-protein, salt-poor diet. But, after they start to improve, these measures are no longer required.

Q—My daughter, 11, has had nephrosis for 4½ years. Where can we get more information about this disease?

Q—Last August, my son, 7, was operated on for an inguinal hernia. One of the stitches has not healed. It flares up like a pimple which breaks and oozes. Our doctor says it will heal in time. What do you think?

A—This sounds as though a deep pocket of infection has formed at the site of the stitch. Such wounds must heal from within outward. This often requires laying the wound open and applying an antibiotic.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

OSU Professor Taken By Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prof. John A. Remseyer, 60, director of the School of Education at Ohio State University, died Tuesday in University Hospital. He had been admitted July 28.

A teacher and educational administrator for more than 30 years, Dr. Ramseyer was born in Hudson, Ill.

He graduated from Bluffton, College in 1928. He taught in Sulphur Springs, Genoa and Dover, Ohio, and at Bluffton before joining the OSU faculty in 1938.

In 1955 he had been instrumental in the formation of the National University Council for Educational Administration and served as a trustee of that group. He became director of the School of Education in 1965.

Ohioans Eliminated

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Gomer, Ohio, was eliminated from the National Baseball Congress Tournament Wednesday with a 12-0 loss to Jackson, Miss. Jackson scored nine runs in the top of the fifth inning and the game was called after the inning because of the tourney's 10-run lead rule.

Wins Pledges Of Support

Nixon Relaxes In Florida After Cross-Country Tour

Nixon flew to Miami Wednesday night after winning pledges of support from two leaders of the party's liberal segment—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and New York Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Rockefeller, who lost the GOP nomination to Nixon three weeks ago at Miami Beach, and Lindsay said in separate statements they would stump for the former vice president.

The four-day swing also brought pledges of full support from Govs. James A. Rhodes of Ohio, George Romney of Michigan and Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania. California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who also challenged Nixon for the nomination, said last week he would appear on national television for the ticket of Nixon and the vice presidential nominee, Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew.

Nixon in starting his campaign, said their support would be needed to win the vote of the nation's more populous states.

Arriving in Miami aboard a commercial flight from New York, Nixon was escorted by a security detachment to a waiting car and driven 10 miles to Key Biscayne and the hotel the Nixon family uses frequently for vacations. Key Biscayne is an island connected to Miami by a causeway.

An aide said Nixon planned to remain there until Saturday.

"Mr. Nixon is here only to rest," said the aide. He ruled out any public appearances or statements by Nixon barring major developments in Czechoslovakia or a change in the illness of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Before leaving New York, Nixon met separately with Rockefeller and Lindsay.

"I am supporting this ticket," Lindsay said after the meeting. Standing beside Nixon on the steps of the mayor's mansion, Lindsay said he would make perhaps four campaign trips to other cities.

Both men, in a joint statement, made it clear they were not sacrificing their personal views for the sake of the ticket.

Man Given Pen Term And Fined On Riot Charge

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 24-year-old Cincinnati Negro was sentenced to one year imprisonment and fined $5,000 Wednesday after he was convicted of inciting last April's riot in the Avondale section.

It was the first time anyone has been convicted under the city's new riot ordinance.

Page had been tried before on the charge but a mistrial was declared.

On Aug. 2, Judge George Heitzler declared a mistrial in the case when the jury could not agree on a verdict. He then charged a juror with contempt of court for twice changing his vote after the verdict was delivered. The juror was sentenced to a 30-day workhouse term.

Page was accused of inflaming a Negro crowd by shouting that a policeman had shot and killed a Negro woman. Police said the woman was shot accidentally by another Negro.

2 Crewmen Injured When Trains Collide

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Two crew members were slightly injured Wednesday when two Erie Lackawanna freight trains collided head-on in the Levittsburg yards west of Warren. Six cars derailed.

Richard Schwab, 46, of Meadville, Pa., and William Williams, 38, of Cochranton, Pa., were treated at Trumbull Memorial Hospital. They were the engineer and fireman on a train being made up.

CAA Board Names Three As Trustees

LISBON—Three trustees were elected when the board of the Community Action Agency of Columbiana County, Inc., met Tuesday night in the Welfare Department building.

They are Donald Rudibaugh of Lisbon, three-year term; Joseph Kornbau of Salem, two years, and William Brown, Lisbon attorney, one year.

Their appointments bring board membership to 20. Another appointment is expected at the next meeting Sept. 12, one week earlier than usual.

Executive officers will be elected at the next meeting. A slate of candidates is to be presented by the nominating committee — Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton RD 1, Donald Hepp of Columbiana and Mrs. Helen Welch of Wellsville.

Mrs. Leo Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, presided Tuesday night as the only remaining executive officer.

The board accepted the resignation of the Rev. William V. Ring of Leetonia Rd., president since last October. Pastor of St. Jacob's Church for six years, he will assume his duties Sept. 1 as pastor of the First Emmanuel United Church of Christ in Alliance. Orin Smith of East Liverpool, vice president, and Karl Stoudt of New Garden, treasurer, had resigned earlier.

Mark Eyerman, VISTA representative doing long - range planning with the county CAA, read and explained the revised bylaws. The board accepted them without change.

V. C. Judge, county treasurer, vs. Mildred P. Fife, et al; court finds there is due for taxes $1,226; decree of foreclosure and order of sale.

Same vs. Margaret J. Wright, et al; same, $1,323.70 for taxes and $9,804.64 for Division of Aid for Aged.

Sarge vs. Powell Realty & Development Co., et al; same, $109.38 for taxes.

Carol Carpenter vs. Donald S. Carpenter; defendant found in contempt but he may purge himself by paying $180 due on support.

Donna M. Andric vs. Charles Andric; defendant admitted he is in contempt of support order and given until Sept. 10 to purge himself.

Walter C. Cross vs. Elizabeth R. Cross; certified to Juvenile Court.

NEW CASES

Jeddie D. Spencer, Chester, W. Va., vs. Nathan Weinbren d.b.a. Star Furniture Co., 616 Walnut St., East Liverpool, and Bureau of Workmen's Compensation; appeal from decision of regional board of review denying plaintiff's claim for injuries.

Girl's Body Found

Police said she apparently plunged off a hill to her death. The incident was tentatively ruled accidental, although an autopsy was to be performed.

HHH Decides Not To Debate Political Foe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Aides to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey say the vice president has decided against debating Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, his chief rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, because of the delicate international situation and the demands by two other candidates that they be included.

The reference to the international situation meant the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia.

Sen. George S. McGovern and Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox also had demanded they be included in any television debate and McGovern had threatened to seek a court injunction.

McCarthy's office said only that it was "clear that the vice president now for reasons of his own does not want to debate."

Returns To Political Activity

End War, Kennedy Urges; Not Candidate This Year

WORCESTER Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts returned to political activity Wednesday with a call for an end to the war in Vietnam and a statement that he is not a candidate for any office this year.

Kennedy was stern and serious as he made his first public speech since the assassination of his brother Sen. Robert F. Kennedy June 5.

His audience, 1,200 members and guests of the Worcester Chamber of Commerce, gave him ovations at the opening and end of his speech. There were seven interruptions for rounds of applause.

At one point the speech reminded some of the audience of the inaugural of his late brother, President John F. Kennedy in 1961, when he said: "The torch has been passed to a new generation. . ."

Sen. Kennedy told his audience he had been silent since the assassination of another brother, and said during the 10 weeks since then he had been advised by many to retire from public life, "for safety's sake."

"But there is no safety in hiding," he said. "Not for me, nor for any of us here today; and not for our children who will inherit the world we make for them.

"So today I resume my public responsibilities to the people of Massachusetts.

"Like my three brothers before me, I pick up a fallen standard," he said. "Sustained by the memory of our priceless years together, I shall try to carry forward that special commitment to justice, to excellence, to courage, that distinguished their lives."

In addition to his assassiated brothers, Sen. Kennedy's oldest brother, Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., died while in the service of his country, killed in the explosion of a bomb-laden Navy bomber he volunteered to pilot on a World War II mission in Europe.

Kennedy proposed a four-point program for an end to the Vietnam war:

1. To end unconditionally all bombing of North Vietnam;

2. To then negotiate with Hanoi the mutual withdrawal from South Vietnam of all foreign forces, both allied and North Vietnamese;

3. To accompany this withdrawal with whatever help we can give to the South Vietnamese in building of a viable political, economic and legal structure that will not collapse upon our departure, and

4. To demonstrate to both Hanoi and Saigon the sincerity of our intentions by significantly decreasing this year the level of our military activity and military personnel in the South.

Kennedy, who last month issued a statement saying he was not available to run for vice president, as many political figures had urged, told his audience that he spoke for no partisan interests, but as "one who will not run for office this year."

$1.3 Million In Art Objects Are Stolen In Pennsylvania

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — A police chief says burglars "just opened a kitchen window and walked right on in" to steal 16 art objects valued by the owner at $1,394,000.

Stolen were paintings by such reknown artists as Picasso, Cezanne, Latour, Degas, Goya and Modigliani and two cast bronze statues by Rodin.

They were part of a collection of about 1,000 art pieces collected by Dr. T. Edward Hanley over 45 years.

Thieves broke into the Hanley house Wednesday morning and made off with the art objects, all on the first floor, while the 75-year-old Hanley and his sister-in-law were sleeping in two upstairs bedrooms.

Hanley's wife, Tullah, a former Egyptian dancer, was in New York on a business trip. She rushed back after being notified of the robbery and made the loss estimate.

Mrs. Hanley said the two most valuable pieces were a 27½ inch by 21 inch Picasso painting entitled "Moulin Rouge" valued at $500,000 and an 18⅞ inch Cezanne watercolor entitled "portrait of Vallier" valued at $450,000. The Picasso was done in 1901 and the Cezanne in 1906.

Police Chief Earl Bridge of Foster Township said the thieves walked up a short stairway on a back porch and slit the screen on a kitchen window.

"Then they forced the window," Bridge said. "It was one of those old, semicircle locks and when they pushed it up, the nails popped loose.

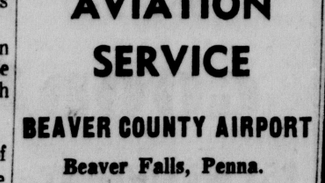

"They just opened the window and walked right on in," the chief said. "Everything else was open. There's a little swing door into the dining room and that's all."

Bridge said the burglars, working swiftly and silently, snipped the electric cords leading to individual lights on each painting and took the paintings while still in the frame.

Two bronze statues by Rodin a nude fawness and a nude dancer valued at $25,000 each also were stolen.

Making the tour of area football training sites during the hottest week of the summer makes you glad you're only observing the drills and not participating in them.

Excess weight, in the form of sweat, pours off the players in gallons. Uniforms are dark with perspiration and the players are generally glad when a halt is called to practice so that pictures may be taken.

In weather like this, heat prostration is a strong possibility, and most coaches are avoiding workouts in the hottest part of the day, sticking to the morning, late afternoon and evening. Center Township in Beaver County already has reported one player hospitalized due to heat prostration.

EAST LIVERPOOL may have a "standing room only" crowd for its opening football game with Cleveland West Sept. 6 at Patterson Field, at least in the reserved seat section. The old seats have been ripped out and the stands painted, but the now-settled strike of the custodial employes delayed installation of new seats.

THE GOLF COURSE at Firestone Country Club in Akron is one of the toughest in the country, 7,180 yards for a Par 70 layout. But now Firestone is building a new course, which will probably be even more difficult. The North Course, as it will be known upon completion, scheduled for 1969, is not quite as long, 7,095 yards for Par 72, but will be considerably trickier, with a lake coming into play on 10 holes. The ninth, 10th and 18th holes will have water surrounding the fairways, and the eighth and 11th holes, par threes, will have nothing but water between the tee and green.

Hitters Have Day In National Play

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The whiff turned into the wham and the basepaths looked like freeways. In the National League Wednesday it was the day of the hitter in this year of the pitcher.

Instead of swinging and missing as so often has been the case this year, the batters seemed to be hitting every ball thrown their way.

The five winning teams banged out 93 hits and scored 64 runs in six games. Even the losing clubs managed 10 hits.

The Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants started the barrage in the afternoon. The Cubs whipped Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 and the Giants trounced the New York Mets 13-3.

Pittsburgh climaxed the assault at night with a 19-1 walloping of Cincinnati. In between, St. Louis topped Philadelphia 8-3 and Houston ripped Los Angeles 6-1.

Pittsburgh's 19 runs were high for the majors this season. So were the Pirates 23 hits.

Matty Alou and Gene Alley both collected four hits and Manny Mota, Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski three apiece for the Pirates.

Donn Clendenon accounted for five Pittsburgh runs with a three-run homer and a double. Alley drove in three and Alou, Jose Pagan, Mota, Mazeroski and Clemente two each. Clemente hit solo homers his first two at-bats.

Billy Williams drove in two runs with a pair of singles in the Cubs' first-game victory and then sent home seven more in the nightcap with a two-run homer, a single, sacrifice fly and a double.

However, Ernie Banks was the big blaster for the Cubs in the opener. The 37-year-old veteran hit a bases-empty homer, his 24th, in the first inning, and then with the Cubs trailing 4-2, climaxed a three-run seventh with a two-run blast.

In the second game, the Cubs, who had trailed 5-0, went ahead to stay, 7-5, on Williams' two-run single in the sixth.

Willie Mays highlighted a six-run San Francisco fifth inning with a two-run homer, his 16th of the season and 580th of his career, and Juan Marichal coasted to his 23rd victory of the season.

While the Giants were batting in the sixth, their dugout and that of the Mets and the tarpaulin were searched after New York police received two calls that a bomb had been planted. Nothing was found and play continued after a delay of about five minutes.

The crowd of 32,023 was not disturbed during the bomb search.

Phil Gagliano and Tim McCarver both singled in two runs in St. Louis' victory over Philadelphia. The Cardinals took a 4-3 lead in the fifth on run-scoring singles by Gagliano, Bob Tolan and Roger Maris.

Rusty Staub provided the big bat for Houston, whose 10 hits were the lowest total for any winning team. Staub singled home one of two runs in the third and then singled in a pair in the fifth.

Improved Saints Talk Of Divisional Title

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A large number of New Orleans Saints players are boldly talking about a divisional championship in the National Football League this winter—sheer audacity, perhaps even lunacy, for a second-year expansion team.

"I'm glad they feel that way," says Tom Fears, head coach of the Saints, who astonished the gridiron goldmining ranks a year ago.

"I have to be more realistic than optimistic though," adds Fears.

The Saints were switched to the NFL's Century Division this year—joining St. Louis, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

"We're in this to win the division. That's our aim. We would like to very much. So we'll be preparing with that thought in mind," Fears says. "But I'm not saying we're going to win our division."

A year together and the acquisition of four key players spell improvement for New Orleans. The quarter: Dave Parks, a split end who ranks with the best in the NFL; tight end Monty Stickles, a savage blocker; and pass defenders Roff Fichtner and Elbert Kimbrough.

The Saints won three games last fall, equalling the mark for any first-year team. At the same time the Saints averaged 77,000-plus per home game, fourth best in NFL history.

Bill Kilmer will quarterback the Saints—holding the key to much of the team's 1968 successes, or failures.

"We're all aware of the second-year lull, one which Atlanta experienced last season," admits Kilmer. "But one of our shortcomings, a strong offensive line, can't help but improve. And our defense is good."

Randy Schultz and Don McCallera developing into proficient ballcarriers. Rookie fullback Tony Baker, a free agent, has promise of future greatness. So even if Jimmy Taylor doesn't come through the Saints expect to be able to gain more yardage on the ground.

Second-year-man Danny Abramowicz, 721 yards on 50 catches with six touchdowns a year ago, has been moved from split end to flanker. With Parks, Stickles and Abramowicz—backed up by 9.4 John Gilliam the Saints are in good shape for receivers.

The offensive interior line is still the weak spot, but appears somewhat better. Tackle Jerry Sturm is performing well and guard Del Williams, a second-year man, is coming fast.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

The next quiz will not appear until Sept. 5, so Sept. 4 is the deadline for answers to today's quiz.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was again the winner this week, but only by one question. Vodrey had seven right, missing William Howard Taft as the first golfing president, Don Bies (64 in this year's American Golf Classic) as the Firestone Course record holder and George Archer and Bob Lunn as the 268 scores on the tour this season.

Vodrey knew that the 16th hole at Firestone is known as "The Monster" and that Arnold Palmer came to grief there in this year's American Golf Classic. He knew Lunn and George Knudson had previously won back-to-back tournaments this year, knew the Milwaukee Open was the richest tournament prior to Westchester, knew Jerry Barber got a hole-in-one at the American Golf Classic this year, knew Bob Goalby, Lee Trevino, Gary Player and Julius Boros will be in the World Series of Golf this year and knew that FrancisOuimet was the American who defeated noted British players Harry Vardon and Ted Ray to give golf a great boost in this country.

This week's questions:

1. What team won the National League pennant by the biggest margin?
2. What National League team posted the best winning percentage?
3. What golf wood and what golf iron have exactly the same amount of loft?
4. What are the two NFL teams against which the Cleveland Browns do not have a winning record?
5. The Browns won the All-America Conference title all four years the league was in existence. Who did they beat in the playoff game each year?
6. The Browns ave finished in the second division of their NFL conference only one year since they joined the league. What year was it?
7. What was the last year in which the Steelers had a winning record?
8. What was the biggest score run up by one NFL team in regular season in 1967?
9. What college did Brown coach Blanton Collier attend?
10. What Brown coach is a native of Louisville, Ohio?

AFL Veteran Powell Tries Out For Vikings

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thirty-one is a pretty young age to start a comeback. But Art Powell, hoping a game knee that cut short a brilliant American Football League career will hold up, was trying just that today with the Minnesota Vikings.

Powell, a wide receiver signed by the National Football League team Wednesday as a free agent, caught enough passes in eight seasons with the New York Jets, Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills to rank second among all-time AFL receivers.

But he was curtailed by a knee injury last season and the Bills finally turned him loose.

The 6-foot-2, 212-pounder snared 478 passes for 8,015 yards during his AFL career and his total of 81 touchdown receptions is a league record. He also ranks fourth among all time AFL scoring leaders with 486 points.

The Vikings also traded a draft choice to Baltimore Wednesday for another wide receiver, Rich O'Hara, the Colts' No. 3 draft pick.

In Florida, things were almost back to normal at the Miami Dolphins' camp, where a slight seige of the flu struck several players earlier in the week.

Coach George Wilson said the entire squad should be at full strength for an exhibition with Boston—one of four preseason games on tap Friday night.

Other activity that evening has San Francisco, NFL, at Denver, AFL; Baltimore, NFL, at Detroit, NFL, and Buffalo, AFL, vs. Houston, AFL, at Tulsa, Okla.

The Dolphins also announced they had traded John Roderick, who appeared in only one game last season after undergoing a back operation, to Oakland for an undisclosed draft choice. Two seasons ago, as a rookie, Roderick caught 11 passes for 154 yards in five games.

In other developments around the training camps, Pittsburgh signed holdout Frank Parker, a defensive tackle. Parker was obtained in a four-man trade with Cleveland but refused to report to the Steelers' camp because, he said, he wasn't offered enough money.

The Boston Patriots placed four players on waivers, including veteran split end Jerry Lamz, who spent three years with Kansas City before being signed by the Pats as a free agent, and rookie linebacker Burl Wood of West Texas State.

Defensive tackle Henry Jordan practiced for the first time since he was injured in the College All-Star Game as the Green Bay Packers worked out for the first time since Monday night's loss to Chicago—second straight exhibition loss for the world champs.

However, it was doubtful that Jordan would be ready in time for the Packers' game at Dallas Saturday night.

Meanwhile, the Bears' defensive tackle, John Johnson, who received the game ball after Chicago's stunner, will be lost for at least two months because of a small bone fracture.

Johnson apparently played part of the game with the Packers with the fracture but it wasn't discovered until two days later.

Scandanavians Boycott

Czech Invasion May Upset Olympic Games

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The invasion of Czechoslovakia by the Soviet Union and four of its allies caused new worries today for an already-upset committee organizing the Mexico Olympic Games.

The games, scheduled for Mexico City Oct. 12-27, have already had their share of international political problems. Now there is a threat some countries will be so upset by the Soviet action that they will refuse to compete against the Russians during the games.

Sweden, Norway and Denmark announced Wednesday in Stockholm they were canceling their participation in various European events scheduled for this month or September in which their athletes were to compete with athletes from the Soviet Union or East Germany.

If they carried this boycott to its ultimate they could refuse to compete against the Soviet Union or Germany during the Games.

The Mexican Organizing Committee had nothing to say about whether the Soviet Union could be barred from the Games because of its invasion of Czechoslovakia. Under the rules of the International Olympic Committee, Mexico has invited every country which is a member of the IOC. The Soviet Union is a member.

In Chicago, Avery Brundage, president of the IOC, commented: "I don't know of any regulation that would bar Russia from the Olympics because of the invasion. I anticipate no developments along that line. At least, I hope there are none."

Downing Defeats Twins

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The little New York left-hander, plagued by chronic arm trouble since spring training, stymied Minnesota hitters for 8 1-3 innings Wednesday night and earned only his second victory of the season as the Yankees edged the Twins 2-1.

Today Downing will re-enter the Mayo Clinic, where his pitching arm passed doctors' tests two days ago, for the examination of another problem—his mysterious inclination toward instant daytime slumber.

Downing has trouble sleeping at night but can doze off at the drop of a hat in mid-day. The Mayo specialists have diagnosed his condition as narcolepsy, a controllable ailment remotely akin to sleeping sickness. They suspect there may be some relation between his sleeping pattern and arm miseries.

"They are going to give me sleeping pills before I go to bed at night and pills to keep me awake during the day," said the 27-year-old fastballer, who won 14 games for the Yankees last year. "They'll keep me for a day to see how I react. I hope they find the answer."

While Downing bolstered Yankee hopes for a first division finish, Detroit's American League leaders moved a step closer to their first pennant since 1945 by nipping Chicago 3-2 on Jim Price's pinch hit homer in the 10th inning.

Second-place Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings and remained seven games off the pace and Cleveland trimmed Boston 8-2 for Horacio Pina's first major league victory in the only other games scheduled.

Downing, who spent one month on the disabled list and another in the minors trying to regain his pitching form, held the Twins hitless until the sixth and took a two-hit shutout into the ninth, when Bob Allison's 15th homer brought Lindy McDaniel out of the bullpen to nail down the victory.

Price, a reserve catcher, broke a 2-2 tie at Detroit with one-out shot off Wilbur Wood in the 10th. Mickey Stanley's eighth-inning homer had knotted it for the Tigers.

"I used to catch Wood at Columbus in 1966," said Price. "We were the best of friend. I've pinch hit and tied up the game four or five time this year, but this was the greatest."

Boog Powell broke up the Orioles-Angels marathon with a run-scoring single in the 15th after Mark Belanger walked, stole second and took third on catcher Ed Kirkpatrick's wild throw. Frank Robinson and Don Buford homered for Baltimore, staking Dave McNally to a 3-0 lead, but the Angel tied it in the fifth on a two-out walk, Rick Reichardt's triple and Bubba Morton's double.

The Indians supported Pina, a 21-year-old right-hander making his first start, with an eight-run uprising in the fifth that knocked out Boston's Jim Lonborg.

Pina gave up eight hits and struck out seven, but needed last-out relief help from Vicente Romo. Chico Salmon, Dave Nelson and Joe Azcue drove in two runs apiece in the fifth with a homer triple and single, respectively.

Murphy Darkhorse In Philadelphia Golf

The bitter, vocal dispute between the golf pros and the Professional Golfers' Association over who should run the rich tour temporarily was shunted into the background as a field of 156 started the four-day, 72-hole competition over the par 36-36—72 Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course.

While Sikes, Nicklaus, Boros, Casper, Trevino and company were the favorites, many eyes were turned on young Bob Murphy, the Brooklyn native who came within a stroke of tying last week's Westchester Classic.

He led the first three rounds only to lose when Boros dropped a 15-foot pressure putt on the final green.

A rookie on the tour, the 24-year-old Murphy indicated a liking for the 6-708-yard Whitemarsh course with a four-under par 68 in the pro-am tournament Wednesday.

The 1965 U.S. Amateur champion and 1966 NCAA king, Murphy had five birdies and only one bogey on a course which places a premium on keeping the ball in play.

Sikes, winner of two tournaments this year and with a bankroll already totalling $98,562, is shooting for his second straight $100,000-plus tour. His last-round charge at Whitemarsh to overtake George Archer a year ago made him a member of hundred-grand club in 1967. He won with rounds of 71-68-69-68—276.

All the 1968 tour champions with the exception of Arnold Palmer are in the starting field, which will be cut to the top 60 and ties after 36 holes.

Fillies And Colts Bowlers To Meet

3 Vehicles Damaged In 2 Local Accidents

Three cars were damaged in two minor traffic mishaps within a five-minute interval Wednesday afternoon, police reported.

The first collision, timed at 1:50 on 1st Ave. near Railroad St., involved a 1963 model truck owned by the Wallover Oil Co. of Virginia Ave. and driven by David J. Pawelkoski, 17, of Beaver and a 1961 sedan operated by William E. Drumm Jr., 16, of 135 W. Church Ln. Pawelkoski was maneuvering in the driveway to a garage and Drumm was driving west on 1st Ave.

The second mishap, timed at 1:55 on Broadway, involved a 1967 model car driven by Freda Covert, 48, of Chester RD 1 and a 1958 auto driven by the Rev. Moses Bishop, 62, of Moore St. The woman was turning from Potters Alley onto Broadway and Rev. Bishop was backing from a parking place.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of Bessie M. Tilton who passed away 9 years ago, August 22nd:
She is gone from her home, how I miss her, my loving wife, gentle and true, she is gone to the beautiful mansions prepared for the good and the true. More and more each day I miss her, friends may think the wound is healed, but little they know the sorrow lies within my heart concealed.

Coach Dye Sees Improvement Despite Starter Loss

Nine Lettermen Return To Club

Ten starters are gone from the 1967 Midland High football team, but new coach Ivan Dye has hopes of bettering last year's 3-5-2 mark.

"If the boys take the right attitude we could have a better record," the Salineville resident says. "They have the ability." Dye, a former Midland assistant, admits that the Leopards lack experience and will be too thin to platoon. There are nine returning lettermen.

Dye will be assisted by Rey Peduzzi, who has just been named faculty manager (athletic director), and newcomer Dave Needs, Gary Kaukonen replaces Paul Barbuto as junior high coach and will be assisted by Wally Beattie.

The Leopards will be bolstered by a fine crop of sophomores, though none is expected to start right away.

The quarterback spot will be handled by Jackie Campbell, 125, a senior letterman. He will be backed by David Matteo, a 140-pound junior. Greg Braund, a 180-pound junior letterman who shared the quarterback spot with Campbell last season, will be at halfback, along with "Bub" Bynum, 175, a senior letterman. Senior Ken Williams, 155, who was injured last season, junior Fred Smith, 145, and sophomore Gene Irvine, 180, are also halfback candidates. Howard Leak, 180, a senior letterman, is set at fullback, with senior Larry Bradley, 150, and junior John Masley, 160, in reserve.

Roy Walker, one of the fastest sprinters in the state, has lettered twice at end, but Dye has hopes of working him into the backfield. Other ends are seniors Dan Prodonovich, 160 and Frank Johnson, 170 and juniors Tim Cilli, 155, and Greg Phillips.

There are no lettermen at center, with senior Dan Bellay, 160, and juniors Roger Singleton, 175 and Dan Howard, 160, fighting for the job.

Midland will use a split T offense and a 5-4 defense. The Leopards are officially Class B, but still play a Class A schedule, with six Class A foes. Dye picks Beaver, New Brighton and Rochester as though in the A ranks and Trafford, Monaca and traditional rival Western Beaver as tough in Class B.

The schedule:

Sept. 6—W. Beaver
Sept. 13—Center
Sept. 20—Beaver
Sept. 28—at Monaca
Oct. 5—at Trafford, 1:30
Oct. 11—Burgettstown
Oct. 18—at Rochester
Oct. 25—at New Brighton
Nov. 1—Freedom

14 Lettermen Back

United Hopes To Solve Lack Of Depth Problem

United Local posted a 2-8 record in football last season, but coach Ralph Pardee, in his third year, hopes to improve that quite a bit.

He has 14 lettermen returning, 10 of them starters on offense or defense. There are only 34 boys on the squad, including five freshmen, so depth is a problem.

Pardee will be assisted by Les Blanchard and Glen Willis, the latter up from junior high. Joe Herman replaces Willis.

Tony Sonagere, who sat out the first part of last season with a broken arm, is a senior letterman quarterback weighing 160. Mike Balint, 150, was a starting defensive halfback last season and is expected to start in the offensive backfield this year. Gary Frankovich, 155, and Gary Howard, 140, also started in the defensive backfield last season. All are senior lettermen.

John Haller, 170, was expected to be the starting fullback, but suffered a broken arm in an auto accident and will be out for a month. Mike North, 170, a two-year letterman, has been switched from tackle to fullback. He is a linebacker on defense, as is Steve Mix, 170, a junior, and senior Gary Orsburn, 155, who also plays offensive guard. All are lettermen.

Jim Erb, 180, a junior, and Bill Young, 160, a senior, are lettermen ends. Senior Mark Milliken, 180, and junior Dennis Sanor, 170, are lettermen tackles. Jewell Hall, a 184-pound senior, and Phil Hippley, a 190-pound junior, were regulars last year at guard and center respectively. Erb, Milliken, Mix and Orsburn also started.

Pardee expects to go with a split T offense and a 5-3 defense. He picks Minerva as the team to beat in the Tri-County League, with Leetonia, Lisbon, East Palestine and Poland in contention. United is a member of the league, but does not play all the other teams, so its games do not count in the league standings.

The schedule:

Sept. 6—at Leetonia
Sept. 14—Sebring
Sept. 20—at East Canton
Sept. 28—at Springfield Local
Oct. 5—Beaver Local
Oct. 12—Poland
Oct. 19—Crestview
Oct. 25—at Columbiana
Nov. 1—at Southern Local
Nov. 9—Lisbon

Johnny Dunn Wins 4 Of 6 At Waterford

Johnny Dunn, Waterford Park leading percentage rider, rode four winners in six attempts last night, and his other two mounts finished second.

Dunn probably could have ridden five winners had not Korri Ann stumbled at the start of the night's first race. As it was, Dunn managed to pick the filly up and get her to the wire just a half length behind the victorious Second Threshold.

From there on, Dunn proved unbeatable.

In the third, he connected with Fairiam's Pride at $14.00.

He came right back in the fourth to win with the heavily favored Ranger, who was worth $4.60.

After sitting on the fifth race, Dunn rode back to back winners in the sixth and seventh events. Liar's Dice, his mount in the sixth, charged from last place in the upper stretch to win going away at $7.60. In the sixth, aboard his final mount, Jovial Nymph, the win payoff for the new players who thought Dunn would win another was $32.00.

Two Forfeits In Softball Tournament

LISBON — Two teams advanced in the county Softball League playoffs Wednesday evening at Pine Tree Inn Field, and two others were eliminated, all without a single pitch or time at bat.

Wellsville Appliance took a 7-0 forfeit from Lisbon Merchants and Quaker Security Service, which itself has forfeited a game, took a 7-0 forfeit from Albco Foundry. The forfeit eliminated the Foundrymen and the Merchants since they were beaten in their first games of the round robin tourney.

Toot Trucking and East Liverpool, both unbeaten in the playoffs, meet at 5:45 p.m. today at Pine Tree. Wellsville Security Service at 7:15.

Mets Option Bosch

Covina Beats Houston In Pony Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Greg Rogers batted two homers that accounted for three of the four runs that led Covina, Calif. to a 4-2 victory over Houston, Tex.

The teams met Wednesday in the first game of a doubleheader in the International Pony League World Series.

In the second game Greensboro's Ron Evans supplied a two-run homer, scored five runs and held off St. Clair, Mich., in the eighth inning for a 6-4 victory.

W. Staley's Softball Champions

Wilbur Staley's team won the Chester Softball League by beating Cashdollar's 8-2 last night in a game to decide first place.

Richard Sims was the winner and John Spout the loser. Mayor Harold Ash presented team and individual trophies to Staley's. In the other game last night Steve Staley's beat Shenton's 5-4 in seven innings. Russ Covert was the winner and Gary Taylor the loser.

The league will have a tournament, starting tomorrow night.

Nancy Hill Low In EPCC Golf

Nancy Hill had low net in the first flight of the East Palestine Ladies Golf League Tuesday wih a 35.

Mae Shaffer led the second flight with a 38. Marge Reesch topped the third flight with a 36 and June Mansfield and Kay Westover led the fourth flight with a 45.

Mrs. Hill had the fewest putts in the first flight, 14. Jo-nell Brown had 15 in the second flight and Vida Hulton 15 in the third flight. Mrs. Mansfield was low in the fourth flight with 21.

Ethel Brockman and Mrs. Brown had chip-ins.

W. Va. Derby Started At Wheeling In 1958

The first West Virginia Derby was run at Wheeling Downs in 1958, and was split into two divisions. Sea Hymn won the first division, while Redbird Wish won the second.

U.S. Olympic Diving Team Selected

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Hawaii teen-ager Rachel "Keala" O'Sullivan, Air Force Lt. Micki King and ailing Sue Gossick make up the U.S. Olympic team that will compete in the 3-meter springboard diving event at Mexico City.

Keala, a 17-year-old from Honolulu, slipped quietly into the water 10 times Wednesday and scored 447.90 points for first spot on the team. It was an impressive, come-from-behind performance for the lithe youngster.

Miss King, of Pontiac, Mich., eighth after the preliminaries, also scored heavily in the evening competition to tally 405.06 points for second place.

Sign Linebacker

Big League Bowlers Meeting Monday

Anyone interested in bowling in the Big League bowling league is asked to meet Monday at 8 p.m. at Headpin Lanes.

Each team that is interested in bowling in the league is asked to have a representative present at the meeting.

HOW MANY VEHICLES? Canada has 6,762,900, Mexico has 1,393,000, Puerto Rico 364,688 and Cuba 131,500. British Honduras has only 3,100. In the U.S. there are 94,176,799. How about a lift?

WE HAD TO FIRE A LUBE MAN WE HAD. When an older car came in he'd put it on the lube rack, shake his head sadly and advise the owner to keep the oil and change the car!

BE SURE TO GET YOUR CAR WELL OFF THE traveled roadway if you have a flat. Don't worry about hurting the flat tire! Better a ruined tire than six months in the hospital for you!

LOOKING FOR A CLEAN, GOOD-RUNNING 1965 Chevy, or a 1964 Dodge? We probably have them in our used car area. We specialize in fine quality used cars. Stop by M & A DODGE'S MOTOR CITY, 6th and Walnut Streets and take a look at one of the biggest inventories of used cars in town. Inspect our cars from your car. STOP! When you see what you like. Let one of the good guys give you a M & A Dodge "Money-Saving Deal."

SAFETY IS ABOUT 90 PERCENT COURTESY and patience. Just plain selfishness is the leading cause of accidents. If people were as polite when they drive as when they walk through a crowded room, we'd have fewer crashes.

ONE OF MY NEIGHBORS RAN HIS CAR through three hedges, over a mail box and wrecked a patio roof, then he lost control of the car!

MITSUBISHI AND NISSAN, BOTH OF JAPAN, have joined the Inter-Industry Emission Control Program to study ways to cut down on auto polutants. One U.S. Auto maker and six gas companies are also in.

CAA Board Names Three As Trustees

LISBON—Three trustees were elected when the board of the Community Action Agency of Columbiana County, Inc., met Tuesday night in the Welfare Department building.

They are Donald Rudibaugh of Lisbon, three-year term; Joseph Kornbau of Salem, two years, and William Brown, Lisbon attorney, one year.

Their appointments bring board membership to 20. Another appointment is expected at the next meeting Sept. 12, one week earlier than usual.

Executive officers will be elected at the next meeting. A slate of candidates is to be presented by the nominating committee — Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton RD 1, Donald Hepp of Columbiana and Mrs. Helen Welch of Wellsville.

Mrs. Leo Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, presided Tuesday night as the only remaining executive officer.

The board accepted the resignation of the Rev. William V. Ring of Leetonia Rd., president since last October. Pastor of St. Jacob's Church for six years, he will assume his duties Sept. 1 as pastor of the First Emmanuel United Church of Christ in Alliance. Orin Smith of East Liverpool, vice president, and Karl Stoudt of New Garden, treasurer, had resigned earlier.

Mark Eyerman, VISTA representative doing long - range planning with the county CAA, read and explained the revised bylaws. The board accepted them without change.

Proceedings Of The Court

DIVORCES ASKED

DIVORCES GRANTED

NEW ENTRIES

V. C. Judge, county treasurer, vs. Mildred P. Fife, et al; court finds there is due for taxes $1,226; decree of foreclosure and order of sale.

Same vs. Margaret J. Wright, et al; same, $1,323.70 for taxes and $9,804.64 for Division of Aid for Aged.

Same vs. Powell Realty & Development Co., et al; same, $109.38 for taxes.

Carol Carpenter vs. Donald S. Carpenter; defendant found in contempt but he may purge himself by paying $180 due on support.

Donna M. Andric vs. Charles Andric; defendant admitted he is in contempt of support order and given until Sept. 10 to purge himself.

Walter C. Cross vs. Elizabeth R. Cross; certified to Juvenile Court.

NEW CASES

Jeddie D. Spencer, Chester, W. Va., vs. Nathan Weinbren d.b.a. Star Furniture Co., 616 Walnut St., East Liverpool, and Bureau of Workmen's Compensation; appeal from decision of regional board of review denying plaintiff's claim for injuries.

Girl's Body Found

Police said she apparently plunged off a hill to her death. The incident was tentatively ruled accidental, although an autopsy was to be performed.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

Frederick George Owesney and William Thomas Owesney, whose places of residence are unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, and the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, legatees and assigns of both of them will take notice that on May 17, 1968, the Plaintiff, Vincent C. Judge, County Treasurer of Columbiana County, Ohio, filed his Amended Petition against them in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, being Case No. 52193 in said Court, for the enforcement of delinquent tax lien, pursuant to Section 5721.18 of the Revised Code of Ohio, and for the sale of certain real estate in said Petition described, to wit:

Situated in the Township of Yellow Creek, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio and known as and being all the coal and clay under that part of the Southwest Quarter of Section 21, Township 9, Range 2, which is more fully described as beginning at the southwest corner of said Section and running thence East 19.98 chains to a point; thence North 2.638 feet to a point; thence West 19.89 chains to a point; thence South 40.035 chains to the place of beginning and containing 79.56 acres be the same more or less.

And being the same premises conveyed to Fred G. Owesney by Sheriff's Deed dated August 11, 1950, and recorded October 27, 1954, in Volume 913, Page 201, of the Deed Records of Columbiana County Ohio, excepting and reserving therefrom an oil and gas lease to R. Stewart Falconer, dated April 3, 1908 and recorded May 25, 1908, in Vol. 12, Page 32, Columbiana County Lease Records, and another oil and gas lease to Jay S. Paisley dated August 10 1898 and recorded August 13, 1908, in Vol. 12, page 157, Columbiana County Lease Records.

Excepting and reserving therefrom all the coal and clay below the No. 6 Vein of coal in and under said premises, which was conveyed to H. K. Porter Company, Inc. by Warranty Deed dated May 8, 1956, and recorded May 29, 1956, in Volume 959, Page 612 of the Deed Records of Columbiana County, Ohio.

The prayer of said Petition is for the sale of said real estate for the payment of taxes, assessments, interest penalties, charges and fees as are found due and unpaid. Said Defendants and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, administrators, executors and assigns are required to answer said Petition on September 23, 1968, or the prayer of the Petition will be granted.

HHH Decides Not To Debate Political Foe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Aides to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey say the vice president has decided against debating Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, his chief rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, because of the delicate international situation and the demands by two other candidates that they be included.

The reference to the international situation meant the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia.

Sen. George S. McGovern and Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox also had demanded they be included in any television debate and McGovern had threatened to seek a court injunction.

McCarthy's office said only that it was "clear that the vice president now for reasons of his own does not want to debate."

Returns To Political Activity

End War, Kennedy Urges; Not Candidate This Year

WORCESTER Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts returned to political activity Wednesday with a call for an end to the war in Vietnam and a statement that he is not a candidate for any office this year.

Kennedy was stern and serious as he made his first public speech since the assassination of his brother Sen. Robert F. Kennedy June 5.

His audience, 1,200 members and guests of the Worcester Chamber of Commerce, gave him ovations at the opening and end of his speech. There were seven interruptions for rounds of applause.

At one point the speech reminded some of the audience of the inaugural of his late brother, President John F. Kennedy in 1961, when he said: "The torch has been passed to a new generation. . ."

Sen. Kennedy told his audience he had been silent since the assassination of another brother, and said during the 10 weeks since then he had been advised by many to retire from public life, "for safety's sake."

"But there is no safety in hiding," he said. "Not for me, nor for any of us here today; and not for our children who will inherit the world we make for them.

"So today I resume my public responsibilities to the people of Massachusetts.

"Like my three brothers before me, I pick up a fallen standard," he said. "Sustained by the memory of our priceless years together, I shall try to carry forward that special commitment to justice, to excellence, to courage, that distinguished their lives."

In addition to his assassiated brothers, Sen. Kennedy's oldest brother, Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., died while in the service of his country, killed in the explosion of a bomb-laden Navy bomber he volunteered to pilot on a World War II mission in Europe.

Kennedy proposed a four-point program for an end to the Vietnam war:

1. To end unconditionally all bombing of North Vietnam;

2. To then negotiate with Hanoi the mutual withdrawal from South Vietnam of all foreign forces, both allied and North Vietnamese;

3. To accompany this withdrawal with whatever help we can give to the South Vietnamese in building of a viable political, economic and legal structure that will not collapse upon our departure, and

4. To demonstrate to both Hanoi and Saigon the sincerity of our intentions by significantly decreasing this year the level of our military activity and military personnel in the South.

Kennedy, who last month issued a statement saying he was not available to run for vice president, as many political figures had urged, told his audience that he spoke for no partisan interests, but as "one who will not run for office this year."

$1.3 Million In Art Objects Are Stolen In Pennsylvania

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — A police chief says burglars "just opened a kitchen window and walked right on in" to steal 16 art objects valued by the owner at $1,394,000.

Stolen were paintings by such reknown artists as Picasso, Cezanne, Latour, Degas, Goya and Modigliani and two cast bronze statues by Rodin.

They were part of a collection of about 1,000 art pieces collected by Dr. T. Edward Hanley over 45 years.

Thieves broke into the Hanley house Wednesday morning and made off with the art objects, all on the first floor, while the 75-year-old Hanley and his sister-in-law were sleeping in two upstairs bedrooms.

Hanley's wife, Tullah, a former Egyptian dancer, was in New York on a business trip. She rushed back after being notified of the robbery and made the loss estimate.

Mrs. Hanley said the two most valuable pieces were a 27½ inch by 21 inch Picasso painting entitled "Moulin Rouge" valued at $500,000 and an 18⅞ inch Cezanne watercolor entitled "portrait of Vallier" valued at $450,000. The Picasso was done in 1901 and the Cezanne in 1906.

Police Chief Earl Bridge of Foster Township said the thieves walked up a short stairway on a back porch and slit the screen on a kitchen window.

"Then they forced the window," Bridge said. "It was one of those old, semicircle locks and when they pushed it up, the nails popped loose.

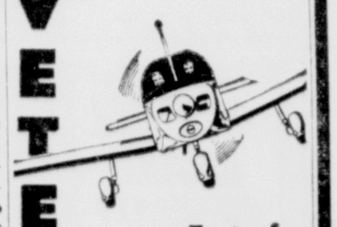

"They just opened the window and walked right on in," the chief said. "Everything else was open. There's a little swing door into the dining room and that's all."

Bridge said the burglars, working swiftly and silently, snipped the electric cords leading to individual lights on each painting and took the paintings while still in the frame.

Two bronze statues by Rodin a nude fawness and a nude dancer valued at $25,000 each also were stolen.

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Dear Subscriber:

. . . . As a subscriber to this newspaper your family is entitled to a special reader service . . . an outstanding ACCIDENT PROTECTION POLICY designed to help you guard against the high cost of unexpcted accidents.

It's true . . . your family is protected 24 hours a day, at home . . . at work . . . at play! Benefits are paid over and above any other protection you may carry. Yet, this remarkable coverage costs only 10c a WEEK per policy!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A POLICY?

Anyone between the ages of 1 and 90 years, inclusive—except persons that have lost both hands or both feet or the sight of both eyes. There is no physical examination. Benefits reduced ½ under 7 and over 70 years of age.

HOW ABOUT ACCIDENTS AT WORK?

This policy covers accidents at work, including such hazardous occupations as policemen, firemen, window washers, electric linemen, etc.

HOW DO I GET A POLICY?

Fill out an application blank and pay the registration fee of 25c (payable only once, with the application). Then pay the weekly premium of 10c per policy thereafter.

WHEN DOES THE INSURANCE BEGIN?

When your application is accepted, you will receive a policy in about 10 days, effective from 12:00 o'clock noon of the day it is dated.

3 Vehicles Damaged In 2 Local Accidents

Three cars were damaged in two minor traffic mishaps within a five-minute interval Wednesday afternoon, police reported.

The first collision, timed at 1:50 on 1st Ave. near Railroad St., involved a 1963 model truck owned by the Wallover Oil Co. of Virginia Ave. and driven by David J. Pawelkoski, 17, of Beaver and a 1961 sedan operated by William E. Drumm Jr., 16, of 135 W. Church Ln. Pawelkoski was maneuvering in the driveway to a garage and Drumm was driving west on 1st Ave.

The second mishap, timed at 1:55 on Broadway, involved a 1967 model car driven by Freda Covert, 48, of Chester RD 1 and a 1958 auto driven by the Rev. Moses Bishop, 62, of Moore St. The woman was turning from Potters Alley onto Broadway and Rev. Bishop was backing from a parking place.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of Bessie M. Tilton who passed away 9 years ago, August 22nd:
She is gone from her home, how I miss her, my loving wife, gentle and true, she is gone to the beautiful mansions prepared for the good and the true. More and more each day I miss her, friends may think the wound is healed, but little they know the sorrow lies within my heart concealed.

Sadly missed by C. S. Tilton, Sr., and Family.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOUDS

QUESTION: Why are clouds of different colors?

ANSWER: Think of a grayish fog drifting across a mountain (upper left). The part in the sky is cloud. When it touches the ground, it is mist. But mist and clouds are actually the same thing. They are composed of tiny water droplets or ice crystals, condensed from moisture in the air so as to become visible. Clouds can be either a thin screen, like mist, or heavier, like rain cloud. We often see thin wispy streaks of cirrus cloud high in the sky. These are white because they are composed of ice crystals which reflect light as white, like snow. With veils of cloud lower down, such as stratus, we get more water droplets, and so these clouds look grayer and darker. When we get clouds like the nimbus, really dark grey and threatening, it means they are filled with raindrops. Puffy clouds piling up in a blue sky (cumulus, upper right) look white when the sunlight shines across at them, but the bottom layer will be blue gray because in shadow. When heavy clouds get between you and the sun in late afternoon, we get the beautiful effect shown at bottom. The dark part is deep bluish grey, but the thinner edges are brilliant gold.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1941, Nazi troops reached the outskirts of the Soviet city of Leningrad during World War II.

On this date:

In 1911, the Leonardo Da Vinci painting, "Mona Lisa," was stolen from the Louvre Museum in Paris. The painting was recovered in Italy in 1913.

In 1944, in World War II, U.S. Army Air Force planes began their first raids on Yap Island in the Caroline Islands.

In 1956, President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon were renominated at a Republican National Convention in San Francisco.

Five years ago—The U.N. Security Council met to hear Israel's charges of aggression by Syria.

One year ago — Thousands of fire fighters were battling fires over a vast mountain area in the northwestern United States.

SHIPPINGPORT — Fifty attended the annual congregational picnic of the Greene Valley United Methodist Church at Raccoon State Park Sunday.

Games were played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Hattie Hayward received a gift for being the oldest member present and Diane Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Green, a gift for being the youngest present.

A public card party will be sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Shippingport fire department Aug. 31 at 8 p. m. at the community building, and thereafter, on the first and third Saturdays of each month. Mrs. George Williams is president.

Bryce Robson, Alice Jean Mortimer and David Mortimer are attending the Jumonville Methodist Training Center at Uniontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham and son Jim have returned from a week's vacation in the southern states. While in the south, they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham Jr. at Gadsdon, Ala., and their daughter Carol at Arlington, Va.

Pottery Union Backs Ohio Power Strikers

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters asked its members Thursday to support the six-week-old strike of Locals 696 and 981 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers against the Ohio Power Co.

The IBOP asked its members to give "both moral and financial aid" to the striking electrical workers. It asked the pottery workers to "pay their electrical bills, if they must, somewhere other than the Ohio Power Co.'s main office." It issued a statement from the IBEW giving the union's side of the dispute.

Funeral Set Saturday For Ex-Grid Coach

HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—The former head football coach and athletic director at Washington Court House High School, Claude B. Cramer, died Thursday. He was 63.

Cramer, a 1930 graduate of Ohio University, had taught in the school system here 27 years. Services are to be held Saturday in Bloomingburg, where he once served as mayor.

By Delegates, Not Committee

Democrats Seen Forming Platform At Convention

CHICAGO (AP)—The Democratic party platform probably will be hammered together on the floor of the convention itself by the more than 2,600 delegates —rather than by the 110-member platform committee.

This prospect—which could mean delay next week in nominating presidential and vice presidential candidates — became more real today as a determined minority of the platform committee insisted on what a spokesman called the strongest possible plank for an early end to the Vietnam war.

The dispute over Vietnam, which repeatedly has shouldered aside such concerns as social legislation to help the poor and alleviate urban problems, inspired two separate plank-drafting efforts.

One is by the official 21-meber platform drafting subcommittee, which met into the night Thursday and resumes work today.

The other is by a group of about 25 members of the platform committee, who claim their ranks include supporters of all of the major candidates as well as uncommitted delegates, all bent on writing specific instruction for seeking a disengagement of the United States from Vietnam.

As few as 11 members of the platform committee by signing a minority report can force a floor debate and a vote between alternate platform provisions.

The deep division in the platform committee was dramatized Thursday by its reaction to an emotion-charged speech by Gov. John Connally of Texas.

Connally said such proposals as a bombing halt, a suspension of aggressive combat action by U.S. forces and a coalition government in South Vietnam would threaten a complete takeover by North Vietnam and its allies.

Then referring by name to Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota and George S. McGovern of South Dakota, chief rivals of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for the presidential nomination, Connally said it was "a sad and tragic experience to see presidential aspirants of the Democratic party try to equate our course of action in South Vietnam with what the Russians have done in Czechoslovakia, but that is precisely what they did."

"I would implore this committee to write a plank which supports the determined fight of the administration to preserve . . freedom," Connally said. He got a standing burst of applause from most of the platform committee members.

Immediately after the session advocates of an early-peace plank gathered. Afterward, Theodore Sorensen, a long-time associate of the Kennedy family said: "The Democratic platform must have a strong peace plank, or regardless of the nominee we can forget about the election. So we will present to the convention, as a majority report if it can be, or a minority report if it must be, the strongest peace plank we can pull."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Castelli of 868 Virginia Ave. will hold open house starting at 6 p.m. Sunday for their daughter, Janice, who will be graduated from the Columbia School of Nursing Friday.

The graduation exercises will be held at the Second United Presbyterian Church in Wilkinsburg. Janice is a 1965 graduate of Lincoln High School.

New Enamel Coating Announced By Ferro

The Ferro Corp. has announced the development of a low-temperature, self-cleaning porcelain enamel coating for use in gas and electric cooking ovens.

Developed in the Cleveland laboratories of Ferro's Frit Division, it is being field-tested by range manufacturers.

Laboratory tests indicate "the coating has unique properties of removing soil and cooking spatters while the oven is operating at normal baking and broiling temperatures." However, recommended cleaning cycles are conducted at the peak temperatures of most ovens.

Chamber Slates Meeting Plans At Midland Session

Plans to initiate regular membership meetings were discussed when the executive board of the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce held a dinner meeting Wednesday night at the home of William Verzella of Ohioview, Industry.

The dierctors decided to send a letter to Borough Council expressing appreciation to street department employes who unfurled flags along Midland Ave. prior to the annual July Fourth parade.

A general discussion of community projects was held. Anthony Martell, vice president, presided in the absence of Joseph Scalise, president.

The next meeting will be Sept. 11 at 7:30 p. m. at the McGeehan Agency.

2 Witnesses Report Versions Of Collision

Witnesses to an accident on Broadway Saturday involving an ambulance and an auto have indicated to police the ambulance driver — Robert Vranes of Midland — did not halt for the traffic signal.

Vranes, who said he had halted, said he had sounded his siren before the collision in the intersection with an auto operated by Joan P. Edgell, 18, of Andrews Pl. One witness said the siren was sounded, but not very loudly, and doubted if the girl could hear it.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOUDS

QUESTION: Why are clouds of different colors?

ANSWER: Think of a grayish fog drifting across a mountain (upper left). The part in the sky is cloud. When it touches the ground, it is mist. But mist and clouds are actually the same thing. They are composed of tiny water droplets or ice crystals, condensed from moisture in the air so as to become visible. Clouds can be either a thin screen, like mist, or heavier, like rain cloud. We often see thin wispy streaks of cirrus cloud high in the sky. These are white because they are composed of ice crystals which reflect light as white, like snow. With veils of cloud lower down, such as stratus, we get more water droplets, and so these clouds look grayer and darker. When we get clouds like the nimbus, really dark grey and threatening, it means they are filled with raindrops. Puffy clouds piling up in a blue sky (cumulus, upper right) look white when the sunlight shines across at them, but the bottom layer will be blue gray because in shadow. When heavy clouds get between you and the sun in late afternoon, we get the beautiful effect shown at bottom. The dark part is deep bluish grey, but the thinner edges are brilliant gold.

(Anne Cardinal of Portsmouth, N.H., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Aug. 22, the 235th day of 1968. There are 131 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1941, Nazi troops reached the outskirts of the Soviet city of Leningrad during World War II.

On this date:

In 1911, the Leonardo Da Vinci painting, "Mona Lisa," was stolen from the Louvre Museum in Paris. The painting was recovered in Italy in 1913.

In 1944, in World War II, U.S. Army Air Force planes began their first raids on Yap Island in the Caroline Islands.

Ten years ago — The U.S. atomic submarine "Skate" cancelled a visit to Copenhagen at the request of the Danish government, which feared radiation danger.

Five years ago—The U.N. Security Council met to hear Israel's charges of aggression by Syria.

One year ago — Thousands of fire fighters were battling fires over a vast mountain area in the northwestern United States.

Pair Injured; Officers Cite Man In Crash

Two persons were injured and officers cited a motorist on two charges in a spectacular collision that damaged three autos Thursday at 7:45 p.m. on Washington St. near E. 6th St.

A 1956 sedan driven by Darwin Woodrow Stowers, 24, of 744½ Leonard St. went out of control while rounding the turn at the downtown intersection and struck a parked 1965 sedan owned by William M. Shuman of 509 Ketchel Ave., Newell, shoving it into a parked 1966 sedan owned by William Tomchay of Charleroi, Pa., officers reported.

Two passengers in Stower's car, Karen Stowers, 18, and Randy Stowers, 3, were taken to City Hospital by ambulance. Karen was uninjured and Randy suffered lip injuries. They were treated and released.

Patrolman Charles Coen, who investigated, cited Stowers on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

Coen reported that Stowers was driving east on E. 6th St. As he turned onto Washington St., his car accelerated rapidly, went out of control and hit the two parked autos, he said.

The collision damaged the entire front end of Stowers' car and the rear sections of the other two autos.

Two cars were damaged in a collision Thursday at 4:44 p.m. on W. 5th St. at Monroe St., officers said.

The collision involved a 1964 four-door sedan driven by P. R. Blake, 82, of 1213 St. Clair Ave. and the auto of George B. Henthorn, 55, of 411 W. 4th St. The front of each auto was damaged.

Blake told police he was driving east on W. 5th St. and started to make a left turn onto Monroe St. when his car was hit by Henthorn's, which was moving west on W. 5th. Henthorn told officers Blake pulled in front of him and the cars hit head-on.

A collison on W. 6th St. at Dresden Ave. Thursday at 1:55 p.m. damaged a 1964 four-door sedan driven by Marie Buren, 26, of Wellsville RD 1 and a 1961 four-door operated by Gladys H. Bourne, 65, of 828 Bradshaw Ave.

River-To-Lake Group Receives Contract Report

All projects in Columbiana County for the River-to-Lake Highway, Route 11, will be under contract by October, P. E. Masheter, director of the Ohio Department of Highways, told the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association at a meeting in Ashtabula Thursday night.

Masheter reported the entire highway will be under contract sometime in 1969, with completion being projected for two years later.

Approximately 60, including representatives from East Liverpool and District 11 of the Highway Department, attended the dinner and meeting held at the Hotel Ashtabula.

2 Grab $5,800

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Proceeds amountng to $5,800 from parimutuel betting at the Darke County Fair were taken by two holdup men early Friday after they tied up Robert Neaman and his wife in their home near New Madison. Neaman had taken the days racing receipts home in his briefcast.

"TIRED DOUGHBOY" is typified by Woody Hawkins of Kenosha, Wis., who has donned a World War I uniform and marched in parades for the last 17 years. Hawkins, a World War II veteran, said the "Tired Doughboy" character was originated by a Kenosha World War I veteran, and he took it over in 1951. He wears size 22 shoes over his regular shoes and carries a fresh loaf of French bread on his back. When he's not parading, Hawkins keeps in shape by carrying the mail.

Judge Penalizes 9 Motorists On Traffic Charges

LISBON — A $15 fine against Nancy L. Brandonisio of Salineville, charged with speeding, was the largest levied in traffic cases Thursday by Judge J. L. MacDonald of Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Also fined were Janice M. Baxter, Hanoverton, stop sign violation, $10; Joseph W. Keating, Canton, expired operator's license, $5, and Harold R. Wylie, New Waterford, defective exhaust and improper use of motor vehicle with farm registration, $5 each.

Appearance bonds were forfeited by: Ernest W. Graybeal, Salem, speeding, and Donald Wilfong, Painesville, unsafe vehicle, $30 each; Charles A. Dobbins, Kensington, speeding, $25; James J. Tritten, Lisbon, following traffic too closely; Ronnie G. Wright, Kensington RD 1, passing traffic at intersection, and Robert G. Shaffer, Phillipi, W. Va., passing traffic on hill, $20 each, and Charles F. Iler, Cadiz RD 2, defective brakes; Paul E. Kurincak, Maple Heights, expired operator's license, and Theodore Harton, Minerva, failure to obey railroad crossing signal, $11 each.

Religious Figure Dies Cancer Fatal At 61

BERLIN, N.H. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Douglas Horton, 77, chief executive officer of the Congregational Christian Churches for 17 years and dean of Harvard University Divinity School from 1955 to 1959, died Wednesday. Dr. Horton was a key figure in formation of the National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — William C. Stewart, 61, former newspaper publisher who was a writer and editor for the Los Angeles Times since 1955, died Thursday of cancer. He had suffered from cancer for two years and wrote several articles about it for the Times. He formerly published the Southbridge (Mass.) Evening News.

Many Reported Dead In Soviet Plane Crash

VIENNA (AP) — The Czechoslovak radio reported today that a Soviet transport plane crashed during the night at the city of Budejovice and "there were many dead and injured" among the Soviets on it.

The injured were taken to a Czechoslovak hospital and the doctors there were administering blood transfusions, the broadcast added. Shortly thereafter, Soviet soldiers reported to the hospital to donate blood.

The broadcast had no other details.

Ceramic Playrites Earn Laughs With 3-Act Play

Unlikely motherhood for a middle - aged matron provided the laughable situation enjoyed by those who attended the opening night of the Ceramic Playrite's presentation of "Never Too Late" Thursday at the Liberty Theater at Wellsville.

The 3-act comedy will be presented again tonight and Sunday night.

The cast, which includes Ed McCune and Mary Welling, leads, and co-stars Dick Frankel, Rosemary Finney, Jim Graham, Rosemary Morris, Nick Arlov and Melanie Kinsey, performed like troupers, though for the most part it was their first time on stage.

McCune, who portrays a middle - aged New England lumberyard owner, and Miss Welling, his somewhat haggard 'wife," drew sympathetic laughter from the audience when she announced her pregnancy.

Frankel, the man - who-married - the boss'-daughter, Miss Finney, stole the show with his "loose - limbed" antics. His character especially shined in his efforts to avoid his wife, when she decided to become pregnant to escape the unaccustom duties of housework.

Curtain time is at 8:30 p. m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Pottery Museum's Creation Linked To State's Bond Issue

The Ohio Historical Society at Columbus told municipal officials Thursday that establishment of an Ohio Pottery Museum here, probably in the present post office building, can be regarded as a virtual certainty if a statewide bond issue for capital improvements is improved at the November general election.

Responding to a letter from Don Eckert, city planning coordinator, Dan Porter, a director, said the historical society "has specifically approved an allocation of $100,000 for establishment of a Museum of Ceramic Dinnerware in East Liverpool." The funds would be provided from the statewide bond issue, provided it is approved by the voters and the legislature appropriates the money, he said.

PORTER said the society's board is "firmly on record" in favor of establishing the museum here. If the museum is set up in the post office, the title to the building would have to be held by the state of Ohio or the State Historical Society if state funds were expended on it, but the parts which were not being used for state purposes could be leased to the East Liverpool Historical Society, Porter added.

"The fate of this project rests on approval of Issue No. 1 (the bond issue) in the November election," Porter said in his letter.

Eckert said he received the reply to a letter in which he wrote the Historical Society "to remind it to keep us in mind for the establishment of the museum." He said he pointed out that the Ohio dinnerware industry originated here and "East Liverpool is the logical place for such a museum." He said he also pointed out that "the fine stone building" now used as a post office will become vacant soon and would provide an ideal spot for the museum.

THE POSTAL facility may move out of the building at E. 5th St. and Broadway within a few months and occupy its new quarters on Dresden Ave.

Authorities said when such a building becomes vacant it is the government's policy to offer it first for use of any interested federal agency. Then, it would be offered to other political subdivisions in descending order of importance — the state, the county and finally the municipality. If no governmental agency took over the building, it would be offered for sale.

A movement has been afoot for months to acquire the building for the site of a pottery museum. Gov. James A. Rhodes pledged funds from a previous state bond issue proposal to help establish the museum, but the issue was turned down by voters.

Newell Man Reports Beating Near Tavern

Eugene Green of 400-A Grant St. Newell was treated at City Hospital for injuries suffered when he claimed he was beaten along the Chester-Newell Rd. at 1:30 a. m. today.

Green was treated for abrasions of the forehead and a bruise of the left eye. He was taken to the hospital by his father. Green told Chester police he came out of a tavern and was jumped and beaten by unidentified persons.

Two Injured When Cycle, Car Collide

Richard Frank Hill, 19, of Lisbon RD 2 and a passenger on his motorcycle, Stephen L. Blake of Burnville, W. Va., were injured in a motorcycle - car accident a half-mile north of Lisbon on Route 45 at 5 p. m. Thursday.

Robert L. Boso of 813 Bank St., driving a 1962 coach, was attempting to make a left turn into a drive-in as Hill attempted to pass and struck the left side of his vehicle. Hill was cited for improper passing.

He and Blake received noticeable injuries, but said they would go to a family physician, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Lee Cain Jr., 36, of East Liverpool, RD 1 was driving his 1968 coach south on Route 7, about a half - mile north of Route 517, when he attempted to avoid a tractor - trailer heading south which was left of center. Cain's auto left the road and struck a utility pole. The truck did not stop. Cain said he would see a family physician.

Siff Store Sets Its Opening Here

Pre-opening of Siff's Shoe Store of 120 W. 6th St. will be at 9 a.m. Saturday morning, Mike Palumbo, general manager of Gilbert Shoe Co., said today.

Bill McWhorter of 1903 St. Clair Ave. will be manager of the store. He said the store will observe regular hours.

Prizes will be given.

The store is air - conditioned and completely remodeled, including carpeting inside and at the entrance. There will be clerk service and self-service.

The store was originally on the Diamond, but was burned out in the March 3 fire.

Dawson Assists In Support For 2 State Issues

Frank A. Dawson of East Liverpool has been named general chairman of the Greater Ohio Committee of southern Columbiana County.

His appointment was announced Thursday by State Sens. Ted Gray and Frank W. King, co-chairmen of the Greater Ohio Committee.

The committee headed by Dawson held its first meeting at noon today at the Travelers Hotel.

A Greater Ohio Committee of northern Columbiana County also is being formed.

The Greater Ohio Committee is a bipartisan organization supporting the two state constitutional amendments (Issues 1 and 2; which will be on the Nov. 5 ballot.

Issue 1 proposes the spending of $500 million over a five-year period for highway construction and elimination of urban traffic bottlenecks.

It also proposed $259 million for capital improvements in various areas, including water pollution, mental health, higher and technical education, vocational education and juvenile delinquency.

All projects included in Issue 1 will be subject to legislative approval.

Issue 2 provides property tax exemptions for home owners 65 years old or older who occupy their homes.

Ask Court Review

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Top city and police officials have asked for a U.S. District Court review to determine whether the recent federal grand jury has used a "disorderly vehicle" to obtain evidence for the defense of three federal officials. The motion, filed on behalf of Columbus' mayor, safety director, police chief and ranking police officials, also asks a court decision on whether any federal officials have violated the secrecy of the jury proceedings.
